WAR BETWEEN FRANCE AND ENGLAND.

Both Nations Now Expect a Fight.

The Legislature.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 21.—The election of state officers was completed yesterday and the only change in the list of officials is the substitution of the name of Hon. Nelson Fiske to succeed the late Hon. Crosby P. Miller as a trustee of the University of Vermont.

The fight for State Superintendent of Education was a hot one and called forth bright speeches in favor of both candidates. The ballot resulted as follows: Whole number of votes, 258; necessary for choice, 130; Mason S. Stone, 171; C. H. Dunton, 87.

In the House (morning), fourteen bills were introduced, the most important being H. 86, by Dickey, of Bradford, to provide for a safe and accurate test and analysis of milk, and to protect the farmer; H. 87, by Kemp, of Montpelier, providing that defendants jointly indicted for felony shall be tried separately; H. 93 by Wilson, of Stockbridge, repealing the six inch law, and requiring selection to post streams at points above which trout are not likely to be over six inches long. Fishing on posted waters wholly forbidden. Fine of not less than ten dollars for first violation.

Killed, H. 26, amending section 2980 V. S., relating to road commissioners. Five bills were passed: H. 1 relating to public health; H. 10 an amendment to section 856 V. S., relating to state beneficiaries; and H. 20, granting a bounty on certain noxious animals, being the only important ones. The afternoon session in the house accomplished very little. H. 2, an Act relating to railings on highways was reported unfavorably. H. 63 relating to the office of Sheriff was killed. H. 30, making special appropriations for the Vermont Soldiers Home was passed.

In the Senate, morning, seven bills were passed. Three of them related to the courts and the rest were unimportant. In the afternoon six bills were ordered for third reading, and one unimportant bill was introduced. At 2.30 the two houses met in joint assembly to elect the state officers.

NOTES.
The number of bills introduced this term relative to fish is already large.

The Montreal Star says the C. V. re-organization bill gives much satisfaction to the officials of the Grand Trunk. The members from Orleans County held a meeting yesterday and declared unanimously against the McGearly local option bill. Committees from other counties are to meet and organize a systematic opposition.

No Understanding

Paris, Oct. 21.—An effort is being made here to create the impression that there is some understanding between the United States and Spain regarding the Philippine Islands outside of the statements of the protocol. It can be stated however that such is not correct.

Marchands Expedition.

Paris, Oct. 21.—Captain Barratier of Major Marchand's expedition on his arrival at Csiro with the report for the French government said that the mission had not lost an officer or soldier and that the health was good. The report only gives the movements up to September 1st, and does not mention the arrival of Kitchener.

Paris Exposition.

Paris, Oct. 21.—Commissioner Peck has secured a total space for the United States in the Paris Exposition of 203,000 square feet. At first he was allotted only 125,000 square feet. Germany has now only 150,000 square feet allotted.

Ready For War.

London, Oct. 21.—Exceptional interest was taken today in the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar where Nelson defeated the French and Spanish fleets.

The cause of the increased outburst of patriotism is the dispute with France on the Fashoda question which many look upon as likely to bring war between England and France.

Snow Storm Record.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 21.—The weather here continues to beat all records of the past. The snow never before fell so early in the season here but it has been falling fast for the past 24 hours. The earliest it has ever been known to snow before is November 25th.

OPENING ENTERTAINMENT.

The first entertainment of this winter's lecture course was given in the Congregational church last night by the Lyceum Stars, Miss Jennie Corea, Soprano; Miss Edna Louise Southerland, Reader; Miss Maud Paradis, Pianist; Mr. Van Veatchon Rogers, Harpist; and Mr. Felix Winteritz, Violinist.

Every number on the splendid program they gave was artistically rendered and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Mr. Rogers selections on the harp will long be remembered by every lover of music. Miss Southerland appeared before a Barre audience two years ago, and anyone who heard her then and again last night would mark the decided improvement in her character work. She is a graduate of Emerson School of Oratory and has been studying with Leland T. Powers for the past year. Her selections were rendered with feeling and artistic finish, and the encores she received testified to the genuine appreciation of the audience. Mr. Winteritz is an old favorite here and his selections last evening were fully up to their usual standard of excellence. The singing and playing by Miss Corea and Miss Paradis was excellent. If the entertainments which are to follow prove as good as this one our citizens will have no reason to be dissatisfied with this seasons course.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

The parents and schoolmates of Miss Katie Ahern gave her a very enjoyable surprise party from 6 to 9 o'clock last evening at her house in Durkee Place, the occasion being her 11th birthday anniversary.

Some twenty-five of her mates and several older friends made up the party and an splendid time resulted. Games of all sorts were played and selections on the piano, organette and gramophone completed the entertainment. Refreshments of fruit, and ice cream and cake were served at 8 o'clock. Everyone voted it one of the most enjoyable evenings they had ever spent.

Among the many nice presents left for Miss Katie were the following: gold chain and cross from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ahern; gold ring, Mrs. G. B. Durkee; silver dollar, G. B. Durkee; fifty cents each from Bert Durkee and Mr. Cooper; hand painted art plaque, Beatrice Callaghan; jewel trays from both Goldie Hawes and Annie Arvill; pen and stamp box, Cora Barnes; small pitcher, Mary Anderson; decorated glasses from Maude Thompson, Celia Fronier, May Bemis and Pauline Cutler; box of bonbons, Miss Edith Boyce; cup and saucer from each of Hallie Calder, Bessie Verelle and Flora Murphy; berry dish, Bessie Skeels; card plates from Chrissie Ingram, Mabel Johnson and Carrie Burke; photograph, Ester Fitts; vases from Christina McKewin, Lillian Campbell, and one with no name attached; six handkerchiefs from Francis Ahern; penknife, Lillian Nelson; boxes of paper and envelopes from Jennie Mann and Louise Calder; hairpin case, Lizzie McKewin; and a splendid two story birthday cake from Mr. and Mrs. J. COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

Louise C. French and D. Agnez French vs. D. Edgar French, et al. Washington County Court, September Term, 1898.

Whereas, it has been ordered by said County Court that we, the undersigned Commissioners, duly appointed by said court for that purpose, sell the real estate situated in Barre, in said County, and known as the David French Estate, and more particularly described in the petition in said entitled cause, at public or private sale, and to execute conveyance to the purchaser as provided by law, and hold the proceeds until the further order of said Court, and if sold at public sale, notice thereof to be given by publication of the same three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times and BARRE EVENING TELEGRAM, newspapers published in said Barre prior to said sale.

Now, pursuant to said order, we hereby give notice that we will sell said real estate at public sale on said real estate at said Barre on the 10th day of November, A. D., 1898, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, unless previously sold at private sale according to said order.

City Council.

A special meeting of the city council was held last evening. It was called by the Street Commissioners who wanted further instructions about laying out the new streets on the French estate.

Herb Leonard appeared before the council and applied for an extension of the city water supply to his barn for use in case of emergency. It was voted to rate his barn the same as a livery stable and give the usual rebate if the water be not used continually.

Representative Swasey, Judge Luce and Judge Lyford, commissioners on the estate were present as also were Frederick Carleton and Judge Barney, counsel for some of the heirs.

There was considerable discussion as to just where some of the streets should run. Some of the city officials thought the city had not ought to pay any land damages where it is necessary to cross other property than the French estate to connect with Merchant and Elm streets. All sorts of plans were talked over and the question was finally voted upon with the result that the street commissioners were ordered to lay the streets proposed. The new street that has to cross Charles Currier's land to connect with Merchant street will be laid only to Mr. Currier's land at present.

All the others are to connect with the present streets. The Elm street extension will go right through where L. J. Bolster's blacksmith shop stands and straight up the hill. The motion to lay the streets after this fashion was carried 3 to 1. A motion to connect with Merchant street across Mr. Currier's land and pay damages was lost 3 to 1.

A petition signed by officers of the Civic Federation of Womens clubs asking the city to lay a sidewalk from the fountain in the center of the park, easterly to the apex of the triangle, was laid upon the table. The meeting adjourned at 8.45.

COMING HOME.

Stephen Forsyth received a letter, dated at Paris, from James Ingram this morning. In it Mr. Ingram states that he should leave Liverpool for home on Saturday Oct. 22, which will be tomorrow. He will arrive here about the first of November.

LABOR DAY BILL.

A bill was drawn up today by which the first Monday in September of each year will be a legal holiday in this state and known as Labor Day this being the same date as recognized by the United States statutes and many of the different states as a legal holiday. In the same bill provision is made for making the 12th day of February which is the birthday of Abraham Lincoln a legal holiday to be known as Union Defenders Day. This is the day celebrated throughout the country by the Sons of Veterans. The bill was drawn by W. W. Lapoint and will be presented by Representative George T. Swasey in the House of Representatives next Monday.

MAY BUY CORNER LOT.

The city officials are talking over the advisability of purchasing that part of the French estate cornering on Elm and Washington streets for the site of the Aldrich Free Library.

Nothing definite has been done but it seems to be the general opinion that as the trustees of the library cannot now purchase the land it would be a good idea for the city to purchase it and hold it in trust till such time as the terms of the Aldrich will can be carried out. Every one thinks that it would be a pleuidid site for the library.
