Lost or stolen: Some time during the supper for the Older Boys' conference last Friday night, a bag disappeared from the Methodist church. It contained shirts, collars, pajamas, toilet articles, school books, etc. Any information about it will be gladly received by Byron N. Clark, Burlington.

About 50 friends took possession of the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Halvosa, upper Camp street, Thursday evening. It somehow leaked out Mr. Halvosa was to leave town and the guests called to make sure to see him off and wish him the best of luck. In behalf of the company present, Alfred Milne presented Mr. Halvosa a fine traveling bag, for which he feelingly expressed his thanks. Songs, readings, selections on the victrola, piano, violin and accordion were given by the guests. Refreshments were served. Mr. Halvosa left last night for Jacksonville, Fla., where he has secured employment.

Foley's Has Never Failed.

January is a bad month for influenza, grippe and bronchial troubles. It is unwise to neglect the slightest cough or cold. Foley's Honey and Tar gives prompt relief, gets right at the trouble, covers raw inflamed surfaces with a healing coating, clears the air passages, eases stuffy breathing and permits sound, refreshing, health-building sleep. Mrs. F. A. Gibson, 1547 College Ave., Racine, Wis., writes: "Foley's has never failed in giving immediate relief and I am never without it." Sold everywhere.—adv.

Some Big Rain Coming.

Briggs had been a member of the club for many years, but had never been known to spend a cent.

"I say, Briggs," asked his friend Tomkins one day, "what do you do with your money?"

"I'm saving up for a rainy day," was the reply.

"A rainy day," returned Tomkins sarcastically. "I thought you were saving up for a flood!"—Philadelphia Inquirer.
