

we are already rivaled, even in our own market, by the heart of New England...

Does the Senator from New Hampshire desire this? Yet the Senator from South Carolina, his co-worker and associate...

But the Senator from New Hampshire has presented his objection in another light. He insists that a duty upon the article...

But, sir, this argument is no better for being turned into this shape. It depends, as before, upon the assumption that the duty imposed upon the foreign article...

But suppose it is true that the tariff of 1842 is, as the Senator supposes, a tax upon the production of the farmer of 30 to 40 per cent. What remedy does the Senator propose?

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

skirt; and now we intend to show the conduct of the Whigs, and contrast the heartless and hypocritical course of the Locos...

At the earliest moment of the next session, Mr. Prentiss introduced his bill again, viz. on the 6th of December. Jan. 22, Mr. Clay of Alabama (a Loco) moved to strike out the penalty for going out of the District...

THE TEXAS TREATY—TARIFF BILL FLOORED, &c. Correspondence of the Tribune. WASHINGTON, Monday, April 15.

It is now said that the Treaty will positively go into the Senate to-morrow. It is true, and possibly, but the President is so very uncertain in his resolves...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

my fellow citizens, and late constituents the grounds of my acquiescence in this unimportant measure.

Now, my fellow citizens, having given you my views upon the subject, let me recall your attention, without which we should not at this moment be the united and happy people...

LETTER FROM THE HON WILLIAM SLADE. To the Senior editor of the Voice of Freedom.

Sir:—I find myself called on by you, in the Voice, to answer the following questions: "Is not Henry Clay as much in favor of the annexation of Texas as was Andrew Jackson?"

It is not that I do not take it for granted, because Mr. Clay was, in 1820, of the opinion that the limits of Louisiana extended to the Rio del Norte, so as to embrace the territory of Texas...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

be now before me, which is equally decided. The Richmond Writ, the leading Whig paper in Virginia, says, annexation should be thought of without the consent of the whole family.

"So immense, so critical, so awful a question (says the editor) as the annexation of a new Empire to the old, ought to have been submitted to the people, in their calmest and most collected mood. Nothing respecting it should have been attempted without the previous ascertainment of the people. That will, when so much was at stake, should have been the will, not of a doubtful and equivocal majority, but of a clear, decided and unassailable majority."

LETTER FROM THE HON WILLIAM SLADE. To the Senior editor of the Voice of Freedom.

Sir:—I find myself called on by you, in the Voice, to answer the following questions: "Is not Henry Clay as much in favor of the annexation of Texas as was Andrew Jackson?"

It is not that I do not take it for granted, because Mr. Clay was, in 1820, of the opinion that the limits of Louisiana extended to the Rio del Norte, so as to embrace the territory of Texas...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

injon, arise from Mr. Clay, or the Whig party. It arises from the opposite quarter; and I would if I could, say to every man in Vermont—as you value the integrity of this Union, and would avoid a measure which would inevitably dissolve it, rally under the Whig banner, and help to beat it on to triumph.

MORE "ASTONISHING RESULTS." Old Tammany defeated by the city of New-York, and Harper elected by 4000 majority.

The election of Mayor, Alderman and Assistants, (comprising the City Government) took place on Tuesday last week. The old Tammany (Van Buren) party, who have ruled the city for the last two or three years, nominated Mr. Coddington; the regular Whig party nominated their last year candidate, Mr. Franklin, (who failed through the nomination of a Native American candidate) and the Native American party put in nomination Mr. James Harper, at the head of the great publishing firm, Harper & Brothers.

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

Cassius M. Clay has hired his late slaves, and they have no disposition either to run away into the free States, or to cut their late master's throat. He pays them a price agreed on by the mouth, & says he finds that cash produces much more labor than the lash!

LABORERS of a kind will support him, for he it is that will protect them from the pauper labor of Euro, and enable them to support themselves and families with care and independence.

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

The MECHANIC will vote for him, for it is his policy that will create a Home Market, and thereby increase the price of his labor, and the value of his lands.

LABORERS of a kind will support him, for he it is that will protect them from the pauper labor of Euro, and enable them to support themselves and families with care and independence.

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE GALAXY. MIDDLEBURY. Wednesday April 24, 1844.

INCONSISTENCY AND FALSEHOOD. John Quincy Adams, Giddings, Slade, and at length Cassius M. Clay, are constantly and triumphantly quoted by 31 party men to make weight for abolitionism.

On one circumstance, however, connected with this affair, is of painful character. The colonists had stationed a guard at Tubman town, which is some little distance from Mount Vaughan, the seat of the Episcopal mission.

MISSOURI COMING! CHEROKEE VICTORY IN ST.-LOUIS. The St. Louis charter election came off on the 1st inst, and after a close and animated contest, resulted in a noble and most glorious triumph of the Whigs.

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...

THE TARIFF—SAFE AS YET! Monday last was the day fixed upon by Mr. McKay to call up his British bill for the repeal of the present Tariff...