

Rutland Weekly Globe.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 14, 1873.

Address: GLOBE PAPER CO., Rutland, Vt.

The republicans of Minnesota, as well as the whole people of the state, are to be congratulated on the defeat of one of their own candidates...

The first number of the "St. Albans Daily Advertiser" made its appearance Monday. It is a bright, good-looking, tasty and newsy sheet, and if it continues, as it commences, must supply a needed want in that section of the state.

It is true, as Mrs. Livermore claimed, Tuesday night, that the mothers of Vermont have no legal ownership in their children? How we hate that "ownership," when speaking of flesh and blood, even if it does convey an idea.

After the examination it was voted that the council be dissolved. The examination was declared satisfactory, and it was voted that they proceed to the ordination services at seven o'clock.

ORDER OF EXERCISES. The following order of exercises were arranged in consultation with the candidate: 1. Reading results of council by the scribe.

THE CASE OF THE VIRGINIAN. We may have "Cuba on the brain," this morning, but it presents so many different aspects, so many and so grave complications, its past history in connection with filibustering expeditions from the United States is so interesting, and the other movements, directly and indirectly, connected therewith, are so important, that we may be pardoned, "at once," in devoting so much space thereto.

It is strange, more than passing strange, that the American people, and its government, do not take heed to the past and govern themselves accordingly. Much of trouble, danger and difficulty might be avoided thereby. Vast expenditures of treasure might be saved and many valuable lives preserved by such a course.

WON'T TAKE HEED. In looking back upon the Cuban invasion of 1850 and 1851, some curious facts are developed, in reference to the ideas of the southern statesmen on the question of state and national sovereignty.

called with the leading spirits of that movement, and he offered the chief command, which he declined, saying in presence of his official position, "I am not a soldier."

From the special reporter of the Globe. Ordination and Installation of Rev. E. F. Wright, at Danby, Vt. According to programme Rev. E. F. Wright was duly ordained and installed pastor of the congregational church at Danby, on Tuesday, Nov. 11.

After prayer by the moderator it was found the following churches were represented by pastor and delegate: Rutland—Rev. J. G. Johnson, pastor; Bro. E. Y. N. Bennett, delegate.

ORDER OF EXERCISES. The following order of exercises were arranged in consultation with the candidate: 1. Reading results of council by the scribe. 2. Introductory services by Rev. II H Shaw and Rev. J. W. Bennett.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE. The committee are happy to say that in a large majority a unanimity of feeling prevails in the parish in reference to your settlement among us. The doing of this society will accompany this communication.

REPLY AND ACCEPTANCE OF MR. WRIGHT. DANBY, NOV., 1873. Brethren of the Church and friends of the Society—Your communication has been received and duly considered.

ENGLISH TAXPAYERS.—English taxpayers, now that they have got so far into the Ashantee struggle that they can't get back, are beginning to ask what it's all about, and why this lavish expense of men and treasure.

like most other men I have my imperfections. The position of the minister of the Gospel is one of great responsibility, and it is a pleasant work when the one is of God, and I hope that no other could by any means do it better.

stand by him, no matter what the consequences may be. Mr. C. desired us to especially state that this was no bombast on his part, and as he appears to be a man of nerve, and has enlisted reliable men in the matter, it may be safe to predict that in this town there will soon be a warm work.
