

Safety for Savings

Every depositor wishes to place his savings in a bank that is safe; that is well managed; that is strong in the character of its assets and in its reserves for the protection of depositors.

The Montpelier Savings Bank and Trust Company in every way measures up to these requirements.

For nearly fifty years it has served the people of this part of Vermont. It has always had capable management; the purpose of its Trustees has always been to safeguard the interests of its depositors. With an efficient organization, a high grade of investments and reserves of unusual strength for the protection of depositors we invite the accounts of those who wish to do business with a bank which is strong and safe and which gives the kind of service which satisfies.

POST MILLS

The series of monthly musical services on Thursday evenings began very well last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Trevithick. Mr. and Mrs. Trevithick accompanied the singing with piano and violin. Many old hymns and some new ones were sung. Rev. L. E. Tupper is rapidly regaining his strength but acquiring more vigor than he has had for years. Mrs. Tupper is conferring great benefit upon the community by conducting a weekly sewing class for girls and a class in woodwork for boys at the Peabody library.

Joseph Ackerman has purchased the house of Mrs. Ralph Simonds, next to his principal farm.

Real estate is in good demand in Post Mills, both for purchase and rental.

Little Nellie Knight, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Knight, is suffering from slight illness.

The new feed store of E. S. Knight is doing an increasing business.

RANDOLPH

The Fales, or Joslyn, block has been sold by F. H. Joslyn to the Bell Brothers company, who will after a time occupy it in their business. Mr. Joslyn will have possession of the store till August first if it requires that time to dispose of his stock of jewelry, silverware and other articles. Mr. Joslyn has occupied this store since 1885, and has had a large patronage, which has in the years increased steadily. For a few months Mr. Joslyn's health has not been as good as formerly, due in a large measure no doubt to the long years of confinement, and as soon as he can dispose of his goods he will retire from business and take more rest and recreation. The Bell Brothers company will cut openings through the stores, thus connecting the rooms, and will use the Joslyn store for an enlarged shoe store.

L. B. Johnson, H. L. Hatch and V. I. Spear attended the hearing at Montpelier on Wednesday night on teachers' college and normal school bills.

M. M. Wilson has been in Montreal this week on a business trip.

On account of the location of East Granville and the short distance East Granville has been placed under the supervision of the Randolph superintendent.

Randolph has again gone over the top in the amount given for the Near East relief. Randolph was assigned seven orphans, and the amount to be raised was $200. The result is as follows: $150 on pledge cards, $200 in cash, $60 verbal promise, $40 raised several weeks ago, making a total of $450.85. Randolph and Brookfield are among the first 12 towns to reach their quota.

Mrs. Robert Bashaw was in Boston this week to see her little daughter, Evelyn, who is in a hospital there for treatment for infantile paralysis. The hip, on which an operation was performed some time ago, has slipped, and it is necessary to have another cast fitted, which means that she will be obliged to remain in the hospital for several weeks longer. The child seems in good health but for this affliction.

WORCESTER

Mrs. Archie Brown Died Very Suddenly of Cerebral Hemorrhage.

Mrs. Minnetta (Collins) Brown, wife of Archie Brown, died suddenly Sunday afternoon at her home on Eagle ledge road of cerebral hemorrhage.

Mrs. Brown was the daughter of William and Clara Collins and was born in Stowe Aug. 28, 1854. She married Archie Brown of this place Sept. 12, 1904. Although her health had not been robust for some years, she had been much in the social life of the town, being an accomplished pianist and contributing greatly to the enjoyment of the various entertainments, and at the time she was stricken down had just put up her violin after accompanying her friend, Mrs. Morley, at the piano.

She is survived by her husband and four children, Edith, Lyle, Bert and Jennie; her mother, Mrs. Clara Collins of Montpelier, and a half-sister, Mrs. Cora Chaffee of Bethel.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from her late home and was largely attended. There were many beautiful floral offerings. The services were conducted by the aged minister and friend of the family, Rev. Benjamin Wheeler of Calais, who, though 90 years of age, is still active and his words will long be remembered by those who heard him. Interment was in the Worcester cemetery.

Those from out of town to attend the funeral were Mrs. Arthur Hunt of Keene, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Harris of Montpelier.

Mrs. Hesper Wallaman and children, who visited at Samuel Orr's last week, started Saturday for Oakland, Ore., where they will join Mr. Wallaman.

Clarence Chandler and Ira Dodge became involved in an altercation Wednesday afternoon at the creamery, followed by blows, and during the quarrel Mr. Chandler's foot became caught in the ice and the leg was fractured, one bone being broken and one splintered, and a bone dislocated in the ankle. He was taken to Heaton hospital, Montpelier, by Dr. Warren, where he will remain until able to be removed to his home.

Mrs. Clarence Wheeler was called to Montpelier Wednesday afternoon by the illness of her brother-in-law, Bert Nelson.

M. C. Maxham was in Montpelier Tuesday afternoon and evening to attend the 1919 reunion of the legislature and reported a fine time, with over 100 at the roll call and about 130 at the supper.

Aaron Witham and grandson, Eric Martin, of Cabot visited the former's son, Ralph Witham, and other relatives over the week end.

The farmers are filling the icehouse at the creamery this week.

Norma Witham was taken to Heaton hospital Friday for an X-ray of her knee, which has been causing her much suffering for several weeks.

It was found that a ligament was pulled from the knee, which will necessitate her remaining in bed for several weeks more.

Miss Elsie Skinner of Orleans is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Morley.

Mrs. Ed. Hersey was a visitor in Montpelier recently.

Mrs. Loring Chamberlain, who is boarding with Miss E. J. Harris, is in poor health.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our relatives, friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown us during our sadness.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McCrillis were in St. Albans Monday night, the guests of Weldon chapter, O. E. S., and were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Groom.

Mrs. Arthur Bullard has blood poisoning in her right hand, caused by getting a sliver in her finger.

Miss Carrie Beckley of Barre was in town the first of the week, clearing the lower part of her house, which she has rented to David Patterson.

The demonstration meeting, which was held under the direction of Miss Mildred Boice last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Clara Shortt, was attended by 22 ladies, who were very enthusiastic on the subject of dress forms and the day was pleasantly and profitably spent. Six forms were made and about twice that number are still desired. Another meeting is to be held next week to continue the work.

Mrs. Wilbur Wheeler of South Cabot to move into the upper part of the house recently purchased by her son, Edgar Kidder, and Leslie Carpenter's family will occupy the lower part.

Mr. and Mrs. David Patterson, who have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Darling since their return, are moving this week into the lower part of Carrie Beckley's house.

Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Wheelock and Mrs. Waite of Calais were in town Tuesday to attend the demonstration meeting. H. A. Wilson had a bad spell last Monday morning, becoming unconscious, and was brought home from his work at E. J. Merrill's. He is better at present.

EAST CORINTH

Rev. E. P. Cutler and B. T. Holland, undertaker, attended the funeral of Oscar Hall Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Leon Brainerd returned from the hospital at Hanover Monday. Mrs. Londry, who is still there, is reported to be getting along remarkably well. She is able to sit up a little.

Harry Berry and John Thompson have been among the invalids this week.

Mrs. Scruton is gaining, went down stairs for the first time Wednesday.

Lawrence Jackson, Harold Sinclair and John King were home from Goddard over the week end.

C. W. Jewell, jr., wife and Ruth of Piermont, N. H., were in town a few hours Sunday.

The Mary Dickey class in Sunday school held their annual meeting and dinner at H. A. Jackson's this week Saturday. They are to have the usual chicken pie with all the fixings, with a jolly good time thrown in to aid digestion.

Jake Hyman, with his traveling store, is in town this week. People in this vicinity want to be looking out for the posters advertising the next third Friday in the month event, for one of the committee says privately that they were planning a fine supper, with meat pies and all sorts of accompaniments, and there has been a speaker and a soloist engaged from Dartmouth, with other attractions.

There were two arrivals at John Sweet's Wednesday, Ethel Sweet returned from Chispee, Mass., and a very young man, whose name has not been learned yet, but may appropriately be called John, Jr.

JUST CAN'T PRAISE IT ENOUGH, SHE DECLARES

Tanlac Restores Burlington Woman's Health After She Had Suffered Three Years—Gains Fourteen Pounds.

"Besides relieving me of troubles that caused me three years of suffering Tanlac has actually built me up fourteen pounds in weight and I am just as grateful to the medicine as I can be," was the enthusiastic statement made by Mrs. Clara Echo of 107 Intervale avenue, Burlington, Vt. "Before I got Tanlac I was in a dreadfully run down condition and feeling perfectly miserable. I had scarcely any appetite at all, everything I ate seemed to sour and turn to gas and I would become so short of breath I could scarcely talk. I couldn't eat any breakfast at all, and the little I managed to eat at other times made me sick at my stomach. I suffered a great deal from constipation and dizziness and was so nervous I couldn't stand the children playing about the house. It was impossible for me to get a good night's sleep and I was very much discouraged over my condition. "Tanlac has been so wonderful for me that I have a splendid appetite now and can eat anything I want without its causing me a bit of trouble. I eat a hearty breakfast every morning, my breathing no longer troubles me and I'm entirely free from nervousness. Tanlac has done so much for me I can't praise it enough and I'm glad to give it my highest recommendation." Tanlac is sold in Barre by Cummings & Lewis, and by the leading druggist in every town.—Adv.

at last they all agree

"The patrons shrieked and roared. They had witnessed the most sensational photoplay climax that ever aroused a cataract of emotions. Enough to raise the hair on a man's head and raise the man out of his seat."—SUN-HERALD.

"One cannot enumerate the multitude of virtues in the film. One should really see the picture. It is unique and a great thing."—AMERICAN.

"Big thrills and river ice crash. The most thrilling scene ever shown on the screen. The suspense is overwhelming, partly because the onlookers realize that there is no fake about it. Mr. Griffith produces pictures of startling beauty that suggest famous landscape painted by masers." — EVENING TELEGRAM.

"Mr. Griffith, with unerring instinct, has played up the appeal to the elemental emotions. His picture is full of exquisitely beautiful scenes, needing no color to reveal their perfection."—EVENING POST.

"It is not often that an audience stands to cheer a motion picture. But it happened at the Forty-fourth Street Theatre. The audience rose and cheered. Some of the settings are wondrously beautiful, the scenes in the snowstorms being most realistic."—COMMERCIAL.

"The audience sat in rapture to watch its unfolding. Of the hubbub which followed the ice-jam scene at the end, any audience would have cheered it—and all audiences will."—TIMES.

"It had the spectators standing and cheering. As many generations of the future will be charmed and thrilled by the shadow show as have wept, applauded and chuckled over the stage play. It is difficult to recall anything Griffith ever did which has more punch than this long sustained, breath-taking scene on the ice."—WORLD.

"Most amazing spectacle ever seen on land or sea or moving picture screen. Brought the audience to its feet in spontaneous shout of appreciation. Much rural comedy. Will be cheered from coast to coast and in many different tongues and accents across the water."—ALISON SMITH GLOBE.

"The audience received a thrill the like of which has not been felt since the Clansman rode over the hills in 'The Birth of a Nation'! To describe the acting of Lillian Gish would be to open these columns to all the superlatives in the language.

Pandemonium broke loose. The theatre resounded to cheers, whistles and yells of delight. A series of pictures that might well hang on any wall."—EVENING MAIL.

"D. W. Griffith has climbed to new heights of achievements in 'Way Down East.' Audiences cheered the sensational scenes. No one over-acted and every one in the carefully selected company is true to type."—EVENING SUN.

Millions will flock to it, will be thrilled and will cheer!"—S. JAY KAUFMAN, GLOBE.

"When the stupendous ice scenes were shown the theatre rocked with applause. Never in our five years' experience with motion pictures have we seen such a demonstration. It is difficult to write without dealing almost entirely in superlatives."—HARRIETTE UNDERHILL, TRIBUNE.

"No one but Griffith could have done it. Audience broke into cheers and screams. But to the story itself, the fundamental humanity with which it deals, the simplicity of characters, is due the absorption of the people who, with caught breath, watched the tale unfold." — BOYLE, ILLUSTRATED NEWS.
