Rivals the "Human Fly" Of all American animals, bighorn, the mountain sheep, is one of the most remarkable. Not only is he equally remarkable in his ability to live, and live well, in an environment where it would seem that no animal of such size could possibly sustain life. There, on the roof of the world, he not only sustains life, but winter or summer, appears to be fat and in the best of condition, the People's Home Magazine says.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

WELLS RIVER

Wells Riverites joined in the peace celebration Monday in great glee. After the ringing of the church and school bells which told the great news, an impromptu parade started at 10 o'clock. Over 80 automobiles from Woodsville and Wells River joined forces and with school children and Boy Scouts drove from Woodsville to North Haverhill, across the river to Newbury and home to Wells River again. In the evening an effigy of Kaiser Bill was burned in the street, opposite the furniture store, a drum corps adding to the merriment of the affair. With the singing of the popular war songs, the party adjourned to the village hall and spent the rest of the evening in singing and dancing.

The young women in town will soon present a play entitled "Rebellious Jane." The proceeds will be given to the War Activities, so be sure to have your admission price on hand!

Mrs. Dwinell of Marshfield is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Leon Wilson, for a week.

Fred LeClare of Littleton was the guest of James King and other friends over Sunday.

The notice of the death in an airplane accident in France of Rev. L. H. Fuller was noticed on Monday. Mr. Fuller was pastor of the Methodist church in Lunenburg for several months and was universally liked by young and old and was a young man of much promise. His many friends here are saddened by the news of his death.

George Covey and his brother-in-law, Carl Bishop of Whitefield, are on a hunting trip this week. Mrs. Covey and little sons are visiting his parents in Whitefield during their

A telephone message from H. F. Balch at St. Johnsbury to K. O. Balch on Saturday evening told of the serious illness of W. E. Balch, who had a shock of paralysis while at work in the Fairbanks Museum. He was taken to the private hospital where Mrs. Balch is staying and at last reports was unconscious and no hope given of recovery. K. O. Balch and Walter Balch, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Balch, went at once on receipt of the message remaining over Sunday. Much sympathy is felt for the son, both parents being seriously ill at St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Mildred Waterman and Fred Walker of St. Johnsbury visited Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Wentworth and little Hilfred Waterman and other friends in the village on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis and son Truman went on Monday to Fitzdale, where Mr. Curtis will work for the Fitzdale Paper Co. They will have rooms at the Henry King residence for the winter, leaving their home here in this village for the winter, but will probably return in the spring, and be frequent visitors during the winter, as we are glad to state.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Silsby and Miss Anna Silsby went Monday to Athol, Mass., where they will visit relatives for a short time and later locate near there for the winter. They will be much missed by their friends both in the village and at their former home on Pond Hill.
