STRIKE IN PAPER MILLS

About 600 Men Out in Bellows Falls.

WANT THREE TOUR DAY

Will Take $7000 a Week Out of Village Pay-rolls—Offers to Release Wages Refused by Employes—International Men Went Out Tuesday.

Bellows Falls is in the clutches of one of the largest strikes in its history by which 600 men are out of employment. The trouble has been brewing for almost a month and came to a climax Tuesday morning, when 450 or more employes of the International Paper company joined the 150 workers who have been out from the other paper mills since Saturday.

The strike is caused by the refusal of the mill owners to adopt the three tour system, as it is called. Several months ago the International Paper company announced that as soon as it could be arranged, the mills controlled by the firm would be under the three tour system. By this arrangement three separate gangs are employed, each working eight hours. At present the four workers are employed from 11 to 13 hours, the night gangs working longer hours and the day and night gangs alternating each day, thus giving all the same number of hours' work. The change, of course, increases the number of men employed and the wages will be increased 3 1/2 per cent. This system has been adopted in all of the mills of the company except those at Bellows Falls, Turners Falls and Franklin Falls. In the two latter places the company has agreed to take up the matter August 1, and the men are still working.

In Bellows Falls the company has offered to take up the matter for consideration by January. Several weeks ago the officials announced that they could not see their way to adopt the new arrangement now, owing to the greater cost of running the Bellows Falls mills, but a compromise offer was made. This was to the effect that the men remain on the present two tour system, working as outlined above, with an increase in wages of 10 per cent, which would total additional amount which would have to be paid for three tour work. The employes of the other mills located at Bellows Falls, with the exception of the John Robertson & Son, who make tissue paper, all asked their employers to adopt the new system, but the owners refused.

President Cary of the National Paper Makers' union was on from New York to investigate the situation, and for the past three weeks just what would be done has been in the air. Many conferences between the union men and the employers have been held and all of the owners made their minds various proposals to take the place of the three tour system, which was decided could not be adopted for a number of reasons. The officials of a number of the companies offered to give the number of men employed under the two tour system the same salary they would have to pay for the new arrangement, and other equally advantageous offers. Everything was done to avoid a strike, but last week the employes of several of the smaller mills served written notice that unless the owners would agree to adopt the three tour system by Tuesday morning, the hands would strike.

The heads of the firms of the Robertson Paper company, the Moore & Thompson company, and the Blake & Higgins company, took immediate action and Saturday morning notified their men that they might draw their pay for the week's work at the office and consider themselves discharged for that night if they do not accept the new system. That night the 150 or more employes of these firms left, the owners thus in a way effecting a lockout.

Tuesday morning, at the close of the night's work, the entire force of the International mills joined the others, making fully 600 men out of employment at the present time.

PROGRAMME FOR COMMENCEMENT

Class of '07 of Brattleboro High School Will Receive Diplomas Next Week. Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday Night by Rev. Lawson.

The 23 members of the graduating class of the Brattleboro high school will receive diplomas next week will program of commencement week will begin Sunday night, when Rev. George B. Lawson, pastor of the First Baptist church, will preach the baccalaureate sermon in that church at 7:30 o'clock. Class day exercises will be held on the high school lawn at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Following is the program: President's address, E. Murray Frost; class oration, Harry C. Surrag; class poem, H. Leslie Frost; class history, Miss Marion F. Simonds; and Miss Pauline S. Miller; oration, Miss Florence L. Strong; singing of the class, ivy ode, words and music by E. Murray Frost; planting of the class ivy.

On Thursday night the graduating program will be carried out in the auditorium. Admittance will be by card except to the gallery, which is open to the public. The exercises will begin at 8 o'clock. Ora E. Butterfield of Detroit, Mich., a member of the class of 1886 and now general counsel of the Michigan Central Railroad company, will deliver the address. Principal Edgar Burr Smith will make an address to the class and will announce the honor members and also the winners of the four Austine prizes of $100 each which become available this year for the first time. The winners are not yet known and probably will not be known until Thursday as examinations which will figure in the final standing will be taken as late as Tuesday. Principal Smith will turn the class over to the school board and the chairman, Rev. E. Q. S. Goodwood, will make brief remarks and present the diplomas.

A meeting of the Brattleboro high school alumni will be held in the high school building Friday evening, June 21, at 8 o'clock. There will be an interesting program with musical selections and remarks by Ora E. Butterfield of Detroit, Attorney-General C. C. Fitts and others. The gathering will be informal and will take the form of class reunions.

The movement for a general reunion was started so late this season that there was no time to formulate definite plans for a gathering commencement week. It is expected that at the meeting Friday steps will be taken for effecting a permanent organization of the alumni and that a reunion in more elaborate form will be held next year. It is urged that individuals who are interested make an effort to get out their former classmates for the class reunions. It is probable that the plans for future reunions will include the assignment of separate parts in the arrangements to different classes.

FROM DR. HAMILTON.

Boys Did Not Cut Down a United States Flag.

Editor Reformer—As a parent of one of the boys expelled from school, please allow me to make this statement with due acknowledgment on the part of my son and myself to the school authorities and the tax-payers of the district.

My son furnished the cloth and decorated the cloth, after school hours, that the other boys later ran up on the flag staff and was cut down by him later. This was two nights before Memorial day and there was no United States flag cut down, pulled down, disfigured or destroyed by any of these boys as the flag was not up that evening. This occurred so long before Memorial day that no disrespect was intended or thought of towards the Grand Army. Tampering with the pole and rope has occurred at various times, being done by those who are now our best and leading citizens.

My son has acknowledged to the school authorities the part that he took and expressed regrets for the same and I think the other boys expelled have done the same thing and I think the publicity that has been given to "Cutting down the flag," with their names attached for doing the same when they did not do the act, a thousand times more punishment to the boys and the parents than they deserve and I do not believe the school authorities intended any such punishment. I am knowledgeable of the right of school teachers to punish, but not to mark the face with a rawhide. I acknowledge their right to punish, but do not acknowledge their right to mark for life as has been done in this case, as some of the boys were intending a higher education and when they approach other institutions of learning this false accusation will be thrown in their face, and later in life the same is liable to occur.

With the above statement I now approach the tax-payers and their representatives, the school authorities, and petition that my son be restored to the rights of the school and ask on what terms, conditions, and time this can be done, I having, heretofore, made good the pecuniary damage, Fremont Hamilton.

THE DATE IS CHANGED

Jamestown Party Will Leave Here July 22.

WAR PATH SHOWS FREE

Three Winners in the Reformer's Contest Will Have Admission Without Charge to Many of the Best Attractions.

Owing to the fact that a national convention of the Elks is to be held at Philadelphia the week of July 15, and special electric automobiles cannot be engaged for the Jamestown party, the date of leaving Vermont has been advanced to July 22, instead of July 15 as originally intended. The contest will close on July 2, as previously stated, thus giving the successful ones more time in which to prepare for the trip.

We are pleased to publish the following important announcement from the Don C. Stiles company, who have charge of this trip: It shows that the Reformer contest winners will be treated as well as anybody can be: As representatives of the Jamestown exposition and through special arrangements with the concessionaires we are enabled to offer free admissions to all the following attractions on the "War Path" to all winners in Vermont newspaper contests going on special travel party of the Don C. Stiles company leaving July 22, 1907:

Battle of Merrimack and Monitor.
Battle of Gettysburg.
Battle of Manassas.

Congress of Beauties.
Shadow of the Cross.
Eskimo Village.
Pharaoh's Daughter.

Florida Ostrich Farm.
La Gide Theatre.
Paul Revere's Ride.

The above includes most of the best attractions on the "War Path" and have an actual value of many dollars.

There is still opportunity for a hustling candidate in the third district, in which voting has not been very brisk. We naturally wish to have as large a vote as possible, although the winner will receive the prize no matter how few votes are cast.

In the second district a new name appears, that of Samuel Brown of Springfield, Vt. As four new subscribers for five years each would put any candidate ahead in this district, it can easily be seen that the race is not yet over.

In the first district, any one of the four leaders has a good opportunity to win. Remember the votes must be in by noon July 2.
