

Great Warm Weather Sacrifice Purchase of Fine Clothing

The unprecedented warm November and December left some large manufacturers of high grade clothing with stock on hand that they could not resist the temptation to close up some lots at an unheard-of price, and the goods are in the store. Now we are confronted with the proposition: we cannot sell the other stock we have on hand even at our usual low prices, as the sale of this great purchase will demoralize the market.

and we have decided to put our entire stock of Suits and Overcoats into the Sale on the same basis, and have slashed prices accordingly without regard to cost

We are going to clean up the counters, and we know there is only one way; by making prices that will do the business; no half-hearted mark-downs will do it. People have a right to demand the values advertised and we are going to give that and more. We guarantee every piece in every way, quality way up, such marks as Kuppenheimer, Kaufman, Boston Special, etc., etc., and prices down where it is like finding money in the road for the customers. Our guarantee of money back if you want it goes with everything. These Suits and Overcoats will be divided into five lots and sold as follows:

- Lot 1—All $7.50 Suits and Overcoats go in this lot at $4.95
- Lot 2—All $10.00 Suits and Overcoats go in this lot at $7.95
- Lot 3—All $12 and $13.50 Suits and Overcoats go in this lot at $9.75
- Lot 4—All $15 and $18 Suits and Overcoats go in this sale at $12.50
- Lot 5—All $20, $22.50, $25 Suits and Overcoats go in this lot at $15.00

NOTHING RESERVED Sale Begins Saturday, December 30th

THE BOYS' SUITS AND OVERCOATS

Have not escaped the Mark-Down pencil any more than the Men's, and the prices go way down. They are divided into six lots, as follows:

- Lot 1—All Boys' Suits & Overcoats worth up to $2.00 go in this lot at $1.15
- Lot 2—All Boys' Suits & Overcoats worth up to $3.00 go in this lot at $1.95
- Lot 3—All Boys' Suits & Overcoats worth up to $4.00 go in this lot at $2.75
- Lot 4—All Boys' Suits & Overcoats worth up to $5.00 go in this lot at $3.85
- Lot 5—All Boys' Suits & Overcoats worth up to $6.00 go in this lot at $4.50
- Lot 6—All Boys' Suits & Overcoats worth up to $9.75 go in this lot at $5.90

Warm Weather Knocks Out Men's and Women's Fur Coat Trade

We have an immense stock of Fur Coats that haven't moved. They must be sold. We have on hand today the finest selection we have ever shown at this season of the year, and we offer at a tremendous sacrifice: Men's Raccoon Coats, Men's Russian Dog Coats, Men's Australian Calf Coats, Men's Russian Calf Coats, Men's Fur-Lined Coats, Women's Dog Driving Coats, Women's Australian Calf Driving Coats, Women's Raccoon Driving Coats.

Operators of Ten Stores GOODNOW, PEARSON & HUNT Brattleboro, Vermont

In New Hampshire

HINSDALE.

Waters-Blouin Wedding.
Miss Lena Blouin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon A. Blouin of this town, and Leonard Waters of Lawrence, Mass., were united in marriage by Rev. F. P. S. Cahill at the parochial residence Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The bridal couple were attended by Miss Irene Blouin, a sister of the bride, and Daniel Allen of Lawrence, Mass. The bride was attired in a very becoming gray suit with hat to match, and the bridesmaid was becomingly gowned in blue. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's parents on Chesterfield road where a reception was held in the evening which was attended by many friends. Refreshments of ice-cream and cake were served. Mrs. Waters has many friends in town where she attended school for a time and then with her parents moved to Lawrence, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Waters will go Friday to Lawrence where their home awaits them. Mr. Waters is employed in a paper mill there.

Gov-King Wedding.
Miss Pearl King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. King of this town, and Benjamin Gov of Warren, Vt., were married at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday evening by Rev. A. L. Hill at the Congregational parsonage. The bride was gowned in a tailored blue suit and picture hat of black beaver and willow plume. Mr. and Mrs. Gov left Wednesday for their wedding trip which will include Boston and vicinity. The bride is one of Hinsdale's most charming young women and has won many friends by her pleasant and genial ways. Mr. Gov is well known in town, having worked here during the construction of the Connecticut river dam and power house. At present he is employed at his trade as carpenter in Northfield, Mass. Congratulations and best wishes are extended to the newly married couple. For the present they will make their home in this town.

Sidney Stearns was at home from Alstead for Christmas.

Miss Bridget Raleigh visited in Greenfield this week.

Mrs. W. B. Stacy recently spent a week in West Swanton.

Charles King Jr. spent Christmas in New Britain, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Taylor recently spent a few days in Keene.

Henry Brownell of Keene visited Hinsdale friends Monday.

William Kimball has been at home from Boston the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Stevens went to Bennington for Christmas.

John Fisher of Yale was a guest at F. E. Field's over Christmas.

Carl Smith was at home from Brattleboro a few days recently.

H. H. Russell was in Boston on business one day last week.

Dono Charonelle of Keene visited in town the first of the week.

S. A. Esteson of Loomis, Mass., has been in town the past week.

Prentiss Taylor is at home from Tufts for the Christmas vacation.

Max Bergeron is at home from Washington, D. C., for a short visit.

Saxon of Boston was a guest of F. Robertson the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spaulding went to Wardshor to spend Christmas.

G. C. Fisk has been spending the past week at his home in Springfield.

Harland Toel went to his home in Winchendon, Mass., to spend Christmas.

Miss Doris S. Hampton, Hampton, Mass., is visiting

Miss Bessie McCrary of Northampton, Mass., is visiting in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis visited in Gardner, Mass., the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cote of Greenfield were guests in town part of this week.

John Felice visited at his home in Holyoke, Mass., from Saturday to Tuesday.

Peter Stone of Claremont, N. H., visited in town from Sunday until Wednesday.

Charles Evers has been quite ill the past week but is improving at present writing.

Edw. Kelley and son, Thomas Kelley, visited in Montpelier from Friday to Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Diekmann were guests of relatives in Brattleboro last Monday.

George Ruber and Joseph Spring went Friday for a few days' stay in New York city.

Charles Jones of Keene was a guest of his mother, Mrs. Julia Jones, Christmas day.

Miss Bertha Hall of Boston is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren M. Hall.

Mrs. Augusta Nims was a guest of her son, Myron Nims, in Keene, over Christmas.

Harry Clark of Manchester, N. H., is visiting Hinsdale relatives and friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamb of Greenfield visited at J. M. Lamb's the first of the week.

Mrs. A. W. Mead entertained her uncle, Arthur Sanderson of California part of last week.

Percy Booth of Concord was with his family at Elzear Doucette's the first of the week.

Dr. J. S. Roberts, formerly of this town, has moved his office from Nashua to Chester.

Mrs. Mary Enright and Thomas Sullivan of Troy visited at J. E. Scott's Sunday and Monday.

William Young of Haverhill, Mass., has been spending the past week in town with relatives.

Mrs. Nolette and daughter of North Dana have been recent guests at James O'Brien's.

Miss Lillian Myers of Florence, Mass., is spending her Christmas vacation at her home here.

Charles King went today for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. McCormick, in New York city.

Mrs. George Perham and daughter of West Swanton are visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Lowell.

Misses Mabel Pike of Bellows Falls and Mollie Pike of Claremont were at home for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Underwood visited in Newfane with relatives from Sunday until Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Butler of Fitchburg, Mass., visited briefly at Thomas Butler's this week.

Mrs. J. G. Bridge has returned home after visiting in Springfield, Mass., and Hartford, Conn.

Mrs. Warren Holman and son, Jason, spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. Lahiff, in Keene.

Mrs. Clark and daughter, Miss Sadie Dodge, of Spofford are visiting this week at E. M. Dodge's.

Joseph Higginson of Haverhill, Mass., has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Higginson.

R. M. Tole of Springfield, Mass., has been spending a few days this week in town with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robbins spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. William Curran in Springfield.

Miss Blanche Boucher and Miss Doris Merritt are at home from the Keene normal school this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pearson of Keene were guests Saturday and Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pearson.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Maginnis and daughter Ellen, visited in South Vernon from Saturday until Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Bailey and Miss Madelyn Stearns of Brockton, Mass., are visiting Hinsdale relatives.

Mrs. Albert Krumenaker of New York city came Tuesday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Freda Ruber.

Miss Hannah Mullins went last Friday to Franklin Falls for a visit with her brother, Thomas Mullins, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fuller were called to Chesterfield Friday by the death of the latter's father, Mr. Phillips.

John Corkery and son, Francis, and daughter Agnes, of Spofford were guests Monday at Thomas Hannon's.

The Girls' Glee club of the high school gave a very pleasant dancing party in Foresters' hall last Friday evening.

Miss Ida Detour of Brockton, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. John Ricard of Springfield visited at Joseph Detour's Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Safford spent Monday in Keene with the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Safford.

Mrs. Mary Roark returned to her home in Palmer, Mass., Wednesday after spending several weeks at James Redding's.

R. M. Langworthy spent Christmas in Brattleboro with his daughter, Lamolite, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bruce.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell of Everett, Mass., and Miss Carrie Mason of Bellows Falls spent Christmas at H. H. Russell's.

Miss Dorothy Gray and Miss Emily Burk of the Northfield seminary are spending the Christmas holidays at Dr. C. A. Gray's.

Miss Evelyn Willard and Herbert Willard of Orange, Mass., visited at Milton Howard's a few days the first of the week.

Miss Margie Belleville goes tomorrow to Meriden, Conn., where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dominique Belleville.

Mr. Thomas F. Dix is very ill at the home of her son, Frank Williams. Miss Julia Streeter, a trained nurse, is caring for her.

Misses Ellen and Mary Fitzgerald have returned from Dorchester, Mass., where they have been spending the past two months.

A special meeting of the Woman's club was held at the home of Mrs. P. E. Amidon Tuesday afternoon to transact important business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hubbard of Springfield were Christmas guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hubbard.

An Ammerman went Saturday to New York city for a visit with relatives. Mrs. Ammerman and niece have been there for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Brigham of Winchester and Miss Maud Brigham of Boston were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Temple Christmas.

Miss Elizabeth Hancock of Greenfield, Mass., and Titus Hancock of New York city were at home with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hancock, Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis O'Dette went to White River Junction Saturday, called there by the death of a little granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson.

Miss Margaret Dempsey of Springfield, Mass., Michael Dempsey of New York city and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Casey of Derry, N. H., were at home for Christmas.

F. W. Tilden has recently installed a kerosene torch at the foundry to start the fire in the stack to take the place of a wood fire which has heretofore been used.

Several from here took advantage of the special train to Keene Wednesday evening and attended the production of 'The Gamblers,' Lyman's orchestra of this town furnished the music.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien and daughter of Bernardston, Mass., and Mrs. William O'Brien and son Emmet, and daughter

Kathleen of Hyde Park, Mass., were guests the past week at William O'Brien's.

Miss Eva C. Robertson entertained the Nameless Five at her home Wednesday afternoon and evening. A supper was served the guests, followed by a Christmas tree.

The dates of the annual fair and festival of the Universalist parish have been changed from Feb. 8 and 9 to Feb. 15 and 16, owing to conflicting dates with the Universalist fair in Brattleboro.

While at play Tuesday afternoon Paul Chamberlain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chamberlain, was accidentally hit in the eye by an arrow thrown by a playmate. The eye was seriously injured but it is not expected that he will lose the sight.

Misses Doris and Florence Conway and William Conway of Winchester, John Conway and Susie Conway of Providence, R. I., and Miss Margaret Conway of Springfield were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Lynch the first of the week.

Miss Annie Conway of Stafford Springs, Conn., William Conway of Greenfield, Miss Kate Conway of Keene, and Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Cunningham and family of Hyde Park, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Conway over Christmas.

Five local young men who call themselves "The Jolly Five," are to hold a New Year's party next Monday evening at the opera house, dancing from 8 to 12, to furnish music for dancing from 8 to 12, and prizes will be given for the best waltzes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Felch and Mr. George Abbott attended the funeral of the former's sister, Mrs. Helen (Felch) Conroy, in Keene Tuesday. Upon returning home Mr. Felch received word of the death of another sister, Mrs. Andrew Woodbury, in Ashuelot.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Nims entertained Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nash of Springfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Nims, and daughter Ruth, of Sullivan, Mrs. Charles Wellman of Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Jones of Northfield, and Mrs. Julia Davis of Ashuelot.

Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Corliss were: Mrs. J. D. Crane of Watbury, Conn.; Miss Kate Corliss and Miss Nellie Corliss of Springfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Corliss and daughter, Mrs. James Donovan and daughter of Somerville, Mass.

The annual Christmas gathering of the Robertson families was held at F. W. Robertson's Saturday evening. There were 25 people present, including Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gould of Greenfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Wilder of Miller Falls and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Robertson of Washington, D. C.

The annual business meeting of the Universalist parish will be held in the church vestry next Monday evening. Reports of the various officers will be read and the pastor will give his annual address and the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place. All interested are cordially invited to be present. A banquet will be served.

Naomi chapter of the Eastern Star is to observe its 10th anniversary Jan. 8, at which time Past Grand, Matron Ellen Stone of Franklin is expected to install the officers for the ensuing year and the chapter from Whiton, which instituted the local chapter, is invited to be present. An interesting entertainment program is in preparation. A banquet will be observed.

Dr. R. E. Lynch of Brattleboro, assisted by Dr. Lachaine of this town, performed an operation on E. E. Bruce's knees last Saturday morning and found a quantity of pus in each knee. Mr. Bruce has suffered for several months from pains in his knees but is now greatly relieved and it is hoped that he is on a speedy road to recovery. He is being cared for by a trained nurse.

The following officers will be installed in the S. V. auxiliary next Thursday evening: President, Mary Moore; vice-president, Mrs. Charles Chamberlain; past-president, Mrs. Minnie Dickerman; treasurer, Jane Lynch; chaplain, Mrs. Bertha Dickerman; inside guard, Bessie Parker; guide, Mrs. Stearns; assistant guide, Mrs. P. C. Stewart. The auxiliary will give a cake and color-lanterns will be loaned by the president.

Christmas was observed in the different churches all being decorated with ivy and ropes of green, red and white tinsel, bells, making a beautiful appearance. A Christmas tree and supper were held at the Sunday school children and parents at the Universalist church Sunday evening. The program for the evening was given by the primary pupils. After the supper the girls were taken from the tree among them being George, Thomas, John, and Robert. A. M. Brady and wife, Christmas concerts were given at the Congregational and Methodist churches and the Christmas trees were held Monday evening.

Among other home-coming for Christmas were: Elwood Wood of H. H. Hannon, at A. F. Wood's; Leon Fisher of Shelburne Falls, at Mrs. C. W. Wood's; Mr. and Mrs. Luke Mann and son, Milton, of Brattleboro, at Joseph Vanille's; Robert Field of Springfield, at P. E. Felch's; Roger Holland of Boston, at H. C. Houghton's; Dick Higgins, Tibbotts of Greenfield, at Mrs. George Lyons's; Earl Fisher of Worcester, Tebb, of Westfield, at Mrs. J. H. Houghton's; Selbert of Brattleboro, at Mrs. Arzella Williams, Worcester; and Alton Fraser; Charles Weeks of Keene, at R. A. Weeks's; Harold Merrill of Yale, at L. B. Merritt's; and Guy Smith of White River Junction, at George Smith's.

WEST CHESTERFIELD.

The Christmas exercises were, very good.

Mrs. A. P. Richardson does not gain very fast.

Misses Olive and Beulah Colburn and Miss Ada Bothwell of Northampton, Mass., were at their homes here for Christmas.

Took Opiates to Get Rest

Months of Suffering Stopped by Mysterious Pain Ease.

Don't make the awful mistake of taking poisons into your system to weaken pain. Here's a letter from a woman who found the right way:

Meers, Barnes & Son,
I must tell you what Mysterious Pain Ease did for my arm. It was lame and painful for months. I had to move it with the other hand and took opiates to get rest. I sent you for the remedy after combing my hair with that head. What more can I say, remedy to this poor suffering world. I give great credit to this poor suffering world.

MRS. R. A. LANGLEY, Waterbury, Vt.

Don't wait until the hour of need to get a bottle; have it on hand always. It's as good as a family doctor to have around the house. The directions will tell you dozens of uses that make it a truly wonderful remedy. Get a bottle from your druggist (or by mail), 25 cent and 50 cent sizes. "Cures through the Pores."

JUNIOUS BARNES & SON

Proprietors Mysterious Pain Ease, Burlington, Vt.

For Sale by
A. H. Fuller, Bellows Falls, Vt.
Charles E. Grafton, Brattleboro, Vt.
P. E. Holden & Co., Brattleboro, Vt.
C. Frank Thomas, Brattleboro, Vt.

PERSONALS.

Earl Titus of Boston has been pending a few days at his home.

J. W. Cobb has been spending the week in Boston and New York.

George Rice of White Plains, N. Y., spent Monday at his home.

Dr. G. R. Anderson spent Christmas at his former home in Rutland.

Watson Kendall of Springfield, Mass., was at home over Christmas.

Mrs. Eugene Ferriter goes to Springfield, Mass., Monday for a brief visit.

Misses Mary Curtin and Ora Perry spent Saturday in Bellows Falls.

Miss Ruth Stoddard spent Christmas with her father in Holyoke, Mass.

Miss Edith Grant was a holiday visitor at her home in Bernardston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Covey and daughter Edna, are spending the week in Keene.

Miss Mary Austin is spending a week in New York city with her brother Martin Austin.

Mrs. William Plimpton of Springfield, Mass., is spending the week at P. B. Lavell's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Snyder spent Christmas in Fairhaven, returning to Brattleboro Wednesday.

Ray Goodale of Mittineague, Mass., spent Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Dora Goodale.

Misses Alice Ferriter and Katherine Guilbert go to New York city Monday for a visit of several days.

Mrs. Katherine Coleman of Newark, N. J., spent Christmas at the home of her father, Luke Ferriter.

George Dannew left Wednesday for a visit with his sister, Mrs. David Dannew, in Chiopee Falls, Mass.

Glosson Wilder of Worcester, Mass., spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of his father, Don Wilder.

Miss Bertha Shaw returned Tuesday from her home in Belchertown, Mass., where she spent Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Farnum and George Farnum of Wardshor came Sunday, spending Christmas at George Ellis's.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell of Amherst, Mass., were holiday visitors at the home of H. B. Brown.

E. D. Wilson, for over a year employed by Mosher & Cobb, has entered the employ of the Standard Oil company as a driver.

Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Mosher will spend the winter at the Brooks House. She will return shortly from Keene, N. H., where she has been for a number of months.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Nash and their daughter Marion, of Brandon, with Mrs. Ann Nash of White River Junction, came Saturday to spend a few days in town.

Miss Mabella Gonzales of San Juan, Porto Rico, and Misses Beatriz and Maria Montes of Gaines, Cuba, who took part in the Christmas pageant at the Baptist church Friday evening were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Knight Saturday and Monday.

WEST GUILFORD.

Willard Fisher has moved to the farm the house of H. B. Brown.

Walter Phelps has sold his place in Halifax to Ira Hall of Marlboro who will move onto it soon.

The annual meeting of church and society will be held in the vestry Saturday, Dec. 30, at 1 p. m.

Mrs. John Henderson and son of Attleboro, Mass., are visiting his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Merrifield.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Thomas came home Saturday from a four-weeks' trip through the northern part of this state.

Christmas was observed Monday night in the church. There was a large attendance and all enjoyed the speaking and singing by the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Nichols went Friday to Athol to visit Mrs. Nichols's sister. They will also visit their daughters in Greenfield and in Shelburne Falls.

BRATTLEBORO MARKETS.

Grain and Feed—Retail.

| | |
|-------------------|-------|
| Corn, Northern | 1.10 |
| Mixed Feed | 1.15 |
| Oats, bu. | .65 |
| Meal, cvt. | 1.00 |
| Meal, bolted, lb. | .02 |
| Cottonseed Meal | 1.70 |
| Brn. | 1.55 |
| Linseed Oil Meal | 2.20 |
| Providence | 1.75 |
| Middling | 1.35 |
| Hay, loose, ton | 20.00 |
| Hay, baled | 27.00 |

Farm Produce—Wholesale.

| | |
|-------------------|-------|
| Pork, dressed | .8 |
| Pork, live weight | .6 |
| Beef, dressed | .95 |
| Lamb | .70 |
| Fowl, live | .12 |
| Hides, lb. | .07 |
| Calfskins, each | .35 |
| Eggs, dozen | 2.70 |
| Flour, patent | 5.00 |
| Maple Syrup | 25.00 |
| Butter | 25.00 |
| Cheese | 14.00 |

Groceries and Provisions—Retail.

| | |
|---------------------------|-------|
| Butter | .32 |
| Eggs, fresh, dozen | .40 |
| Eggs, storage | .35 |
| Milk, 1 gallon | 1.00 |
| Molasses, gal. | .40 |
| Sugar, refined, lb. | 15.00 |
| Salt, T. L. bu. | .60 |
| Flour, roll, pro. | 2.50 |
| Flour, patent | 7.00 |
| Gram | .02 |
| Corn Meal | .02 |
| Rye Meal | .02 |
| Tea, Japan | .40 |
| Tea, Oolong | .40 |
| Tea, Young Hyson | .40 |
| Linseed Oil, gal. | .40 |
| Kerosene, gal. | .40 |
| Kerosene, best, gal. | .40 |
| Lemons, doz. | .40 |
| Cheese | .22 |
| Sage Cheese | .25 |
| Onions, native, 3 lb. bu. | .03 |
| Cabbage, lb. | .03 |
| Beets, lb. | .03 |
| Beans, qt. | .10 |
| Beans, pk. | .75 |
| Y. E. | .14 |
| Pa. Lard | .12 |
| Pure Lard | .10 |
| Lard, compound | .10 |
| Potatoes, pk. | .15 |
| Sugar Pails | .25 |
| Brooms | .50 |

Meats—Retail.

| | |
|--------------------|-----|
| Pork Steak | .15 |
| Pork Chops | .15 |
| Veal Steak | .12 |
| Pork, roasts | .14 |
| Roasts, beef | .08 |
| Corned Beef | .20 |
| Porterhouse Steak | .20 |
| Round Steak | .14 |
| Leaf Lard | .16 |
| Home-made Lard | .15 |
| Hams | .28 |
| Shed Ham | .20 |
| Hams, minced | .20 |
| Lamb, hind quarter | .12 |
| Lamb, fore quarter | .10 |
| Lamb Chops | .15 |
| Turkeys | .18 |
| Fowls | .15 |
| Chicks | .20 |
| Sausage | .15 |

MARLBORO.

Arthur Snow of Brattleboro over Sunday.

W. F. Snow and family spent with Mrs. Jane Higley.

Oscar Tyler, a student from Marlboro, is home for his vacation. The annual parish visit will be at the parsonage on Monday evening, 1, 1912.

The Rev. Dr. T. Calvin McCall resigned as pastor of the Brooklyn Presbyterian church to become a lawyer.