

The Highway to Success

There is, to-day as yesterday, no avenue of opportunity closed to the man who strives earnestly for success.

The man of wealth clips coupons from his bonds—and so, to-day, may his humblest employe.

The man of wealth probably began at the bottom and, like the ambitious worker of to-day, looked into the future, made up his mind what he wanted to be, and then by hard work, frugality and wise investment won his way to success.

The highway of success is open to-day to every man who is willing to pay the price in hard work and strict economy.

First the savings account, then the bond, the home, the business—all on the highway to success. Any man who will may follow it. He only needs to pay the price.

A Benjamin B. Hampton Production

"THE KILLER"

Adapted from the novel of Stewart Edward White

Startling Melodrama—Clean as a spring, thrilling as a fire, fascinating as women's eyes.

Sweeping Romance—Heart-piercing as an arrow—A thriller.

A drama of a cold-blooded rancher who will kill for power. It will chain your attention. Its surprises will startle. Its action will amaze.

And a Kinogram and Comedy.

TUESDAY

Rube Stuff! Right out of the opry-house on to the screen at the Magnet To-night. You bet it's rube stuff! The scheming city guy who gets his claws on to the farm—the blue eyed country girl who elopes with him to the city—the rube brother who hikes out after her—and all the quaint old folks of Peaceful Valley—they're all in it! But isn't that the sort of a story in which you like Charlie Ray best, with the hick-humor, the sob and hefty wallop? Isn't it?

Prisoner Taken to Jackson, Mich., for 15-Year Sentence.

Fred McQuown, a state parole officer from Jackson, Mich., arrived in town Wednesday evening, having come here to identify and take back to the state prison at Jackson, James Rogers, who escaped from that institution on Oct. 4 last, and who was captured in Tunbridge last week by State's Attorney M. C. Taft and Sheriff George A. Tracy and lodged in the jail here to await the arrival of the Michigan official. Sheriff McQuown has known Rogers all his life and gives him the reputation of being a thoroughly "bad actor" and a full-fledged desperado, and a man who has already spent about 15 years of his life behind prison bars and when landed back in Jackson prison has a 15-year sentence ahead of him. The general trend of his criminal record has been toward burglary, although he at one time attempted to kill a keeper to effect an escape, but failed in both attempts. He has also threatened the life of the warden and deputy warden of the prison from which he escaped. Upon taking his departure from the local jail he advised Sheriff Tracy that "he would meet him again some day."

Sheriff McQuown stated that he had been connected in one capacity or another with the "strong arm squad" of Michigan since 1900, and at that time the average number of inmates in the prison at Jackson was six hundred, which number gradually increased until 1918, to eight hundred; that in 1918 Michigan went "dry" and since that time to the present time the number of inmates has increased to fourteen hundred and fifty, and he attributes alarming increase in crime due to the fact that a large part of the population being foreigners, whose habits were to have their beer and wine as much as they had their food, and since prohibition became effective they have been unable to purchase liquid refreshments, they have resorted to dope and home brew of all kinds and description, the effect of which has debased their general morale and excited criminal tendencies with the above appalling results.

William D. Walker of Barre City, a former resident, was in town last week and on Saturday sold a lot of household goods and other personal property at auction. B. H. Adams was the auctioneer.

John D. Bacon of White River Junction, a grandson of John B. Bacon, late of Chelsea, was in town Monday, May 9, on business in probate court.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Bixby of Woodstock visited friends in town recently.

Henry August Andre of Corinth was at the county clerk's office Tuesday, May 10, and filed his petition for naturalization. Mr. Andre was born in Germany and about thirty years ago came to Canada and in due time became a naturalized citizen of Canada, and about ten years ago came to the United States, and has become satisfied that "Uncle Sam" is good enough for him.

The trustees of the local Methodist church have sold the present parsonage to Miss Grace Jones, and have purchased from Fred J. Stanton and wife, chatham, a new lot on Maple street, which will, after July 1, become the Methodist parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Stanton will move to Connecticut July 1, at which time Rev. Mr. Hewitt will move his family to the new parsonage and Miss Jones to her new purchase.

Attorney Lyle A. Beck with was in South Royalton on legal business on Tuesday, as was Attorney W. H. Sprague in West Fairlee on Wednesday.

The lawn around the town hall has been improved by removal of the stumps from the old dead trees which were cut last year, and by the planting of new maple trees. The work was done under the supervision of E. D. Barnes.

News has been received here recently of the death of Mrs. Fannie Winslow Granger at her home in Bellingham, Wash., which occurred on March 18. Mrs. Granger was a native of Chelsea and spent her girlhood days in town and married for her first husband, Arthur S. Austin, at one time a resident attorney here and deputy clerk of Orange county court.

Attorney Hale K. Darling was in Corinth Thursday as attorney for the town of Corinth in a hearing before a court's committee relative to the laying out of a new piece of road, and Friday he went to Tunbridge to appear for that town before another court's committee relative to the laying out of a new piece of highway in that town.

Miss Verna Burgess of Concord, N. H., is spending a short vacation in town visiting her mother, Mrs. Nellie Burgess, and other relatives.

Commissioner of Education Dempsey of Montpelier will speak at the high school building Thursday, May 19, and in the evening at the town hall, which meeting will be in the interests of the Parent-Teacher-association, and there should be a large attendance at this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Comstock and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Orr attended the annual meeting of the Vermont Congregational conference at Vergennes last week.

James J. Rule has moved his family from the Smith house on South Main street to the Baxter Durkee farm in Tunbridge, which he has rented for the ensuing year. Frank McConnell and Cecil Denmore are doing his farm work while he is completing his contract to drive stage from Chelsea to West Fairlee, which contract will expire June 30.

Mrs. Fannie M. Warner, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Salter on the west hill for a few days, has returned to New York City, where she has employment as a trained nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Davis of Barre City were recent guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester M. Davis.

Sheriff George A. Tracy left Friday afternoon on a business trip to Montreal, expecting to be absent from town for a few days.

Charles W. Lyon, who has spent the winter and intends making his home with his daughter in Mechanicsville, N. Y., arrived in town recently and is visiting on the east hill.

Attorney Albert A. Sargent of Barre City and Marsh M. Wilson of Randolph were in town on business Friday.

destroyed, yet it did most efficient work putting out the fire in the burning piles of lumber.

Ray H. Dearborn of Ely Station was in town on business Friday and made a flying visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin N. Dearborn.

Harold E. Corwin, who has employment in a bank in Boston, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Corwin.

Ray T. Titus of Claremont, N. H., was a recent guest at the home of his father, Frank J. Titus.

Forrest Priest, who has been working for James K. Howe in Tunbridge for several months, has completed his service there and returned to Chelsea.

The remains of Mrs. Andrew J. Foster were brought here for interment in the family lot in Highland cemetery Friday, May 6. Mrs. Foster was an aged lady and was for many years a resident of this town when she and her husband occupied the farm now owned by Hinkley Sargent.

STOWE

Mount Mansfield Boulder Set Up for the "Unknown Dead."

A boulder was brought Friday from Mt. Mansfield to the River Bank cemetery to be installed as a monument for the "unknown dead" by the Women's Relief corps. The stone, which is estimated to weigh 4000 pounds or more, was transported by a four-horse team of the C. E. and E. O. Burt company. It was taken from its resting place about a mile and a half below the summit and loaded on a stone boat and brought to the foot of the mountain, where the boat was swung upon wheels for the rest of the journey. The stone is egg-shaped and a fine specimen of a Mt. Mansfield "drift rock," supposed to have been brought here from Labrador during the glacial period. It is expected that the stone will be dedicated Memorial day.

Miss McDonough and her pupils in home economics in the third and fourth classes served dinner Friday evening in Miss Keefe's school room. The guests were Superintendent and Mrs. C. D. Howe, Principal and Mrs. C. J. Strand, School Directors F. E. Stafford, P. A. Raymond and C. E. Nelson, Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. Nelson and little Sylvia Strand. Miss Hazel Oakes acted as hostess. The room was prettily decorated with screens and apple blossoms and the tables with violets. Four courses were served, including soup, beef loaf, mashed potatoes, radishes, cucumbers, salad, cheese straws and individual strawberry short cakes. Everything was very delicious and served in fine style.

Prof. C. A. Adams of Tufts college and Mrs. Adams, both formerly of Stowe, have recently entertained at their home in Medford, Mass., former Stowe friends, Olin Angell, now a medical student at Tufts college, and his sister, Miss Anna Angell, now a graduate nurse. Other former Stowe friends were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bigelow and Mrs. Abbie Warren of Salem, Mass. The occasion was the fourth birthday anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Adams' twin children, Elizabeth Meade and Everett Meade, namesakes of Mrs. Bigelow.

Principal C. J. Strand and Robert Cleveland and Catherine Harris of the senior class were business visitors in Burlington Friday.

Miss Lillian Goodlife of the South Hollow school spent the week end with friends in Morrisville.

Edwin Coffin went Saturday to spend Sunday with Mrs. Coffin and little daughter at the Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington.

Friends of Mrs. Lewis Marshall of Springfield, Mass., formerly of Stowe, will be glad to know that she is gaining after a recent surgical operation.

Miss Jessie Burt, who has been living with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lynch since January, returned to Stowe Saturday.

WATERBURY

Many from Out of Town Attended Funeral of Bert Berry.

The funeral of Bert Julius Berry was held at the Methodist church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, following a prayer service at the home of Mrs. Berry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huntley. At the church appropriate music was rendered by Mrs. D. W. Conley on the organ. Rev. George H. Lock officiated, speaking comforting words. Members of Winooski lodge, No. 49, F. and A. M., acted as an escort from the house to the church and had their ritual service at the church. Burial was in the cemetery at the Center, the bearers being Dr. Franklin Dwinell, Harold Dwinell, Ralph Dwinell, Schuyler Berry, Theodore Berry, Foster Berry. Beautiful flowers covered the casket.

Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Berry, Miss Clara Berry, Theodore Berry and Foster Berry of Montpelier; Schuyler Berry of Hanover, N. H.; Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Dwinell, Ralph Dwinell and Miss Rachel Dwinell of East Calais; Harold Dwinell of Chelsea; Dr. Franklin Dwinell of Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Huntley of Barre, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. For Both Sides of the Door

The inside of the front door is well protected. The outside bears the brunt of wind, rain, snow and sizzling sun. Varnish both sides with Inorout. Long after you'd expect time to dull the surface, the inside will be glossy new. And so will the outside.

For Inorout is an indoor, outdoor varnish. Use it on floors, woodwork, fine furniture. Touch up the car or motorboat. Salt water can't turn it white. Varnished wood samples have been boiled for one hour without affecting the finish. Whatever the varnish job, use Inorout.

ELSIE FERGUSON in William D. Taylor's Production

"Sacred and Profane Love"

The play that created a Broadway sensation. And lured Elsie Ferguson back to the stage for the great dramatic triumph of her career.

A drama of life's master emotion—its daring, its pain, its ecstasy. Its terrible power to drag down. Its sacred power to glorify.

A romance of love and music, youth and fame. Dressed in silks, basking in luxury, but touching at times the underworld haunts of those who have lost the fight.

Now brought direct from stage to screen to mark the beautiful star's return to motion pictures. Yet far more pretentious and varied than any stage production could be. A beauty-picture that carries straight to the heart.

From the celebrated stage success and novel by Arnold Bennett. Scenario by Julia Crawford Ivers. Cast includes Conrad Nagel.
