The name of Hugh James Cole was omitted from the list of Barre young men and young women getting degrees from the University of Vermont as printed in yesterday's paper. He received the degree of B. S. in chemistry.

Mrs. A. Rizzi and three children of Willey Street have departed for Detroit, Mich., going there to join Mr. Rizzi, who left during the labor trouble in Barre to secure employment. He is now employed at the Ford auto factory.

Miss Della Barney and Mrs. Gertrude Gallie of New York City are visiting for a time Mrs. Gallie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rock of Farwell street. Miss Barney plans to pass a week at her home in Williamstown before returning.

Joseph Weaver and wife, accompanied by Mr. Weaver's brother, Dominick, of Bridgeport, Conn., went to attend the wedding of Mr. Weaver's sister, Mrs. Morrisville, to Dr. Cauty of St. Johnsbury. The wedding occurred at the Weaver home in Morrisville yesterday.

Papers were made out in the D. A. Perry Real Estate office yesterday whereby the sale of the Dell V. Stone property in Williamstown, known as the Little farm, was completed and title given to Levi L. Lemieux and wife of Canada. The purchasers invest for a home and plan to take immediate possession. Another transaction of importance to transpire in the Perry Real Estate office was the deal in which James Matheson and Grace Matheson of Williamstown conveyed their home place to Joseph Jacques and wife of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Jacques plan to take possession as soon as possible.

Addie M. Jackson, in a transaction yesterday, conveyed her home place on Merchant street extension to George C. Hatch and Esther M. Hatch of this city. Papers completing the deal were passed yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Jackson will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch.

Mrs. N. D. Phelps of Park street left for Boston yesterday to attend the Pilgrim memorial centennial meeting there. The remainder of the week will be spent with friends in Lynn, Mass.

Mr. Morgan, engineer for Thomas M. James, architect, of Boston was in town yesterday to look over the new location for the Peoples National bank, on the ground floor of the Aldrich block. The work on the new bank is to start as soon as possible and will take several months to complete. It is thought there will be alterations both in the space to be occupied and in the whole block, it was announced, and new equipment will be installed in the building. The entire construction will be in the hands of T. M. James of Boston.

The Rutland Herald had the following account of the marriage, Saturday, of Miss Lucille Eleanor Graveston, a former drawing teacher in the Barre schools, to Edgar Thomas Perkins of Rutland: "Edgar Thomas Perkins of North Main street and Miss Lucille Eleanor Graveston of Rutland were quietly married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. G. W. Peck, the bride wore a tan suit and a dark hat. They will make their home at 261 North Main street. The bride is a graduate of the Boston Art school and Bridgewater Normal school and has taught in Barre and Richmond, Mass., for several years."

Floyd A. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Mitchell, left on the 7:10 train this morning for West Point, N. Y., where he will enroll in the government military training college. A number of his friends and neighbors were present at the station to bid him goodbye. Mr. Mitchell is perhaps one of the youngest men to receive an appointment to this government school and the result of his examinations reflects splendidly both on himself and on the public schools of Barre, where he received his training. When he took his competitive examination at Northfield, he was the highest in his class. In December he received his appointment from Senator Carroll S. Page. His excellent physique, due no doubt to the fact that most of his life has been spent on his father's farm, resulted in his passing the physical examination at Burlington in March. He later received orders to report at the school July 1. Mr. Mitchell is only 18 years old and was a member of the graduating class at Spaulding high school this June, taking second honor. Barre takes pride in the honor as well as do his parents, and his success will be watched with interest.

WATERBURY

Last Sunday was children's day at the Methodist church and the exercises were much enjoyed. It is worthy of note that Mrs. R. H. Crossett has been leader of the primary class in that church for 46 years in succession, being now 80 years of age. A church with a member as faithful as this is fortunate.

WASHINGTON

L. G. VanHorn left June 28 for his home in Chicago. Mr. VanHorn has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Scott for the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lyman, Mrs. Will Scott and Mrs. Jessie Bohanon were in Montpelier Monday.
