

Teachers of cookery must have the best. Their work demands perfection, especially in baking. They cannot take chances with a baking powder that will raise today and fail tomorrow. That is why they use Cleveland's in their work. They know that it is pure and sure. Housewives everywhere will recognize the value of such commendation.

PLAINFIELD.

P. P. Kellogg of Worcester spent Sunday in town. Frank Burbrick, who went to Maine to attend the funeral of his brother, who was recently killed, returned on Saturday.

Rev. A. M. Smith was called to Bethel to attend a funeral on Tuesday.

Dr. B. B. Smith visited his brother, Marcus, in Williamstown on Wednesday.

Mrs. L. F. Fortney and Mrs. D. B. Smith were in Barre on Saturday.

F. C. Bancroft is moving into the James Martin house and Quincy Ferry will occupy the tenement of L. F. Fortney on School street.

One of the fine pair of horses recently purchased by S. N. Beaulac is very sick. Mr. Beaulac is hoping to save the animal as it is very valuable.

Children's Sunday was observed at the Methodist church on Sunday with songs and speaking by the children. Everyone likes to hear the little ones and the audience showed that Plainfield people are not the exception.

John Ryan was called to New York recently by the illness of his mother.

George Bliss of Marshfield was in town on Monday.

T. P. Bartlett is adding much to the looks of his house by putting on a new piazza, painting and other repairs.

Mrs. Bert Wells and Miss Elsie Warren were in Montpelier on Friday. Sadie Sleeper of Chelsea is visiting at Arthur Prescott's.

Lena Knapp, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Knapp, burned her hands severely on Friday. Her mother had just taken a boiler of hot water from the stove when the little girl put both hands in it scalding her very badly.

F. J. Bancroft, who has been at the Plainfield House for the past week, returned to his home in Pawtucket R. I., on Friday.

The Republican voters are requested to meet at town hall on Saturday for the purpose of electing two delegates to the State convention to be held in Montpelier on June 30, and two delegates to the district convention to be held June 29.

Forty-one tickets were sold to those attending the Walter L. Main show at Montpelier on Monday.

The school year closes this week Friday.

Among those who attended the Universalist convention last week were: Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Smith, Dr. D. B. Smith, Mrs. C. L. Martin, Mrs. Arch. Bachelder, Misses Jane and Abbie Clark, Miss Elsie Warren and Rev. and Mrs. L. F. Fortney.

Frank Gale and wife, who are now in Massachusetts, have been at their old home in Orange visiting at the home of Smith Martyn last week. They made the whole trip with their family in an automobile.

Col. A. C. Brown of Montpelier will be the guest of Miss Elsie Warren on Friday and in the evening will give an illustrated lecture on the Yellowstone Park at the Methodist church. No admission will be charged. Col. Brown has given this lecture in several towns and the public is assured of a treat.

S. D. Baker went to the Heaton Hospital on Wednesday for treatment.

Rev. R. L. Sheaff and J. W. Butterfield will represent the Congregational church at the State convention in St. Johnsbury to be held on Thursday. Mr. Sheaff left on Tuesday.

George Raymond and wife of Barre were in town on Saturday.

Rev. Alvin M. Smith was in northern Vermont and Province of Quebec last week on business connected with his State superintendency of the Universalist churches. On June 29 and 30 he will attend the State Convention of Woman Suffrage which meets at Woodstock.

M. H. Eddy of St. Johnsbury was in town on Monday.

Mrs. Mark Mears is quite ill. C. A. Smith of Montpelier was in town on business on Tuesday.

Mrs. Sadie Rosebrook goes to Greensboro this week to again take up the position she has filled for several seasons as cook in the Lake View House.

Charles Hulbert of South Ryegate was a visitor in town on Tuesday.

Miss Josephine Nute is visiting in Burlington.

Mrs. L. D. Nute was called to Cabot for a day or two the first of the week on account of the illness of her daughter, Miss Lou Miller, who is teaching the village school.

B. B. Brown of Willimantic, Conn., a former resident, is a visitor in town and is stopping with Forrest Walker.

William Marshall of Hardwick accompanied by his mother, who lives in Barre, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Smith.

P. T. Kellogg of Whitefield, N. H., is spending the week in town looking after his several business interests in and about here.

Mrs. Lucinda Lyford died Tuesday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Rosette Wilson, after a brief illness resulting from a paralytic shock.

M. E. Beckley was in Groton on Tuesday looking after details in connection with the extension of the Peoples' telephone system from Peacham to that place.

Remember Cole, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Cole and daughters, Eleanor and Florence, were with friends in Wolcott over Sunday.

Mrs. G. B. Nichols and daughter, aaidine, have returned from their winter's sojourn with the son and brother, M. G. Nichols, in the south.

I. O. Ricker of Groton was a caller in town on Monday.

Rev. F. W. Buck preached in Danville on Sunday in exchange with Rev. C. G. Corse.

Remember the caucus at the town house on Saturday evening and that the hour of meeting is 8 o'clock.

A. W. Blake returned the last of the week from a visit in Orange and Corinth.

Rev. Winnifred Eddy and Miss Shattuck have been in town the last few days engaged in packing their house furniture. It is understood that Rev. Eddy has closed her pastorate at the Congregational church here.

Considerable expense and labor has been involved in laying out and improving the grounds in front of the Knights of Pythias building and it is especially requested of the public that passing over them be avoided.

"We are offering a standard article of first necessity, to all people and we offer it at the same price to the workman as we do to the millionaire." "What is it?" Ask A. T. Davis, special agent for the New York Life Insurance Co.

Marshfield Stars played their first game of the season with the Cabot team at Cabot Friday afternoon and were defeated by a score of seven to fifteen. The game was practically lost by errors in fielding and throwing the ball, showing that considerable practice was necessary in this respect.

The batting average was rather better than that of the Cabot team.

During the heavy shower on Wednesday afternoon of last week lightning struck the dwelling of Edgar A. Lamberton causing considerable damage to one chimney, stove and stove-pipe, but did not set fire to the building. No one was at home at the time excepting Mr. Lamberton who was not injured at all by the shock.

W. F. Stevens of Barre is in town for a week and during his stay will make some practical demonstrations of the work done by the International Correspondence School of which he is the representative.

Mrs. Nelson Kelley is at work for George Baldwin.

A. P. Wortten is having his barn shingled, also Ira Lowe is having his house shingled. J. A. Goodell and K. Thurston are doing the work.

John Vermont has bought a place and has moved to the village.

Miss Mae Eaton is keeping house for W. E. Corlies.

Mrs. Harvey Hood of East Topsham was in town one day last week selling ball-bearing shears.

Edna Marston of Windsor was in town one day to see his cousin, Viola Fowler, on his way to East Topsham to see his sister, Mrs. Fox.

WATERBURY.

About 200 tickets were sold at this station on Monday for Montpelier to those attending the Walter S. Main big show.

Mrs. G. F. Miles, Mrs. P. S. Lewis and Miss Lewis of Middlesex were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Campbell last week.

H. C. Gearin of Brockton was in town on Sunday, the guest of E. E. Campbell.

Frank Dow spent Sunday in St. Albans.

M. C. Kennedy was in Burlington on Friday on business.

Miss Ida Morton of Morrisville has been the guest of Miss Conant for several days.

Earle Hill of Richmond was in town on Sunday.

The graduating exercises of the high school were held on Wednesday evening. The class consisted of three members, Miss Ellen S. Childs, Miss Caroline L. E. Keene, Miss Mary H. Manning. Each of the class read an essay, the subjects being as follows: Miss Childs, "In Fields and Woods;" Miss Keene, "Tennyson, As Revealed in His Poetry;" Miss Manning, "Lake Champlain." Miss Childs took the highest honor in scholarship.

The program, aside from the essays consisted of vocal and instrumental music. Rev. F. B. Kellogg presented the diplomas on Thursday evening. The class had a reception to the class that was very fully attended and was a credit to those having the affair in charge.

C. C. Warner and son will go to New York this week for a two weeks' trip.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. White went to Ferrisburg last week to attend a reunion of the Ball family. Sixty were present to attend the banquet.

Mrs. Ina Hinsdale, who has been visiting her mother in town, has returned to her home in Williston.

In a very closely contested game of ball played on Saturday the Waterbury team succeeded in taking the scalp of Richmond to the tune of 12 to 11.

The Misses Duell of Richmond spent Sunday at their home.

George Montgomery, who came to bury his mother, returned to North Dakota on Monday.

The funeral of Mrs. Ephraim Foss was held on Friday. Mrs. Foss was the mother of the late Jacob Foss who lived in this town. Among those who attended were Blanchard Montgomery and wife, Edgar Foss and wife and Edward Demas.

Joseph Hutchinson was obliged to destroy his horse last week. This horse was thirty-nine years old and has been on the streets in Waterbury for twenty-five years.

Frank Rogers was unfortunate in having 117 young chickens killed by a dog on Sunday. A man who owns a sheep dog is unfortunate enough, but a chicken dog is the limit.

The committee on by-laws, consisting of E. W. Bisbee of Barre, C. H. Lowe of Montpelier, and L. C. Moody of Waterbury, met at the club house on Lake Mansfield on Saturday. The by-laws were revised and will be published. The directors met at the same time and new house rules and regulations were adopted.

Miss Hannah Brown of the hospital is on a two weeks' vacation in Boston.

Mrs. T. B. Crosse and Miss Julia Taft are in Providence visiting for a few days.

Miss Weltha Boeker went to Burlington on Monday to attend the musical festival.

Children's Sunday was observed at the churches with appropriate exercises.

Miss Nellie Chase returned from Rutland on Saturday.

The following letters are awaiting claimants at the post-office: Eddie L. Perkins, Frank McGinnis, Harry Gitchell, Rev. Fr. Penders.

There will be a special meeting of Winoski lodge, F. and A. M., on Wednesday evening. The second degree will be conferred.

The Rebekahs will hold a whist party at W. J. Boyce's on Tuesday evening.

Leonard Hall was arraigned before Justice Fullerton last week for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquor. After conferring with his council he thought best to enter a plea of guilty. He was fined $300 and costs amounting to $10.10 which he paid. L. C. Moody appeared for the State, G. W. Morse for respondent.

The Marquis De Lafayette Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held their last meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. C. O. Warren Friday afternoon. About thirty members were present. A party of ladies drove down from Montpelier in a trolley. After a business meeting the following literary and musical program was given: Cornet solo, "Violets," Wright, Charles Warren; "Governors of American Revolution," Mrs. Demeritt; "Thomas Chittenden, on Appreciation," Mrs. Palmer; "Jonathan Trumbull," Mrs. Robinson; solo, "Whisper and I Shall Hear," with violin and cornet obbligato, M. Piccolomini, Mrs. Demeritt; "Martyrs of the Revolution," Mrs. Haines; "Nathan Hale," poem, Mrs. Knight; violin and cornet duet, "Amanda Waltz," Vanderville, and "America," Harold Atkins and Charles Warren. The program refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Jerry Haskins of Moretown was accidentally shot in the neck while handling a revolver Thursday morning. The bullet passed through the back part of his neck but it is hoped that the wound will not prove fatal. Dr. Jones dressed the wound.

WEST BRADFORD.

Miss Nettie Shumway of West Fairlee is at her brother's, Charlie Shumway's, for a few weeks.

At the business meeting of the Epworth League Society held Thursday evening the following officers were elected for the next six months: President, Mrs. Clara Sargent; first vice-president, H. H. Fullerton; second vice-president, Miss Julia Taft; third vice-president, Miss Ola Towle; fourth vice-president, Miss Belle Round; secretary, Miss Wheelock; assistant secretary, E. T. Houston; treasurer, Miss Rosa Gibson.

Dean Pixley met with a painful accident Friday afternoon while at work on Blodwin & Fife's stone shed. He caught the fourth finger on his right hand between two blocks of granite, severing it so it hung only by the skin. He was taken to Dr. Jones' office, who dressed the wound. He hopes to save the finger.

BARTON.

Mrs. Jennie Hibbard is visiting in Barre and Montpelier.

Fred Alchurk has returned to his work in Winsted, Conn.

Amos Robinson attended the meeting of the gun club in Montpelier last week.

Arthur Buswell has been assigned a position as mail agent.

L. P. Carrier, an experienced printer, has come to fill the position vacated by W. B. Bullock in the Monitor office.

C. H. Brook of the Monitor office spent Sunday at his home at St. Johnsbury Center.

Clayton Warner started on Monday for Arlington, Va., where he will spend his vacation with his grandparents.

A. P. Underwood, who is superintending in the Peeries factory, has moved his family here, occupying the tenement vacated by W. B. Bullock.

J. C. Burke, Esq., and family have come to occupy their home recently purchased of F. W. Cutting. Mr. Burke's father and mother will reside with him.

Rev. L. H. Elliott, agent for the Vermont Bible Society, spoke to a union audience at the Methodist church last Sunday morning.

Rev. W. A. Warner preached the baccalaureate sermon at Bradford Academy last Sunday.

Several members of Orient Chapter, O. E. S., attended the State convention at St. Johnsbury last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Baldwin and Rev. W. A. Warner attended the State convention of Congregational churches at St. Johnsbury this week.

Capt. Paine and family passed through Barton last week on their way to Fox Hall.

The grammar school base ball defeated the Lyndonville team last Saturday, the score being 26 to 25.

Children's Day was observed at the Methodist church last Sunday evening; the exercises by the children, assisted by the choir, were very pleasing.

The Barton village base ball team played an interesting game with Island Pond last Thursday, defeating them by a score of 11 to 8.

A merry party, consisting of G. Fred Wheeler with his gun club of boys and girls, spent last week at Wiloughby Lake. Mrs. C. W. Tenney and Mrs. S. B. Gilo acted as chaperone for the girls, who occupied Mrs. Tenney's cottage.

The Orleans County Fair Association is preparing for a big Fourth of July celebration at Roaring Brook Park.

The village baker and the photographer went fishing one morning this week. The former, Harry Graves, caught forty and the latter, E. A. Wolcott, sixty fine trout.

Mrs. G. C. Lang is attending the Viavi convention in Manchester, N. H.

CABOT.

Dr. Kent and E. J. Badger of Barre were in town on a fishing trip last Thursday.

Wavie Morse who has been working in Philadelphia was in town last Thursday.

The Republican State and district caucuses will be held in the town hall Thursday night, June 16, at 7:30 o'clock.

W. E. Hawes and wife of Barre are visiting his son, G. J. Hawes, for a few days.

Cabot ball team defeated the Marshfield last Friday in a good game. Score 15 to 7.

Lucius Cole and wife of East Hardwick were in town last Saturday.

J. T. Drew has unloaded a car of drain tile at Walden station and will have all sizes on hand at his store in Cabot.

Theodore Woods has purchased C. A. Jondros' farm in Walden.

Mrs. Nellie English and her sister, Bertha Swerdfeger, have gone to East Northfield, Mass., to attend the commencement exercises of the Moody school.

Mrs. Ina Rogers has gone to Enosburg Falls.

W. B. Lance is attending the Grand Lodge of F. and A. M. at Burlington this week.

L. C. Fisher was in Montpelier last Friday.

The Cabot ball team will play the East Hardwick on Cabot ground Saturday, June 23.

Rev. C. D. Lance of Sheffield visited his parents a few days this week.

Miss Lou Miller was taken sick last Monday and was unable to teach her school for a few days.

Mrs. M. D. Warren, who has been stopping in Peacham and Conway, N. H., was at home this week.

Harry Howard, the "Drummer Boy of the Potomac," gave his entertainment in the town hall last Saturday night. If applause is a demonstration of the qualities of an entertainment it must have been a very good one.

Dr. H. G. Williams was in Montpelier last Monday.

N. D. Lyford and C. H. Rogers are doing a job of painting in South Woodbury.

The Cabot creamery furnishes the following report for the past month: Milk received, 401,441 lbs.; cream, 30,029 lbs.; total 431,463; total fat test, 25,001; butter made, 28,286; gain 18 per cent; highest test, milk, 5.70, cream, 27; lowest test, milk, 3.30, cream, 15.50; average 4.87; cream 90.82; paid, 18 cents churning test or 90.1-8 oil test; cost of making 1.90 per lb.

RANDOLPH.

Miss Cora Noble left here on Tuesday for Bethel to spend the summer months with her father, W. C. Noble.

Jackson Vail and Fred Copeland have gone for a few days' fishing trip at Lake Mitchell, Sharon.

Mrs. Henry Pope of Springfield has arrived in town and will spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pope.

Rev. and Mrs. Homer White and Rev. Albert Carwell are in St. Albans attending the Episcopal diocesan convention. Rev. and Mrs. White will go the latter part of the week to Enosburg Falls where they will spend several days with relatives.

Mrs. Harriet Burnap, who has been passing a few weeks with her parents, Deacon and Mrs. Wilbur Howard has gone to her home in Fitchburg, Mass.

Edgar Salisbury and family will spend the greater part of the summer at the Salisbury cottage in Greensboro.

The warning for the annual school meeting has been posted and the meeting will be held in the high school rooms Tuesday evening, June 21.

E. A. Shattuck left here on Monday for Highgate Springs, where he will spend several days on a fishing trip.

Mrs. J. J. Gifford went to Burlington on Tuesday to attend the musical.

Miss Edith Campbell of Barre arrived in town Saturday and is spending a few days with her brother, Edward Campbell.

Prof. Leroy Mann of the Thayer school of civil engineering was in town the first of the week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Varney left here on Monday for Lincoln to spend a few weeks with relatives.

SOUTH CORINTH.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huntington spent Saturday and Sunday in Barre and Washington with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Wilson and Rob Wilson and Emma Thurston spent Tuesday at Fairlee Lake and Post Mills.

Will Munn from Lancaster, Mass., is in town. He made the trip on his motor bicycle, a new machine in this vicinity. His sister, Mary Munn, is also here at P. E. Norris'.

Married at Piermont, N. H., June 8, Clarence Morse and Della Sleeper both of Corinth. A reception was held on the eve of June 15, at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morse.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Bond and son of North Thetford were at C. A. Washburn's last Wednesday night.

Mrs. Elizabeth Robie and Mrs. C. M. Parker are in Barre and Berlin, N. H. for a month's stay.

HORN OF THE MOON.

Curtis Clark is moving to his farm in Moretown.

Miss Belle Dillon has gone to Barre.

Daniel Richards, brother of Mrs. Bertie Jacobs, did last week, and was busy in the Lewis cemetery.

Legal Notices.

ESTATE OF OTIS AINSWORTH. DISTRICT OF VERMONT.

In Probate Court, held at Montpelier, in and for said District, on the 11th day of June, A. D. 1904.

Herman C. DeBruine, administrator of the estate of OTIS AINSWORTH, late of Calais, in said District, deceased, makes application to said Court, with the consent and approval of the widow and heirs of said deceased, reading in full the will of said deceased, situated in Calais, in said District, to wit: first mill land connected therewith, also about forty-five acres of tillage and woodland, representing the estate of said deceased, and the interest in said estate, in order to convert said real estate into money.

Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court, that said application be referred to a hearing thereon, to be held at the Probate office, in said Montpelier, on the 16th day of July, A. D. 1904, for hearing and decision thereon; and, it is further ordered that all persons interested be notified hereby, publication of notice of said application and order thereon three weeks successively in the VERMONT WATCHMAN and STATE JOURNAL, a newspaper published at Montpelier, in this State, previous to said time appointed for hearing, that they may appear at said time, and show cause, if any they may have, why said application should not be allowed, and such decree made thereon.

By the Court—Attest. HIRAM CARLETON, Judge.

ESTATE OF WALTER B. PAINE. DISTRICT OF VERMONT.

In Probate Court, held at Montpelier, in and for said District, on the 13th day of June, A. D. 1904.

Joseph G. Brown, Administrator of the estate of WALTER B. PAINE, late of Montpelier, in said District, deceased, presents his administration account for examination and allowance and makes application for a decree of distribution and partition of the estate of said deceased.

Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court that said account and application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate Office, in said Montpelier, on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1904, for hearing and decision thereon; and, it is further ordered that all persons interested be notified hereby, publication of the same three weeks successively in the VERMONT WATCHMAN and STATE JOURNAL, a newspaper published at Montpelier, in this State, previous to said time appointed for hearing, that they may appear at said time, and show cause, if any they may have, why said account should not be allowed, and such decree made thereon.

By the Court—Attest. HIRAM CARLETON, Judge.

NOTICE OF FIRST MEETING OF CREDITORS. In the District of the United States, for the District of Vermont, in Bankruptcy.

In the matter of DENNIS FOLSOM, bankrupt.

To the creditors of O. DENNIS FOLSOM, of Marshfield, in the County of Washington, and District of Vermont, who have filed a petition in bankruptcy, and who have been appointed trustee of said bankrupt, notice is hereby given that on the 6th day of June, A. D. 1904, the said O. DENNIS FOLSOM was duly adjudicated bankrupt; and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at the office of the undersigned, Room No. 6, U. S. Postoffice Building, Montpelier, on the 23rd day of June, A. D. 1904, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors may appear, file their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

EDWARD H. DEAVITT, Trustee in Bankruptcy. Montpelier, Vt., June 9, 1904.

NOTICE OF FIRST MEETING OF CREDITORS. In the District of the United States, for the District of Vermont, in Bankruptcy.

In the matter of JESSE C. DEBRUNE, bankrupt.

To the creditors of JESSE C. DEBRUNE, of the City of Barre, in the County of Washington, and District of Vermont, who have filed a petition in bankruptcy, and who have been appointed trustee of said bankrupt, notice is hereby given that on the 5th day of June, A. D. 1904, the said JESSE C. DEBRUNE was duly adjudicated bankrupt; and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at the office of the undersigned, Room No. 6, U. S. Postoffice Building, Montpelier, on the 23rd day of June, A. D. 1904, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors may appear, file their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

Mrs. S. C. Jackson has returned from a week's stay at William Maloy's and A. C. Templeton's in East Montpelier.

Mrs. E. R. Plaisted and Mrs. Will Berry, from Montpelier, have been spending a few days with their grandmother, Mrs. Ann Dillon.

Mrs. Emma Wilson is at work at W. H. Sanders. Mrs. Sanders is having an attack of sciatic rheumatism.

NORTH MONTPELIER.

The ladies circle will have a strawberry festival at the vestry on Thursday evening, June 16, entertainment to consist of music and "The Old Maid's Tea Party."

Miss Bernice Butterfield of Walpole, Mass., is expected at J. W. Butterfield's this week to attend the graduation exercises at Goddard.

Miss Inez Pierce of East Calais has been visiting at Mrs. Jule Hollister's the past week.

Miss Blanche Moorcroft returned to her home in Barre last Saturday.

Mr. George Kelton returned last week from