

ROCHESTER

Gayle Eaton Badly Injured When Caught in Belt of Sawing Machine. Gayle Eaton was badly injured recently while sawing wood. While adjusting the belt to his sawing machine, he was caught in some way in the belt and thrown over the engine, striking in such a manner as to be partially stunned and bruising his neck, hip and one leg, and spraining an ankle. He is doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thatcher of Ripton and Ralph Bundy of Bethel were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark and family.

H. H. Cushman was in Springfield Tuesday to attend a banquet given the senators and representatives of Windsor county by the chamber of commerce.

The ladies of the Universalist society will present Jan. 20 and 21 "Samantha Allen at the Court of Fame," under the direction of Miss Harriet Harris of Weymouth, Mass.

Mrs. Anna Tupper and two daughters of Montpelier have been spending a few days at the home of H. H. Cushman.

Mason Bell of Boston has been a recent guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Bell.

Miss Clara Stevens of Barre visited her parents here for the week end.

The next regular meeting of the Community club will be held in the vestry of the Universalist church Jan. 6.

Mrs. Frank Conrad (Mary Tart) of Hardwick visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Perry, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Atwood have rented rooms in the Hutchins house.

Miss Hazel Swinney has been a recent guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swinney.

Charles Stockwell of Randolph visited his mother, Mrs. Emily Stockwell, last week.

Cleon Abbott of New Britain, Conn. has been visiting his parents here.

Miss Mabel Hubbard of New York City spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hubbard.

RANDOLPH

At a meeting of a class in the Methodist church Sunday school, taught by Dr. A. C. Bailey, and known as the Earnest Workers, last Wednesday night the report of the work of those ladies was given, which revealed that since the last election of officers, July 18, there had been a total attendance of 372, and an average attendance of 10, and a fraction. At these meetings, the total collection amounted to $15.30, all of which was paid into the treasury of the school for general expenses. The average collection amounted to 66 cents and a fraction. In addition to this, there had been special collections, the proceeds of which have been used to send fruit and flowers to those in affliction, or who were confined to the house by illness. This amounted to $8.20, all of which was paid into the treasury and expended for the purpose before mentioned. A food sale was held, the proceeds of which amounted to $14.30, and this was also placed in the treasury. Two special meetings were held in the time for business, and Miss Mabel Whitney, resident pastor of the Pittsfield Methodist church, was invited to attend a special meeting and address them. St. Andrew's brotherhood, the gentlemen's class of the school, attended, and all passed the evening together in a pleasant and profitable manner. Nine boxes of food and fruit were distributed among the needy ones Christmas, and about 35 booklets also sent to the shut-ins, which gave cheer to many lonely hearts. The officers for the coming six months were as follows: President, Abbie F. Clarke; vice-president, Mrs. F. E. Washburne; secretary, Mrs. F. B. Daniels; treasurer, Mrs. George Emery. The officers for the year at the same school were elected as follows: on Sunday: Superintendent, Mrs. F. E. Maxham; secretary, George A. Emery; treasurer, Errol Slack.

Mrs. George Emery has returned from a two weeks' stay in Barton, where she went to care for a sick relative.

Mrs. R. G. Morton left here Saturday for Sharon, where she went to attend the golden wedding anniversary of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Burke. A large circle of friends were expected to be present and take part in the observance.

Miss Barbara Perkins of Bethel came Saturday to pass some time with Mr. and Mrs. George Pinney.

New Year's day was celebrated very quietly in town, nothing going on except snowshoeing and other sports.

Miss Mary Wedgewood, who has been passing her vacation here with her mother, Mrs. W. F. Wedgewood, left to resume her work the first of the week.

Miss Carolyn Hatch, who underwent a serious operation on Friday at the sanatorium, is reported as comfortable as could be expected.

Masquerade dances at S. and D. of L. hall Saturday evening, Jan. 3. Three-piece orchestra. Admission, 50c a couple. Refreshments, 25c per plate. Floor manager, Ernest Folsom.—Adv.

PLAINFIELD

Masquerade dances at S. and D. of L. hall Saturday evening, Jan. 3. Three-piece orchestra. Admission, 50c a couple. Refreshments, 25c per plate. Floor manager, Ernest Folsom.—Adv.

CHELSEA

At a special communication of George Washington lodge, No. 51, F. and A. M., held Thursday evening, Dec. 30, the M. M. degree was worked, two candidates receiving the same. Mrs. Flora Morey, who has been an invalid during the past year, has not been so well of late. Attorney Hale K. Darling was in Montpelier on legal business Thursday and Friday of last week. Mrs. Arthur T. McEue went recently to Portland, Me., to remain for a time with her husband, who has employment there. Mr. and Mrs. Mark H. Whitney and the latter's mother, Madam Rhodes, have moved from their tenement over Mr. Whitney's mill to the Blaisdel house, recently purchased by Mrs. Rhodes.

Mrs. Harry R. Wishart of Winooski was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Grace Bixby, during the holidays. Raymond Keyser, assistant cashier in the National Bank of Orange County, visited his parents in Woodsville, N. H., over Christmas.

Ben A. Goodrich has been laid aside from livery work for the past week, which vacation is enforced by a serious attack of sciatic rheumatism. The selectmen met last Friday afternoon and appraised the damage done by dogs in town during the past year and found the total damage done by canines amounted to $41, five sheep being their toll.

Mrs. Fred J. Ackerman left Dec. 22 for Potsdam, N. Y., to visit her daughter, Miss Lizzie Tucker, and while there will visit other relatives and friends.

Miss Nora E. Taylor, a former resident and teacher in the graded school, who is this year teaching in the Massachusetts hospital school at Canton, Mass., spent the holiday vacation with her sister, Mrs. Percy J. Heath.

Myron E. Holmes worked for Russell G. Corwin during the school vacation.

J. H. Hough, principal of the high school, spent a portion of his vacation in Pittsford, Prof. Griswold in Springfield, Mass., Miss Olive Hanks in Randolph, Miss Jones in Torrington, Conn., and County Agent Dwinell in East Calais.

Miss Sylvia Comstock of Boston was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Comstock, during the holidays.

The officers of the Congregational Sunday school for the ensuing year have been elected as follows: Superintendent, John M. Comstock; assistant superintendent, Richard H. Bacon; treasurer, Earl G. Thorne; chorister, Rachel Comstock.

Jerry J. Lucas of Bristol, Conn., has been the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Lucas, during the past two weeks.

Glenn Kennedy, who has been working in the bobbin shop for the past three months, has completed his services there.

Earl and John Doyle are cutting and hauling lumber for the Orange County Bobbin corporation from the A. E. McCullough lot in Corinth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Thresher visited friends in Williamstown last Thursday.

Vinton C. Corwin and Reginald W. Hill were in Tunbridge last week to attend the annual inventory in Hugh Lyman's store.

William F. Hackett was in Randolph on business last Saturday.

STOCKBRIDGE

Mrs. Carl Chamberlin of Boston was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Holland several days last week.

Ruth Leonard returned to her school in Coesob, Conn., Monday and Hope Leonard to Goddard seminary, Barre, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ainsworth spent Sunday at F. C. Putnam's. Benrice Putnam returned to their home in Rochester with them.

Jasica Manning went to her home in Burlington Saturday, after two weeks at the home of G. Manning.

Mrs. J. W. Mayo passed away Friday night after a short illness from cancer. Mrs. Mayo was operated upon at Hanover hospital in September and for a time seemed to be getting along nicely, but for several weeks has been failing rapidly. She leaves a husband, whose many friends sympathize with him in his bereavement. Interment was at Maplewood cemetery Sunday.

H. N. Holland slipped on an icy path and refractured the two ribs broken in his runaway Christmas day.

Kenneth Brown has been suffering from a bad abscess lately.

G. B. Fish expects to begin duties as representative at Montpelier on Wednesday.

Mary Ellingwood has finished work in G. B. Fish's store and F. N. Chapman of Bethel will take charge during Mr. Fish's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Will LaCount and son, Roy, have purchased the farm of Clayton Hill.

Mrs. Barrows recently spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Jerry Wilson, in Pittsfield.

NORTH MONTPELIER

Miss Eva Persons is home from her work at Harry Coburn's, sick.

Mrs. Nora Keith has been confined to her bed with an attack of neuritis, but is better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Gray of Calais were recent visitors at Leon Ellis'.

Mrs. George Parker of East Calais and Miss Daisy Pirie of Barre were the guests of Mrs. John Emery last week.

Wesley Benjamin and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Flint last Sunday.

Frank Parizo is out again, after having been ill some two weeks.

The Goddard scholars have all gone back to school.

The village school has opened again, after a week's vacation, with Mrs. Lillian Clark as teacher.

The farmers' meeting that was held in the hall last Saturday was well attended and very interesting.

Ralph Daniels was a week-end visitor at his home in East Montpelier.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bond of East Montpelier were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Collins.

Mrs. Charles Hopkins of Waterbury and her daughter, Mrs. Richard Attridge, of Plainfield, visited at Bertha and Hattie Johnson's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wells of Shelburne were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Coburn Saturday.

The home demonstration meeting will be held at the hall Wednesday, an all-day meeting, commencing at 10 a. m., for the making of dress forms.

The Massena have their annual dance Jan. 29, with Carroll's orchestra for music.

WATERBURY

The funeral of Charles D. Robinson will be held from his late home on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Miss Inez Carroll, who returned to resume her studies at the Burlington Business college, is back home to attend the funeral of her uncle, C. D. Robinson.

Mrs. F. E. Steele, jr., has returned from Boston, where she has been spending some time with her husband, and has gone to Holyoke, Mass., for an indefinite stay because of the illness of her sister.

Paul Wallace, who has been a holiday guest at the home of his father, B. E. Wallace, has returned to his position as druggist in Norwood, Mass. Miss Ethel Colby of the Waterbury Savings Bank & Trust company has returned, after spending the New Year's recess at the home of her parents in Plainfield.

Mr. Walter Irish, who has been with his parents, has returned to his position in Albany, N. Y., his mother going as far as Vergennes, where she visited her sister, Mrs. McAllister.

Captain H. Denny Campbell, who has been spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Campbell, has been granted an extension of ten days' leave of absence.

Mrs. Kate McMullin has received word from her sister, William L. Harcourt of Los Angeles, Cal., that Mr. Harcourt, who has been in poor health for some time, is not as well.

Mrs. Walter Irish spent yesterday in Burlington, Mr. Irish's brother's wife being operated upon in that city. Clinton, the ten-year-old son of George Demerit, while playing with another small chap at the home of his uncle in Bolton, severed a portion of the second finger on his left hand with a straw cutter. He was brought home yesterday, a clean cut was made above the joint.

Albert Clark Knight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Knight of Burlington, is one of the pages at the legislature this year. His many friends here are glad he is thus honored.

Mrs. C. C. Putnam of Putnamsville in Burlington, N. Y., is the home of her son, Ralph Putnam.

A telephone message from D. W. Colby at the Mary Fletcher hospital yesterday afternoon, told the good news that his son, Franklin, had passed through a successful operation and a complete recovery was expected.

Humors at North Duxbury is again to have a postoffice being rejoicing to that community.

Miss Maude Chaffee of Morrisville, vice-principal of the People's academy, has been spending the week end with her brother, Martin W. Chaffee.

Mrs. Roy Wilder, who has not been well for some time and had several teeth drawn the other day, is improving.

Mrs. A. G. Stevens resumed her school in Middlesex village yesterday.

Mrs. Harry Binham and daughter, Ann, have returned from the Boston hospital to her home on Randall avenue.

Word was received by wire that Waterbury high school basketball five won the first game played of its four-day trip by defeating Middlebury high to the tune of 34 to 14. Middlebury's forwards were unable to secure any baskets. Their center and one guard managed to ring in four baskets from the floor. Lines led for Waterbury, with five baskets from the floor and six by foul; Randall four baskets, Guild 2, G. Donovan 2, O'Brien, K. Somerville substituted for Guild. Strong guarding on Waterbury's part won the game.

Mrs. Philip Shonio has a bruised face and broken glasses as a result of slipping on the icy steps at the town hall in Duxbury Saturday evening as she was going to grange meeting. Fortunately there were no serious injuries.

Mrs. Effie Haggood, who has a position at the home for destitute children in Burlington, was her Sunday guest with Mrs. Hattie Morse at the Goodheart home.

Miss Welta Boeker, who was ill last week with tonsillitis, is more improved, although still unable to be out.

Cecil Goodheart is home from Barre, where he has been training as an electrician with the Montpelier & Barre Light & Power Co.

Saturday evening was a great time for the members of Dillingham grange and until the wee small hours of the morning they were busy at the hall.

The following officers were installed by E. G. Miller, past master, assisted by his wife, Gertrude Miller, as marshal: Master, Willis Breen; overseer, Edward O'Brien; lecturer, Eva Foster; chaplain, Anna Dowitt; steward, Merton Johnson; gatekeeper, Lewis Morse; secretary, Angus Child; treasurer, Tenie Shonio; creed, Nelson Corser; Flora, Evalna Kellett; Pomona, Anna Morse.

Last Friday evening the Hypatia and Plerian clubs held an enjoyable and profitable meeting in the chapel of the Vermont state hospital, the affair being arranged by program committees of the two clubs. Mrs. Kathleen LeBaron, Luce, as much for the Eldred child and told much about her and the plans for her care and education. Refreshments were served and a pleasant social time passed. The ushers were Mrs. J. F. Claire, Mrs. W. B. Clark, Mrs. Stanley and Mrs. Jones.

BETHEL

Miss Grace Persons returned this morning to Boston, after a few days' stay at home.

A. N. Washburn began operations Saturday with a Percival auto tractor truck in Waterbury, Me., which he bought lately. He has had made for his logging business four pairs of huge sleds, so that when necessary two pairs may be loaded for the truck to draw and the other two pair left free to use while the others are being unloaded. Daniel A. Abbott did the work on the sleds. F. E. Wallace drove the truck, which will go into the woods on roads made for the purpose first on the Torrey lot in the northwest part of the town and later in other places where Mr. Washburn has timber. He expects to have plenty of work near the mill for his big teams to do.

Miss Eliza Howland of Royalton spent part of her vacation at the home of her grandfather, Daniel Stoddard.

The granite sheds again are moving on full time, after a few weeks on a four-day schedule, due to lack of the architect's diagrams.

A. H. Augustus Gray came last week from Keene, N. H., to work in the granite sheds. He lived here several years ago.

"The Farmer's Worst Enemy—Rats. The Farmer's Best Friend—Rat-Snap."

These are the words of James Baxter, N. J.: "Ever since I tried RAT-SNAP I have always kept it in the house. Never fails. Used about $3.00 worth of RAT-SNAP a year and figure it saves me $300 in chicks, eggs and feed." RAT-SNAP is convenient, just break up cake, no mixing with other food." Three sizes, 33c, 63c, 81.25. Sold and guaranteed by R. L. Clark and B. D. Tomasi, Barre; Price Grain company, Middlesex, and Berry & Jones, Montpelier.—Adv.

TUNBRIDGE

The annual installation of the newly-elected officers of the G. A. R. and allied orders in joint sessions at their halls Saturday was probably the first of its kind in the state and was a very successful affair. A bountiful lunch was served at noon, followed by the several ritual services. Installing officers acting were: Elihu Tuller, past post commander, for the G. A. R.; Mrs. O. N. Stoughton of Orville Bixby corps, South Royalton, for the W. R. C.; and Assistant Judge R. H. Adams of Chelsea for the Sons of Veterans. Mrs. Stoughton was escorted by her daughter, Mrs. Reed, and Judge Adams by several brothers of H. E. K. hall camp, No. 28.

Hugh Williams has been on the sick list the past week.

Miss Elizabeth Matthews of White River Junction spent a few days at her farm here last Saturday.

Beauty Secret

KEEP the system clean. Eliminate the poisons. If nature will not do it for you, help nature with a natural medicine like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Take a teaspoonful for a few nights and watch the results. There will be a feeling of lightness, the eyes will be bright and sparkling, the lips red, the cheeks pink. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the recognized, standard remedy for constipation, and it is constipation that gives women headaches, dizziness, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath and complexion. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will relieve you over night, and do it gently but thoroughly. It is just a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, so safe that it is given to infants. A sixty-cent bottle will last for months, and last year eight million bottles were bought at drug stores in itself a guarantee of merit.

TRY IT FREE

Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 513 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Everybody now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.

SOUTH WOODBURY

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Swain, who have been spending a few days at their home here, returned to Plymouth, N. H., last Friday.

Miss Zelma Goodell of Springfield, Mass., and Miss Olive Goodell of Windsor, Conn., who have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Goodell, returned home the last of the week.

Miss Margaret Winters, who has been a holiday guest of her mother, Mrs. A. P. Ainsworth, returned to her work in Claremont, N. H., on Monday.

Roy Benjamin of Barre was a recent guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Benjamin.

W. B. Goodell and Zelma Goodell visited friends and relatives in Hardwick last week.

Mrs. Mary King, who has been the guest of relatives over the holidays, returned to her work in Hardwick on Sunday.

Christine Morrison returned to Northfield on Saturday, after passing a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Morrison.

George Blake is ill with chickenpox. Miss Lucy Sabin of Burlington was a recent guest of her mother, Mrs. Satira Sabin.

Miss Ivis Wheeler of Claremont, N. H., was a holiday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wheeler.

D. A. McLean was in Montpelier on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Daniels of Granville returned home last Saturday, after spending a week with relatives here.

STOWE

The ladies of the H. H. Smith Woman's Relief corps served its annual dinner to the post and held an all-day meeting Saturday. A business session in the morning was followed by an oyster dinner, 60 or more being present. Only two members of the post, Jackson Sargent and S. M. Brush, were present, others being absent from town or ill. Mrs. Mary Goss, department president, installed the officers of the corps during the afternoon session as follows: President, Mrs. Minerva Tinkham; senior vice-president, Mrs. Susie Boardman; junior vice-president, Mrs. Edwin Harris; secretary, Miss Hattie Rutter; treasurer, Mrs. Emma Straw; chaplain, Mrs. Sarah Dewey; conductor, Mrs. Janet Adams; press correspondent, Mrs. Ruby Tinkham; musician, Miss Katherine Smalley; assistant conductor, Mrs. Viva Smith; assistant guard, Miss Eunice Magoon; color bearers, Messrs. Ruby Bull, Beatrice Pike, Mary Bailey and Alice Barrows. The officers of the post are as follows: Post commander, D. C. Spaulding; senior vice-commander, S. H. Kaiser; junior vice-commander, Jackson Sargent; adjutant, H. A. Sparks; quartermaster, S. M. Brush; surgeon, C. G. Moody; chaplain, Daniel Smith; officer of the guard, Lewis Shontelle; sergeant major, S. H. Kaiser; quartermaster sergeant, Jackson Sargent. There are 10 surviving members of the post, S. C. Spaulding, S. H. Kaiser, Jackson Sargent, H. A. Sparks, S. M. Brush, C. G. Moody, D. M. Smith, Lewis Shontelle, H. G. Thomas, G. H. Campbell. Others are J. H. Ayers of the Waterbury post, H. T. Raymond of the Rochester post and Henry Horner.

A short sermon by the pastor at the Sunday morning service at the Community church was followed by a reception of members and the sacrament of the Lord's supper. Seven were received into membership. It is hoped that a large number from every part of the town will attend the annual Community church dinner and meeting Wednesday. The large attendance and enthusiasm of last year gave the work a lasting impetus and a large response is urged this year. It is planned to serve a free public dinner and all are asked to contribute.

A service was held at the north hollow schoolhouse Sunday afternoon.

James Brownlee of Springfield passed the week end with Mrs. Brownlee's parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Hayward, Mrs. W. W. Kye Smith, returned to Schenectady, N. Y., after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Brush.

Glenn Brown and Henry Crosby of Palmer, Mass., formerly of Stowe, have enlisted at Springfield, Mass., in the United States navy and have gone to the Great Lakes training station.

Wilbur Arthur Parks, 12 years of age, only son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Parks of Benton, Ark., died at the home of his parents Dec. 31 from pneumonia. Mrs. Parks was formerly Miss Josephine Blodgett of Stowe and has many relatives here, among them an aunt, Mrs. Carrie E. Straw.

Fred Colby cut off some of the cords in the instep of one foot when chopping at the McGibbon farm recently.

The high and graded schools reopened for the winter term Monday.

Miss Florence Austin of the Mills school has returned from her Christmas vacation.

Among the students returning to their schools and colleges Monday were Misses Madine Boardman, Louise Morgan, Kathryn Recor, Rebecca Buron, Edie Sleeper, Lucy Latuch, Hildegrade Smalley, Munn Boardman and Orlo Jenney.

Miss Ruth McMahon returned to New York City Monday, after passing the Christmas vacation in Stowe.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hubbard of Laconia, N. H., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. E. Doane, and family.

Advertisement for Hill's Cascara Quinine Bromide. Text: Kill That Cold With HILL'S CASCARA QUININE BROMIDE FOR Colds, Coughs AND La Grippe. Neglected Colds are Dangerous. Take no chances. Keep this standard remedy handy for the first sneeze. Breaks up a cold in 24 hours—Relieves Grippe in 3 days—Excellent for Headache. Quinine in this form does not affect the head—Cascara is best Tonic Laxative—No Opium in Hill's. ALL DRUGGISTS SELL IT.

Advertisement for Barre Opera House. Text: Barre Opera House Wednesday Evening Jan. 5 at 8:15 Under the Auspices of Barre Board of Trade & Barre Woman's Club. The Orpheus Four The Finest Male Quartet to be Found in America. First Tenor.....SAMUEL B. GLASS. Second Tenor.....PAUL E. ADAMS. Baritone.....WM. G. WELLS. Bass.....VERNER A. CAMPBELL. Their repertoire is inexhaustible. You will certainly want to hear this singing quartet. Tickets on Sale at Drown's Drug Store. Prices 75c and $1.00—plus war tax.

Advertisement for Noble Cigars. Text: NOBLE CIGARS A Successful Cigar All Quality.

Advertisement for H. M. Farnham Sales and Exchange Stables. Text: H. M. FARNHAM Sales and Exchange Stables Montpelier, Vt. Just received carload of horses direct from farmers of Ohio. They weigh from 1200 to 1700 lbs. apiece. They were all bought right out of harness. There are dapple grays, red roans, black roans, chestnuts, browns and bays in the lot. For our auction Friday January 7, 1921, we expect a lot of second hand horses of our own. Anyone wishing to buy or sell should be here for this sale. Auction sales every Friday. We carry a complete line of harness, collars, blankets, sleighs, etc. Both phone connections.

Advertisement for Quick! Stop Indigestion. Text: QUICK! STOP INDIGESTION Pain in Stomach, Sourness, Gases and Acidity relieved with "Pape's Diapepsin". Your upset stomach will feel fine! No waiting! When your meals don't fit and you feel uncomfortable; when you belch gases, acids or raise sour undigested food; when you feel lumps of indigestion pain, heartburn or headache from acidity, just eat a tablet of harmless and reliable Pape's Diapepsin and the stomach distress is gone. Millions of people know the magic of Pape's Diapepsin as an antacid. They know that most indigestion and disordered stomach are from acidity. The relief comes quickly, no disappointment, and the cost is so little too. Pape's Diapepsin helps regulate your stomach so you can eat favorite foods without fear.—Adv.

Advertisement for Bijou Theatre. Text: BIJOU THEATRE — Where Everybody Goes — Presents for To-day Only — TOM MOORE in "Duds" GOLDWYN PICTURES. It is packed to the guards with meat of romance, a venture, nerve man-to-man battles! It is a drama of love and its double—its fears and its torturing suspicions of strange women, staring eyes—priceless gems and baffling ruses. Also "Outing Chester" and "It Takes a Crook" comedy. Tomorrow—BEBE DANIELS in "You Never Can Tell."

Advertisement for Briggs' Cough Drops. Text: HAVE A BOX HANDY—ON YOUR DESK—OR IN YOUR POCKET—OR AT HOME SO THAT THE CHILDREN CAN ALWAYS GET THEM. They stop the tickle. BRIGGS' MENTHOLATED-NICOTINATED COUGH DROPS. KEEP THAT COLD AWAY. CA. BRIGGS COMPANY, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

Advertisement for Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA. Text: Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments, and endanger the health of children—Experience against Experiment. Never attempt to relieve your baby with a remedy that you would use for yourself. What is CASTORIA? Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend. Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. In Use For Over 30 Years. THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Advertisement for January Sale. Text: January Sale. As we wish to reduce our stock, and turn some of our goods into ready cash, we offer to the people of Marshfield and vicinity, a discount of 20 per cent, for cash, on the following goods. Our entire line of Footwear, consisting of Ladies', Men's and Children's Shoes and Rubbers, Heavy Rubbers and Leggins. All our Sheep-lined Coats, Leather Mittens, Men's Caps, Toques, Tams, etc. Horse Blankets, and Auto Robes. In our Furniture department, we offer the same discount of 20 per cent, on our entire stock, consisting of Iron Beds, Mattresses, Chairs, Rugs, Quilts, Couch Covers, Trunks Bags, and Suitcases. We have already marked down our Cotton Goods to a very reasonable figure. Remember we give a discount of 20 per cent on cash sales only. Come in and let us get together—we need the money, you need the goods. Lee & Clara B. Shortt Marshfield, Vt.

Advertisement for Schenck's Mandrake Pills. Text: "CONSTIPATION" is the big trouble in every serious sickness—causing depression of spirits, irritability, nervousness, imperfect vision, loss of memory, poor sleep, loss of appetite, etc.—stop it with a regular course of SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS. They act promptly and freely, but gently, thoroughly cleansing the bowels, comforting the stomach, stimulating the liver—the specific for indigestion, headache, biliousness, heart-ache, flatulency. Plain or Sugar Coated. 50 YEARS' CONTINUOUS SALE. DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE. Dr. J. H. Schenck & Son, Philadelphia.