ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

The mercury registered 93 degrees in the shade at Rutland Sunday.

Mrs. Oscar H. Blossom of Bellows Falls got a broken right arm when she attempted to crank her automobile and the thing backfired.

Claiming that Frank A. Wallace of Castleton had paid her no rent for 15 years, Mrs. Ellen Bragg of the same town is suing Wallace for $15,000, rent and interest.

After touring the country from Florida to Vermont in search of a farm, A. B. Sahlin has purchased the $10,000 140-acre farm near Pumpkin hill trestle in St. Johnsbury.

Albert Billodeau of Newport is under $300 bail on the charge of attempting to smuggle his brother, Emery, into the United States by means of claiming someone's citizenship papers as Emery's.

An autopsy revealed that Charles H. Wyatt, the colored man, whose body was found in a sitting posture at the window of his house last Saturday, died of acute dilation of the heart. None of the man's relatives have been located.

In attempting to drive past another automobile, a Mr. Minott of Greenfield, Mass., got too far into the ditch in Salisbury and rammed a telephone pole, breaking the pole off and damaging the machine considerably. Mr. Minott had one shoulder dislocated and received cuts from broken glass of the windshield. Four other people in the car were not much hurt.

While attempting to turn a Ford car around, Miss Cordelia Ball backed the machine off the wall and into Lake Bomoseen. Miss Ball and her companions, Hazel Proctor, Mildred Gutterson, Carrie Cheever and Frances Hamilton were rescued by nearly a hundred bathers and none of them was found to be seriously hurt although the car turned over twice and landed bottom side up in the lake with kindshield and top of car demolished.

A complete county ticket has been named by the Democrats of Caledonia county, the names on the ticket being as follows: State senators, Charles N. Whitney of St. Johnsbury and F. E. Dwinell of Lyndonville; side judges, M. V. B. Dow of Danville and John B. Finley of St. Johnsbury; sheriff, E. E. Roy of St. Johnsbury; high bailiff, H. M. Osgood of Danville; judge of probate, Arthur L. Graves of St. Johnsbury; state's attorney, Samuel E. Richardson of Barnet.

The buildings on the farm of Joseph Lavoie, the last farm on the Vermont side of the international boundary line north of Newport, were burned Saturday night, the fire being caused by spontaneous combustion, it is thought. Over 100 tons of hay were destroyed. Loss, $10,000.

It now develops that Mrs. H. B. Dodge of Swampscott, a summer resident at Bartlett, N. H., did not lose her $1,500 diamond pendant in St. Johnsbury at all but she slipped it into a folder describing St. Johnsbury and didn't know it until she started to show the folder to a friend at Bartlett and the pendant dropped out.

Joseph and Anthony Redig of St. Albans are nursing injuries received in different accidents. Joseph was in the way of a cake of ice which fell from an ice truck on his right ankle, breaking no bones but bruising the ankle severely; Anthony's right hand was under a wheel of an automobile when a jack slipped from under the car while the tire was being changed.

Nellie J. Kingsley and A. W. Rogers have secured divorces from their respective matrimonial partners in Windsor county court, the cases being heard jointly because both were for desertion, Earle Kingsley and Mrs. Dora Rogers having eloped a year ago, Mr. Rogers getting the custody of five minor children.

Wessell, Nickle & Gross of New York City, manufacturers of piano actions are to build a three-story brick factory at Barton. A modern factory and dry kiln for use in manufacturing wood products, connected with their New York business will be put up this fall. The concern has large holdings of timber in the vicinity of Barton.

TWO BURGLARS SENTENCED.

Got a Year at Hard Labor in the State Prison in Windsor.

Brattleboro, Aug. 11.—Sentences of not less than one year nor more than two years at hard labor in the state prison in Windsor were imposed by Judge A. E. Cudworth in the municipal court Monday afternoon on James Tracy and James Carroll, they having pleaded guilty to charges of grand larceny, the offenses having been committed July 29 at the home of Charles Atherton, who lives in the second house down from the top of Hogback mountain on the west side, a few miles from Wilmington.

The young men had been in jail at Newfane awaiting trial at the September term of court, and they asked that State's Attorney E. W. Gibson file information against them in order that they might plead guilty. In this they evidently acted the part of wisdom, because if the cases had come to trial it was State's Attorney Gibson's intention to amend his complaints and charge the respondents with breaking and entering, in which case they doubtless would have been given more severe sentences.

State's Attorney Gibson said that when the warrants were issued he did not have at hand information showing that the respondents entered the Atherton house, so they were charged with grand larceny in stealing several dresses belonging to Miss Mildred Atherton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Atherton. He could not change the complaints after the respondents had asked to have information filed against them on the grand larceny charge, although he had learned they forced an entrance to the house.

John Bacci was with the two others in Newfane jail, on the same charge, and joined with the others in asking that informations be filed, and he was brought here with them Monday by Sheriff Frank L. Wellman, but the respondents agreed that he had nothing to do with the larceny and did not enter the house. State's Attorney Gibson thought it would be unfair to accept a plea of guilty from him without further investigation, so his case was continued at the request of his counsel, Attorney A. V. D. Piper, and he was returned to Newfane jail pending inquiry to learn whether he has a record.

"IT CERTAINLY WAS LUCKY DAY FOR ME"

"Tanlac Has Done So Much For Me I Feel It My Duty to Tell Others About It," He Says

"Tanlac has done so much for me that I feel it my duty to make a statement so that other suffering people may know about this medicine," said A. R. Mairs, 3 Nickwackett street, Rutland, Vermont. Mr. Mairs has resided in Rutland for about twenty-five years and is a well-known citizen.

"It's been more than a year now," he continued, "that my stomach got all upset, and my appetite became so poor that I didn't know what it was to be hungry. Everything I ate disagreed with me and at times even a glass of water would cause me distress. After eating anything I would bloat all up with sour gas, and would suffer from dizzy attacks and shortness of breath.

"My kidneys worried me terribly and I had awful pains in the small of my back. I have suffered from rheumatism the greatest portion of my seventy years and this, together with my other troubles, put me in a terribly weak, run-down condition.

"Well, I finally hit upon Tanlac, and it's lucky for me that I did, for it certainly is doing the work for me. My appetite is so big that I eat three good square meals a day now and I never have a sign of indigestion. I'm a strong believer in safety first, so I'm going to take a few more bottles of Tanlac. But even now I don't feel a trace of the rheumatism that I suffered from so long, and I've gained so much strength, and am so much better in every way that I just feel fine. Tanlac is undoubtedly the best medicine I ever heard of for troubles like mine, and I'm glad of the opportunity to recommend it to others."

Tanlac is sold in Barre by the Barre Drug Co., in Northfield by Nat A. Wheeler, in Waterbury by Brisbin & Brisbin, and in Websterville by E. H. Nerney.—Adv.
