alone, as between old rivals, will be an attraction of no mean proportions.

Everything points to the greatest game that has been seen in St. Johnsbury in years. The Company D boys will be the acme of fitness following their games with Windsor and Keene tonight and tomorrow night. Coach Burns is negotiating with "Sap" Richardson of Claremont, N. H. who is considered as one of the fastest centers that ever performed in this vicinity. Curley hopes to arrange that Richardson may be a regular attribute of Company D, to replace Fitz Marshall, and Puss Connor.
Duffy Lewis of Hardwick has been engaged to referee both games, in the absence of Pat Kane, who was unable to come during the holiday season.

HORSE RACES FOR SATURDAY ON SNOWPATH

St. Johnsbury Driving Club Starts Speedway Contests

St. Johnsbury race fans are assured of some real sport Saturday for the big snowfall of Sunday and the sharp weather of Tuesday and Wednesday have put the Main street speedway in prime condition. The quarter mile was given the first scraping Wednesday forenoon and looks more than usually tempting.

Considerable interest in the Saturday afternoon matinee is being shown by the horsemen of Danville, Barnet, Kirby and Woodsville with an entry from each of the first three towns for this week. It is possible that at an early date Margaret Baron, 22014 owned by W. F. Reney of Woodsville will be seen competing with the local horses.

Lyndonville Driving Club are expecting to have their annual Christmas matinee Monday, December 25 and have extended an invitation to the boys of the St. Johnsbury organization to come up and see how it is done. It was decided at the weekly meeting of the local club Wednesday night to return the complement and so will matinee on New Year's Day which will give the boys from the 'Ville a chance to see some real stepping.

The matinee for this week is called at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon and it is expected that 10 horses will start classified as follows:

- Class A, pace—Fred Haltoon, ch. g. Burke; Leo Perrin, br g. Corriveau.
- Class B mixed—Dawn, b g. Scully; Topal, b. g. McGinnis.
- Class C, pace—Little Ted, blk chg. Ingalls; Rex Jr., b g. Prue.
- Class D, Pace—Franchis H. b m. Johnson; Hallie S. b m. Jay.
- Class E, Trot—Milk Boy, br g. Fleming; Pat C, ch g. Cota.

Be Sure Christmas Comes From Lurchin & Lurchin

In giving Christmas presents, it is always well to think what effect the name on the box will have on the one receiving the present.

The name of Lurchin & Lurchin on a jewelry box indicates to the recipient that he or she has received the best in jewelry.

Come in and look around and ask questions. We cheerfully invite a comparison of prices.
