The Color Escort.

There is nothing that more conduces to make a good, true and loyal soldier than to inculcate in him love and respect for the flag he has sworn to uphold and defend.

When the regiment has formed line on the parade, the colonel details a company to bring the colors and escort them to their place in the line.

The first lieutenant, with drawn sword, followed by the two color sergeants, who are followed in turn by a sergeant armed with a rifle, enters the building and receives the flags.

On reaching a point in the front of the center of the parade command the escort forms line facing the regiment, the two color sergeants marching to the front till twelve paces in front of the colonel and his staff.

With the approach of a new year most people discover the need of a new calendar. This fact accounts for the great number of these articles that burden the mails at this time.

APPOPLEXY - Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is equal to its effect in all plethoric symptoms. If you have unpleasant dizziness, lightness or sudden rush of blood to the head, take precautions against a recurrence.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

A REMEDY FOR THE Effects of Tobacco.

THE excessive use of tobacco, especially by young men is always injurious and undoubtedly shortens life materially.

THE HOUSEHOLD. Management of House Plants. L. R. Taft of the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station, writes: For most flowering plants the windows opening to the south are preferable.

The Sleep Inducing Bath. In directions for nursing the sick, a writer in the Ladies' Home Journal says: Frequent bathing brings great refreshment and acts both as cure and antidote for feverish conditions.

Photograph Frames. Among the photograph frames made at home none is more artistic than that covered with linen which has previously been embroidered in some pleasing design.

Cleaning Fabrics. For all articles which are too delicate to bear the most careful application of water the home worker may expect perfect success from gasoline.

Guests from Way Back. The clerks at several of the hotels tell amusing stories about some of the guests who come in from the rural districts.

One Minute Cough Cure. That is what it was made for.

The Day of Reliefs.

From the great variety of fabrics set before us it seems that every age in every nation has been subject to a revival. We have had everything, from the skins of animals to rich draperies that take us back to the days of Louis XVI.

For the theater or general evening wear, black tulle silk costumes are in great favor, the skirts made with a circular or Spanish flounce, having many rows of black lace insertion over a color; the waist on the same general idea and are in fact reproductions of summer organdies in somber hues.

YOUNG LADIES are very partial to plain-colored tulle silk, trimmed by narrow ribbon with a chenille edge, put on in ruff on lining fabric design.
