A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Otic Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a bitter, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets right away and note the passing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit.

WELLS RIVER

Woodville Defeated By St. Johnsbury on Local Court.

In a one-sided but very interesting game, Woodville was defeated by St. Johnsbury by a score of 50 to 25. The game throughout was always in St. Johnsbury's favor. At no time did the local boys appear dangerous. Carlson for Woodville played good ball, getting a total of 11 points. Both Smith and Sweeney had extremely hard luck in locating the basket. Dumar, playing against Larty, was the star of the St. Johnsbury aggregation, scoring nine baskets. Gibson made one pretty basket from the center of the floor. Only one foul was called in the game, which was on Woodville. The lineup: St. Johnsbury: Woodville: Dumar, r. f.; Smith, c. l. f.; Carlson, c. c. f.; Sweeney, c. b. f.; Kirk, r. b. f.; Larty, l. b. f. Baskets: Dumar 9, Clark 4, Gibson, Carlson 3, Fiske 8, Smith 2, Sweeney 3, Carlson 8, Kirk; referee, Mayo; scorer, Sullivan; timer, Buck; time, three 15-minute periods.

NORTH RANDOLPH Mrs. C. E. Taft writes from San Duca, Cal.: "We are all fine and how we do enjoy the nice summer weather in January. I think New Year's day was the nicest I ever saw. We all went to Pasadena to the annual tournament of roses and saw the most beautiful parade I ever saw or hope to see unless it comes there again. All the floats were made of red flowers, one of them costing $1,000. Don't know about the others. Folks came from everywhere to see it (even Vermont), so don't miss it when you come. We spend the rest of the day with Clifford's cousin and wife and four more cousins came to see us. Guess if we stay long enough we shall find lots of friends and relatives."
