

CORINTH

Newport, N. H., Wedding of Much Interest Here.

A wedding of much interest to Corinth people and adjoining towns occurred in Newport, N. H., on Wednesday, June 23, at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rudolph Eastman, for also being a granddaughter of the late Foster I. Sargent, at which time Rena Mae Eastman and G. Conrad Snow, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Snow of Manchester, N. H., were united in marriage by Rev. B. L. Chase of Whitney, Vt., an uncle of the bride.

The bride was attended by Miss Madge Jackson of Newport, N. H., and the groom's attendant was Harold U. Smith of Manchester, N. H. Barbara Eastman and Duane Chase, sister and cousin of the bride, officiated as ring bearers and little Norman Dickerson, nephew of the bride, acted as flower boy.

The bride was gowned in white satin and georgette and carried bride's roses, her only ornaments being a gold brooch which was worn by her mother and her grandmother Sargent at their weddings, and a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. Miss Jackson wore blue georgette and carried white carnations.

Miss Minnie Finnigan presided at the piano and also assisted Miss Mura Eastman in serving in the dining room after the ceremony. The house was tastefully decorated with roses and marigolds. The many gifts included cut glass, china, silver and linen.

The happy couple left amid a shower of confetti and the best wishes of a host of friends. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Snow will reside at Newport, N. H., where he is employed by Ralph H. Tenney, electrical contractor. Corinth friends extend congratulations.

E. C. Woods of Charleston, N. H., was in town two days last week in the interest of his "Garden Hill" farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hastings were at J. R. Eastman's in Newport, N. H., and at E. C. Woods', Charleston, N. H., last week.

Elder F. S. Hartwell is a guest at G. C. Moulton's. Mr. Hartwell will speak at the Corinth meadow church on Sunday, July 4, at 11 o'clock a. m.; subject, "Astronomy and the Bible." Everyone invited.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Dickinson, John Munroe and family, Clarence Morse and family and Fred Clifton motored to Burlington Sunday.

Mrs. F. J. Hutton attended the banquet of the Charlotte Morris association of past matrons and past patrons at Montpelier last Thursday evening.

Bernard Edwards of Thompsonville, Conn., is a guest at his grandfather's, P. G. Morris.

Mrs. Burton Alexander (nee Anna Edwards) of Springfield, Mass., is at the Wesson Memorial hospital, room 17, for an operation for appendicitis. A peculiar feature of the case is that she was operated upon by Dr. Edith T. Smith, who was a native of Corinth, as well as his patient, as he is upon the operating staff of that hospital.

Ernest Humphrey of Montclair, N. J., is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. B. Comstock. He is recuperating from a sickness in the hospital.

Mr. Cram of Pawtucket, R. I., is at H. W. Chalmers' for a few days.

Glenn Aldrich of Claremont, N. H., accompanied by his friend, Guy Davis, were over-Sunday guests of his aunt, Mrs. George A. Parker. They came on their motor cycles.

Bryan Fitts and sister, Sarah, of Windsor came on his motor cycle to the home of their grandmother Darling on Sunday.

Oscar Hall is no better and his milk team to the creamery has been discontinued, after 20 years of continuous delivery, which is quite a disappointment to his many old customers.

CHELSEA

Charles Morrill of Stratford is working for his uncle, Alfred H. Dodge, during the summer vacation.

Will A. Reed has purchased a truck to use in connection with his rapidly increasing lumber business.

The social dance at the town hall last Friday evening was fairly well attended and the music by Landi's orchestra was good and much enjoyed.

Herbert R. Colby, who has occupied the Richard Kennedy farm for the past eight years, wishes to move his family to Barre in the near future, where he will follow the vocation of a carpenter.

Daniel G. Stoughton, who recently sold his house at South Royalton, has moved his household goods to his home on Mrs. Ellen Cleveland's here in this village and will make his headquarters here when off duty from his vocation as a contractor and builder. He is now engaged in superintending the construction of a large pulp mill in Middlebury, which job will probably cover a period of about two years.

Do not forget the Masonic ball which will be held under the auspices of George Washington lodge, No. 31, F. and A. M., Friday evening of this week. Steele's orchestra of South Royalton, which in the past has been the best for or in drawing a large attendance, will furnish the music for this occasion.

Among those from here who attended the Farnsworth-Angell wedding at East Brookfield last Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard H. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sprague, Mrs. George C. Tuthery and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sprague and Charles R. Angell.

Miss Lyle Baraw is clerking in the E. A. Corwin Co. store during her summer vacation, taking the place made vacant upon the return of Mrs. Myron A. Little to her home in Oneonta, N. Y.

Myron A. Little, who had been clerking for O. D. Tracy for the past two months, returned recently to Oneonta, N. Y., and resumed his work as traveling salesman for a granite manufacturing concern.

Charles R. Durkee and family, who have occupied the Charles A. Denmore tenement house during the winter, have moved back to their farm on the east hill, and John H. Flanders and wife have moved from the bobbin shop tenement to the Denmore house, vacated by Mr. Durkee.

The Orange County garage, which has been closed since the first of the year, is now open for public patronage, which fact will fill a long felt need, since one garage in this place cannot handle the volume of business which naturally centralizes its patronage here. The new proprietor is Nelson Bette of Corinth, who a short time since came from Boston, where he had ten years' experience in automobile repair work, and comes here well recommended. He expects to move his family to the new place.

Will H. Luce has been appointed by the selectmen and county highway supervisor to work the state money and will begin on the Vershire road, where he left off state work last fall.

Luther Baraw, brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Baraw, who recently graduated from the Montpelier seminary, has returned to Montpelier and is taking a six months' business and commercial course in that city.

Mrs. James B. Stewart and son, Robert, of Barre came the first of the week to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hale K. Darling.

Harold E. Corwin of Boston arrived in town last week for a two weeks' vacation and is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Corwin.

Miss Hope Abbott, who has been teaching during the past year in Bristol, is spending her vacation at the home of her mother, Mrs. Rufus Abbott in South Washington.

Reginald L. Hill, who graduated last week from the academic department of the University of Vermont, is spending a few days in town as the guest of his mother. During the past year he has, in addition to his senior work in the academic department, taken the freshman work in the medical department and will return to the university in the fall to continue his studies in the medical department.

During a short recess of the court, Judge Stanley C. Wilson is at his home here from Manchester, where he is holding the June term of Bennington county court.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Bixby of Chicago are in town for a brief visit at the home of the former's father, Frank E. Bixby.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Corwin were in town for a few days last week and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Corwin.

The final work of putting the post-office quarters in the new Masonic temple in readiness for occupancy is being done by C. N. Dearborn and Col. Bixby will move into the new quarters on or before July 1.

John Doyle is laying plans for doing a large lumber job this fall and winter and has purchased a heavy pair of horses of H. M. Farnham of Montpelier.

Attorney Hale K. Darling was in Barre on legal business Monday.

RANDOLPH

Mrs. Clarence Sault and daughter of Springfield are in town visiting relatives and friends, having formerly lived in this place.

The funeral of the late Andrew Reed, whose death occurred at the home of his sister, Mrs. F. A. Bruce, on Sunday, was held on Tuesday and the remains were taken to Manchester, N. H., for burial. Mr. Reed had one son who was present at the services and accompanied the party to Manchester.

Several days ago an order was received that the postoffice at East Braintree was abolished, and the work would be done from this office. Later reports decide that the office will continue there as formerly, and work continued upon the same lines.

Preparations are in progress here for an extensive celebration on Monday the 5th, and the whole affair will be in charge of the American Legion. The day will be full of amusement, beginning at an early hour with the ringing of bells and blowing of whistles. A parade will also be given in the forenoon in which many will participate. Many organizations will be represented in this parade and floats gaily decorated will be numerous, fanned at the athletic field, and in the evening an illumination, and grand ball at the Salisbury warehouse, with Carroll's orchestra of eight pieces to furnish music.

S. W. Howard was quite ill on Monday and yesterday he had a bad cold, but was more comfortable today the day following.

Reginald Lyman of Waltham, Mass., is in town, the guest of H. L. Hatch.

WELLS RIVER

The new summer trains were put into effect Monday. The day New York express leaves here at 9:32 while the northbound train is due here at 4:30 p. m. (Woodsville time). The night New York trains are running one hour earlier than formerly. The old noon New York train has also been added, leaving here at 11:30 a. m. and returning at 3:30 p. m. Evening train south is running one hour later, due here at 6:50. The night mails are now running seven nights per week. With these additions we can now say that we have rail passenger service between here and Boston.

The afternoon mail north Monday was held here over an hour due to the fact that they were unable to unload a horse that had been shipped by express. It required a great deal of patience and skill before the horse could be safely unloaded. The meeting on the car to the platform it had belonged to George Lyons of Woodsville and was of considerable value.

"The Girl Up Stairs" was presented in the church vestry by members of the Junior Sunday school last Monday night. The play was under the management of Mrs. Kidder.

E. E. Stark, who has been spending several weeks with friends in town, returned to his work in Boston last Sunday afternoon.

Frank Norris and family have been spending a week or two camping at Lake Morry.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur are visiting at the home of his sister in Richmond.

George Clark of Barre was a visitor at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Leslie Bailey, last Saturday and Sunday.

Woodsville defeated Whitefield at Woodville last Saturday by a score of 5 to 3. Leavitt of Lisbon pitched for Woodville while McAulay of Manchester played short, Barber third and Sullivan second. This makes a completely new infield with the exception of Larty, who played first. The man who pitched for Whitefield was a first string pitcher of St. Anselm's college.

We understand he is to pitch for Woodville for the rest of the season. If so, Woodville should have a very strong team, as their infield at this time is air tight.

EAST HARDWICK
