RANDOLPH

Ernest Macy and Miss Lila Hall united in marriage.
A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Macy on Vine street when Lila Louise, youngest daughter of Mrs. George Hall, and Ernest Joseph Macy, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Macy, were united in marriage by Rev. J. B. Sargent, pastor of the Congregational church. The bride was dressed in sapphire blue satin, trimmed with white lace, and was attended by her cousin, Miss Hazel Harvey of Barre, who wore blue silk. The groom was attended by his friend, Henry Rockhill. The bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a bar pin, set with pearls, and the groom's gift to the best man a Modern Woodman's pin.
The wedding party stood under an arch of red and green, from which was suspended a large bell. The room was decorated in Christmas colors.
After the ceremony, refreshments were served to about 45 friends and relatives of both parties. Many gifts were received, including linen, silver, cut glass, furniture, money, hand-painted china, pyrex and aluminum.
Amid a shower of confetti, Mr. and Mrs. Macy left on a short wedding trip. On their return they will go to live on the farm on east hill which the groom recently purchased.
Those from out of town to attend the wedding were Mrs. Edwin Hall of Stowe, Mr. and Mrs. Perley Hall and two sons and Leon Lisor of Berlin, Mrs. F. H. Harvey, three daughters and two sons of Williamstown.
