Terms:
CREDIT. CASH IN ADVANCE.
One Year..... $2 00 One Year..... $1 50
Six Months..... 1 00 Eight Months, 1 00

The discount for advance payment makes a just distinction between cash and credit. We prefer $1.50, cash in hand, to $2.00 on the credit plan. The Subscriber, also, will naturally prefer to save 50 cents by paying in advance—it is very large interest on the investment.

For the benefit of any who may, for any reason, neglect to renew on expiration of subscription, we make the subjoined arrangement:

For renewal one month after expiration of paid subscription for the year, $1.50; two months, $1.60; three months, $1.65; four months, $1.70; and so on.

To Young Men and Women.

The WATCHMAN offers any young woman or young man an admirable opportunity to obtain, by the exercise of a little energy and enterprise, a practical business education at one of two of the best business colleges in the country, viz: The Albany Business College, Albany, N. Y., and Spencer's Business College, Kingston, N. Y., a delightful town on the Hudson, below Albany. Each is a school of high repute in its class. The advertisement setting forth the proposition of the Albany school will be found on page five; of the Kingston institution, in the reading notice on page eight. A rare chance and a favorable season to improve it.

Business Mention.

porary LIFE unusually interesting during the coming summer months. The articles will be illustrated by a unique drawing, and the peculiar characteristics of each watering place will be brought out in bold relief.

The Westfield (Ind.) News prints the following in regard to an old resident of that place: "Frank Mealy, for many years in the employ of the L. N. A. & C. Ry. here, says: 'I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for ten years, and never have without it in my family. I consider it the best remedy of the kind manufactured. I take pleasure in recommending it. It is a specific for all household ailments. For sale by C. Blakely, Montpelier, Vt.'

Do you want anything in the line of drugs and medicines—no matter what? If so call on Fred A. Alsworth, proprietor of the new Williamson drug store on Depot street, one door east of J. K. Lynde's store if, perchance, he may not have exactly what you desire, he will aim to supply it in the shortest possible time, and at the most honest prices and square dealing will do it, he is bound to secure a fair share of public patronage. Sewing-machine supplies and a popular line of stationery are specialties. Give him a call.

PILES CURED QUICK. Suffer no longer now that Neurotic Pile Ointment has been reduced from one dollar to fifty cents, and refilled it falls to cure, either by your local druggist or by the Neurotic Company, Burlington, Vermont. Bad cases of long standing will be cured by this ointment. It is different from the others and seems to get there—so to speak. Enclose fifty cents to the Neurotic Co., Burlington, Vt., and receive your money back. The publishers of the WATCHMAN will vouch for the reliability of the Neurotic Co. If possible buy of H. A. Slade who has just received a fresh supply.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM. From the Fairhaven (N. Y.) Register. Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. The medicine she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain-Balm and instead of sending for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but he nevertheless applied the balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine he has ever used has done him so much good. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by C. Blakely, Montpelier, Vt.

THAT breezy playwright of pure fun, unalloyed, budding joy and happy days, George H. Boyce, is coming to the city with his new production of his versatile genius, which will receive its first presentation in this city at the Blanchard Opera House, Thursday evening next. This exhibition of his humor is labeled "A Stranger in New York," and the fact that it begins with the first word in the language, speaking alphabetically, shows that the author thought it necessary to change his methods. The new piece is said to be better than any of his predecessors. There are original situations, witty dialogues, sparkling repartee, handsome women and wonderful mechanical effects. It is a musical farce but it has a plot which is never lost sight of, and this is a genuine indication of power in Mr. Hoyt. For to write a musical farce that will be full of specialties and yet have coherence all through is no small task. Few have succeeded in doing it. The comedy is said to be Mr. Hoyt's ever had together. The stage settings are said to be the handsomest ever used in a Hoyt comedy, while the costumes are rich and stunning.

The boundaries of the big farm on the broad, fertile plain before the Mt. Pleasant House, White Mountains, and through which winds the Ammonoosuc river, have been widely extended since the close of the past season. The tract, which is to be put into hay and grain the coming season. The contract has just been let for another large barn, and a big gang of men is now at work laying a foundation for a rocky land lying just above the plain will be fenced for pasture and twenty cows will be kept for the Mt. Pleasant House dairy.

Letters to Montpelier people.—Mrs. Andrews, Montpelier, Madam: Mrs. A. L. Redding of Highgate Center, Vt., writes that she doesn't use over half as much Harmless as of the soap she had been using, and thanks us for having furnished her with such an economical soap. This is praise we are not entitled to. The grocer who introduces Harmless soap to his customers is entitled to a share of the credit for the good that soap will do those customers—not we. We have made no sacrifice—we have. We can make as much profit on Harmless as on any other soap—he introduced it. He is doing all this to benefit you. Without his help we are powerless. For instance, at Bristol, Vt., not a grocer would buy our soap until a local merchant, one of Bristol must do without a soap that will save the average family $50 to $100 a year in dry goods bills by not rotting the clothes. And we can do nothing to help them. Yours truly,

C. H. Post & Co., Newburgh, N. Y.

It is believed in Dublin that among others, all of the political prisoners, including all the inviolables, will be pardoned early in June in commemoration of the sixtieth year of the reign of Queen Victoria.
