LOWER CABOT.

Mrs. Leon Harvey left for her home in Philadelphia last Saturday.

Mrs. Mary S. Bliss of Montpelier visited friends in town last week.

Ten teachers took the teachers' examination held in this town last Friday and Saturday.

There was no service at the Congregational church last Sunday on account of the absence of the pastor who was called home by the severe illness of his father.

The house of Will Field was entered by a thief a few days ago who took $14 from the bureau drawer in the chamber. The family was away in the afternoon. When they returned they found that an entrance had been made through one of the windows and an exit by the back door.

A new telephone line is to be built running from the village to the home of Edward Merritt on the Walden road. Nearly every farmer on the line will put in an instrument.

F. M. Marsh has been suffering the past week with a severe abscess on his cheek.

A five-year-old son of William Kelly of Lower Cabot died August 1, of brain trouble. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Marshall at the Advent church, Sunday. Burial was made in the cemetery at Lower Cabot.

Much credit is due the selectmen of the town for having the soldiers' monument cleaned and the inscriptions brought out so clearly; also the painting of the fence.

Some of our public spirited citizens have had in contemplation for some time the project of an organization for the purpose of calling the attention of city visitors and capitalists, also those wishing to purchase farms, to our town. The scheme was started last Friday evening by the meeting of quite a number of those interested in the parlors of Winooski Hotel to talk over the matter. After some interchange of thought it was deemed best to make an informal organization and G. C. May was elected temporary chairman and O. H. Dwinell secretary and treasurer. It was then voted that the organization should be known as the "Cabot Development Association." It was voted to call an experienced real estate agent to come and look our town over and see what inducements we can offer to call in capitalists and visitors, and G. C. May, C. H. Howland and George Gould were elected a committee to procure the real estate agent and show him about the town. This will be for the purpose of bringing into notice through the city papers and agencies the advantages of and inducements for capitalists and city people to come to our beautiful Vermont town. M. D. Wells and C. H. Dwinell were elected a committee to prepare articles and by-laws and present the same for consideration at the next meeting. It was then voted to adjourn till Saturday evening next at 8 o'clock at the same place. At this meeting let there be a full attendance as this is a move in the right direction and it will be with the farmers and business men to show whether it will succeed or not.

Perhaps your correspondent never had the same experience that our Williamstown brother correspondent has had in his twenty-five years of writing in which he says a promise was extracted from him never to use a certain woman's name in his items while she lived in my thirty-four years of correspondence for the Watchman. But I did have a request after passing the box one Sunday morning in church taking the usual collection, from one of the members, not to stick that box under his nose again, and the request was obeyed.

Alfred Hunter of Pittsfield, Mass., is visiting at L. Myers'.

FAYSTON.

Miss Sarah Griggs, familiarly kown as "Aunt Sarah," died Friday morning, July 31. Miss Griggs was born in this town January 28, 1814. She was the oldest person in town, and as her home has always been here she knew more of its history than anyone else. She well remembered all the first settlers, among whom was her father, Stephen Griggs, who came here from Connecticut in 1809 and made a home for himself and family in the wilderness, clearing the farm on which Howland Russell now lives. She attended the first district school in town, and during the winter of 1825, when Salmon Gleason was teacher and Rev. S. D. Cohoon, circuit preacher, she with twenty-four of her schoolmates made a public confession of Christ and united with the Methodist church, of which she has been a faithful member since. Of those twenty-five young persons only one, Mrs. Anna Bixby Brown, of West Berlin, remains to tell the story of the great revival. During the last twenty years when old age with its attendant infirmities needed the ministrations of patient and kind friends, she was tenderly cared for in the family of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bragg (Miss Griggs was Mrs. Bragg's aunt) who did all in their power to make her pathway down the hill of life as pleasant as possible. The funeral services were at the Methodist church on Sunday. Rev. J. S. Allen was the officiating clergyman, C. M. Richadson funeral director, and W. C. Bragg, A. S. Howe, C. M. Richardson and M. L. Richardson bearers.

C. F. Ramsey is ill at the home of his son-in-law, E. A. Fisk, having had a shock of paralysis.

Miss Gertrude Strong is visiting her brother, Winnie Strong in Norwich, N. H.

Misses Minnie Maxwell and Marion Dana are attending the summer school at Randolph.

ORANGE.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cave spent Sunday at G. Y. Barnes'.

Mrs. E. P. Lord and her daughter Mrs. D. F. Winslow and little daughter Jennie, who have been spending a few days at J. L. Lord's returned to their home in East Brookfield, Mass., last Saturday. The many friends of Mrs. Lord were very much pleased to see her so well and comfortable.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lord are rejoicing over the birth of a son.

Merrill F. Wilds died at the home of G. J. Cook on July 27 aged seventy years and seven months. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. C. C. Lord of Groton and Mrs. E. G. Cook of this place.

Edna and Frank Beard attended church in East Orange Sunday morning.

Mrs. A. L. Noyes visited in Washington last week.

It is thought by many that the hay crop will be an average one, although somewhat late. A few have finished haying while some have not commenced.

Mrs. B. L. Richardson who has been seriously ill, has so far recovered as to be able to ride out.

Mrs. Martin Clement spent last week at E. G. Peak's.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Rev. Frances A. Kimball left on Tuesday of this week for her four weeks' vacation. Miss Marion Horsford of our high school department started for her old home in Charlotte, on Monday last.

Lucius Kinsman now of Beaver City, Nebraska, is enjoying his visit in this his home of fifty years ago, and more. He is about to go to Rutland for a week, to be the guest of his boyhood friend, Dr. Elom C. Lewis. It is said he may likely have his future home in Manitou, a suburb of Colorado Springs, Colorado.

It is claimed that in the late cold weather, we have had one or two very slight frosts.

Druggist George E. Adams of Fairhaven came to his old home here on Saturday last for a visit of some days. His meeting of his two brothers Wilbur F., of the State of Washington, and Rev. Carlos L., of Michigan, must be exceedingly pleasant.

Miss Julia Bass of East Somerville, Mass., is expected here soon, for her summer vacation.

Miss Edtih Carpenter, on the program of the recital, at the Universalist church last Monday evening, is a daughter of Will Carpenter of our mill village.

There was a well attended union service at the Congregational church last Sunday evening at which our former townsman Rev. Carlos L. Adams now of Howell, Mich., preached. His excellent sermon was closely listened to; it was good indeed to hear the grand old truths set forth in such earnest, forcible manner. We note with pleasure the growth of this comparatively young minister, of whom it can be said that he is "not a prophet without honor," in his own native town. At present he is located as a Methodist preacher in Howell, the county seat of Livingston County, Michigan, a place of some three thousand inhabitants, and distant, northwesterly, from Detroit, some forty miles. A son-in-law of Rev. Dr. A. L. Cooper of West Randolph, it is said Rev. Mr. Adams will be with him next Sunday.

In his nearby trip to Europe, Tracy L. Jeffreds is to accompany a distant relative, Moses R. Jefferds of New York city who is a civil engineer of more than national reputation. At present he is intressted in the construction of a railway in Russia, whither he will go after a stay in London, at the invitation of the Railway Reform Association there. Mr. Jefferds is a nephew of the late Moses Robinson of Northfield, his morther having been Caroline Robinson, of that town.

Ephraim Jr., and Mrs. Maude Dickinson Snow of Cohasset, Mass., were in town a few days ago. Mrs. Snow is a daughter of the late Dr. Gideon Dickinson.

Mrs. Henry J. Lasell plans to go to the Heaton hospital, Montpelier, to be with her mother, Mrs. Ophir S. Martin, and let her sister, Mrs. Irving Covell return home.

The death of three of our pensioners in late weeks stops the coming of $56 a month in pension money.

Our old townsman, Ex-Conductor Frank W. Flint, now a resident of Windsor, married a lady of that town on Tuesday last. Mr. Flint has a fine farm there on which he lives, and we congratulate him on this, let us hope—invaluable addition to his home.

Rev. Alven M. Smith is about to take a short vacation on the Maine coast, accompanied by friends in his parish.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ainsworh plan to take September, the last month of their stay in the east this season, in Claremont, N. H., Mr. Ainsworth's early home.

We understand that the only religious services in our village next Sunday, will be at the Congregational church, morning and evening. Everybody will be cordially welcomed at these services.

Mrs. James Bailey of Oneida, N. Y., plans to visit her mother, Mrs. Orcutt Abbott, of our village, sometime during this month. She is an ever weclome guest here.

Mrs. W. C. White has as a guest her mother from Middlesex, who is a daughter of our late townsman, Riley Whitney.

We are encouraged greatly by the possibiilty that the Comoli granite sheds may soon be purchased by a reliable party for additional granite business here.

Ashton, the little son of Augustus and Lucy Earle Holt of Barre city, is with his grandparents here. It was a fine compliment he unconsciously paid our pure air here when he said "he could breathe better than in Barre." If we only had the granite buisness we ought to have here the healthfulness of the place might bring others here from Barre, because they could "breathe better here."

Wallace Hunter plans to go to his old home in New Brunswick this week.

Bad Weather Sale

We have a "clearance sale" every summer, but never before have we had as many Suits to sell. The weather is responsible. The cold, damp days have played havoc with our business in Men's and Youth's Suits.

There are two reasons why we must get rid of our present stock;

1st, To make room for Fall Goods.
2nd, To get money to pay for them.

All of our Suits, with the exception of a few, of all the year round weight, are marked at cost or below.

Prices on this season's Suits.

We hear some warm praise bestowed on the recital at the Universalist church last Monday evening.

EAST MONTPELIER.

Mrs. A. R. Craig of Boston preached at the Evangelical church last Sunday moning and evening in the absence of the pastor.

Rev. Mr. Salmon preached at North Montpelier Sunday afternoon.

Miss Jessie Laird returned home from Bridgeport, Conn., on Saturday of last week.

Business is hustling on the camp ground these days, and any one wishing to contribute to a good cause in money or labor will be welcome there.

The camnmeeting will begin August 21 and hold over two Sundays.

OFF FOR NEWPORT.

President John H. Senter of the Vermont Bar Association, accompanied by Edward H. Deavitt, chairman of the committee of arrangements, and Clarence H. Senter of this city, J. P. Lamson of Cabot, and Allaud G. Fay and John W. Gordon of Barre left on Wednesday for Newport to attend the summer meeting of the association. It is expected that about 200 attorneys will be present. Monday evening there was a business meeting and reception, on Thursday a steamer ride down Lake Memhpermagog is planned and on Thursday evening President Senter will preside at a banquet at which Senator Proctor and Hon. Henry C. Ide will be among the speakers. Lieut-Gov. Stanton will go to Newport on Thursday.

AT THE CAMP GROUND.

Fort Ethan Allen, Aug. 5.—The advance details from the several companies of the Vermont National Guard reported yesterday at the State camp grounds for duty and before rain interfered with the work in the afternoon the grounds had been laid out and the tents of the staff and line officers had been erected. General Gilmore, Captain Miller, commissary, and Captain Hadley, quartermaster, are at the grounds and every preparation is being made for the reception of the regiment. W. E. Willard, the new commissary sergeant, began his duties yesterday. The State furnishes the food for the regiment this year the same as in the past two years and a liberal supply of substantial rations were issued yesterday. The details today laid out the company streets and will complete the preparations for the arrival of the regiment Thursday. The first companies to arrive will reach the grounds in the vicinity of nine o'clock and the remainder will come during the day. There will probably be no drills Thursday, with the possible exception of dress parade and guard mount. Friday morning the regular routine will be begun. It is understood that the drills this year will vary somewhat from those of previous years and include practice marches, drills in erecting the shelter tents and other movements with which the regiment is not familiar.

Excursion to Fort St. Frederick. See advertisement on page eight.

BAD SMASH IN STOCKS.

New York, Aug. 5.—Stocks received a bad smash at the opening of market this morning, caused by heavy liquidation and bear drives and in the first half hour semi-panicky conditions prevailed. All stocks suffered alike. U P, South Pacific, and R I made new low records. When the situation seemed most alarming, big interests stepped in with supporting orders and the slump was stayed. The failure of Sharp and Bryan was announced on exchange early in the forenoon.

New York, Aug. 5—Sharp and Bryan's liabilties are five millions.

MUSIC KINDERGARTEN.

Miss Stella Crandall's kindergarten music class gave a pretty exhibition at the parish house on Saturday afternoon in which some of the methods of instruction were shown, and the work accomplished by the children. The papils range in age from five to eight years.

The program consisted of tone and rythm songs and gymnastics by the two classes and a tone story by Verna Stebbins, a rythm story by Ruth Robinson, "Life of John Bach" by Ernest Niles and a motion song by Rachel Wheelock, Marjory Smith, Verna Stebbins and Marguerita Kellogg. Owing to some of the members of the classes being ill and on their vacations the full number, fourteen, was not present.

The public will have another opportunity to observe the work of the children, result of their two lessons a week, at an exhibition to be given in the fall. The members of the classes are: class A—Doris Archer, Henry Colton, George Goodwin, Emily Hopkins, Ernest Niles and Ruth Robinson; class B—Chandler Brown, Raymond Colton, Horace Moss, Verna Stebbins, Rachel Wheelock, Will Farwell, Marguerita Kellogg and Marjory Smith.

HUMAN TARGETS.

London, Aug. 4.—A message from St. Petersburg to a Trieste journal is quoted by the Vienna correspondent of The Times. The dispatch states that Prince Urusoff, who was recently wounded by peasants whom his cruelty had exasperated, has become insane. The Prince was in the habit, like some French noblemen before 1789, of testing his marksmanship upon the bodies of peasants.

As an instance of the insubordination of the police at Kishineff, which has been a consequence of the massacre there, it is stated that a policeman recently attacked with a sabre the head of the police force, who had reprimanded him for neglect of duty. The Croatians domiciled in the United States who recently forwarded an address to Emperor Francis Joseph have also contrived to present to the Czar a petition describing the condition of Croatia in the darkest terms. Unlike his treatment of the Kishineff petition the Czar is said to have received the Croatian petition with benevolence.

B. T. WASHINGTON HISSED

Boston, July 31.—An attempt on the part of half a dozen colored persons opposed to the Rev. Booker T. Washington, president of Tuskegee, to ask questions at a meeting he was addressing Thursday night at the Zion church, resulted in almost a riot. Twenty-five policeman were called to quell the disturbance. Several arrests were made. One policeman received a deep stab from a hat pin, while a man, said to be one of those opposed to Mr. Washington, received several razor cuts and is now in the hospital. After the arrests, Mr. Washington continued his address. It is said that the disturbance was prearranged. After the meeting W. M. Trotter, one of those arrested, and his friends, admitted that they went there with the idea of asking Mr. Washington a number of questions and to resent any attack that might be made on the New England representatives of the recent Afro-American council at Louisville.

DROWNED.

Manchester, Aug. 3.—Clarence S. Gannon of Manchester, a youth of nineteen years, was drowned in Lake Massaebsic near Deerhead bridge, Saturday afternoon. Yonug Gannon and a friend, Frank H. P. Clement, were out canoeing, when the frail craft upset. Clement could swim a little, and succeeded in getting hold of the canoe, while his companion went down before help could reach him.

FUGITIVE CONVICTS.

Folsom, Cal., July 30.—A posse had a brush with the fugitive Folsom convicts on Greenwood creek, and a number of shots were exchanged, but so far as can be learned nobody was hurt. The convicts avoided a decisive encounter and are supposed now to be working back in the general direction of Coloma.

WATCHMAN FOUND DEAD.

Burlington, Aug. 4. — William O'Brien, who for the past fourteen years has been engaged as night watchman on the steamer Chateaugay, was found dead on the floor of the oil room at 7:30 o'clock Sunday night while the boat was lying at the Westport dock. Death was due to heart disease, to which he was subject. He lived in Plattsburgh.

PRICE OF BEEF RAISED.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 4.—It is reported here that the packing houses will immediately raise the price of fresh beef throughout the country. Already the raise has taken effect in a number of Western cities and is expected to reach New York and the East within two weeks.

This raise comes in the face of the reduction in the price of cattle and in spite of the heavy run of range cattle which is due within the next two weeks and which always reduces the market price of live stock still further. No change is contemplated on other meats than beef.

It is significant of an understanding among the packers that the raise in prices is being made simultaneously by all the packing houses.

ARMY BRUTE PUNISHED.

Berlin, Aug. 5.—A court martial held at Metez convicted a non-commissioned officer named Dunkel on 366 counts for maltreating private soldiers at Moerchingen, Lorraine. Dunkel was sentenced to two years and a half in prison and degradation to the ranks. Five hundred and seventy-six instances of brutality, all occurring since last December, were cited. The evidence showed that one of his punishments was to compel a soldier to run full tilt across a room and ram his head against a wardrobe. The inquiry was started by the suicide of one of the maltreated men.

SIX TRAINMEN KILLED.

Somerset, Ky., Aug. 3.—Through a misunderstanding of orders two Queen and Crescent freight trains, both double-headers, collided head on Saturday night between Cumberland Falls and Greenwood, killing six men and seriously injuring two others. The bodies were recovered of Fireman Joseph Phillips, Frank Fletcher and Water Walters and an unknown man who was stealing a ride. The dead bodies of two brakemen are known to be buried under the debris where forty cars were wrecked. Engineers Duke and Fitzgerald were seriously injured.

MANILA HEALTHY AGAIN.

Washington, August 5.—Advices from Manila state that both cholera and small pox have been eradicated from that city after a long campaign, during which the victims numbered several thousand.

A MURDERER LYNCHED.

Asotin, Wash., Aug. 5.—A band of masked men reinforced by a mob of a thousand people, lynched William Hamilton, a well to do white farmer, early this morning. Hamilton, last Sunday, assaulted and then murdered the thirteen year old daughter of Sheriff Richards of Asotin county.
