War Savings Stamps

of the 1918 Issue mature January 1, 1923

We have arrangements whereby we can send in to the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston all War Savings Stamps which are not registered and by forwarding well ahead of January 1, payment will be made to us promptly. This will obviate delay in receiving funds as might prove true, due to congestion of business, if settlement is attempted through the local post office.

Funds will thus be received, we expect, in season to start interest on any deposit from January first.

We have already given attention to those we hold for safe-keeping for our customers but if you have any not yet presented to us, please bring in at once and we will collect, free of any expense to you.

GIRL SCOUTS GET HANDSOME W. R. C. SILK FLAG

Other Holiday Activities of Community League and Scouts

The Girl Scouts of Thistle Troop 3, of St. Johnsbury, were recently the recipients of a beautiful gift, a silk American flag and standard, from Chamberlin Relief Corps. Mrs. Morse, patriotic instructor, presented the flag, mentioning the outstanding facts in its history. Lillian Weiner accepted the gift for the troop saying, "We know about the flag and how to respect it because we are Girl Scouts." Mrs. Oscar Cummings, president of the Relief Corps, was present at the ceremony.

To show their appreciation of the gift, Troop 3 helped the Relief Corps this year on the veterans' Christmas boxes.

Thistle Troop has been organized for more than a year. Its first lieutenant was Miss Rhea Gilson. It has been under the charge of Miss Eleanor Jenks and Miss Dorothy Walter. Its emblem, the thistle, was chosen in honor of Caledonia County, Caledonia being an old name of Scotland and the thistle being a Scotch national emblem. The present officers were: Lieutenant Irene Aldrich, Troop leader, Phyllis Oliver, secretary, Marjorie Woods, treasurer, Elizabeth Woodworth.

All League members, young or old, are invited to assist with the singing of carols around the Community tree on Court House Square, Sunday afternoon at 4.30. This includes Girl Scouts, Good Times and Live Wires Achievement Clubs, Square Circle and members of the industrial classes and the League committee. There will be a rehearsal of carols Friday afternoon at four o'clock at the club house.

Miss Dorothy Walter entertained the Square Circle at supper Monday night in honor of Florence Young and Ellen Thompson who are leaving St. Johnsbury to work elsewhere. After supper the girls danced to music by Miss Lillian Richards. Those present were Misses Cleona Nichols, Vera Johnson and Pearl Gates of the Square Circle, two guests of the club, Miss Rose Cyr and Miss Mary Dinsmore and three members of the dancing class, Barbara Hayes, Estella Manning and Norma Page.

This is the open season for Christmas parties. The first one comes Thursday from 8 to 6.30 for the Live Wires club. Each girl is to bring a picnic lunch and a present. Girl Scouts, Troop 3, follow on Friday with a party from 8 to 5. Each girl is to bring a guest and a picnic lunch for two, and two presents. On Thursday, December 24 comes the Good Times club Christmas party. All girls are invited who have been members since September. The dolls of the younger members are to be guests of the club and the bigger girls who don't play with dolls now are to be hostesses to the doll's mother. Each girl is to bring a present and a picnic lunch.

These parties are not elaborate affairs, but are made very pleasant by the efforts of the little girls themselves, who plan the programs, games, decorations and refreshments themselves, and enjoy the preliminaries quite as much as the finished product.

There will be no dancing classes for two weeks on account of Christmas and New Year's.

May Curritthers, Ida Constantine, Blanche Cook and Evelyn Perkins are newly enrolled Tenderfoot Scouts in Troop 2.

The girls of Troop 4 studied how to make an American flag according to correct proportions at their last meeting.

At the closing of the Christmas exercises there will be a free offering taken for the Near East Relief.
