

Cleveland's Baking Powder makes the food light, healthful and delicious. More people every day are pushing out the inferior brands, using Cleveland's. The price which people pay for the cheap baking powders is doubled by the food which such cheap baking powders spoil.

RARTON LANDING.

Wallace Gilpin of this place took the first gentlemen's prize at the prize speaking at Montpelier Seminary last week.

The military band have an engagement at Barton July 4, and will assist in furnishing the music for that day and occasion.

Robert R. Edson is enjoying a week's vacation going to Marshfield last Saturday and from there to Montpelier to visit his brother, Dean. He goes to Northfield by invitation of a great-aunt to enjoy the commencement exercises of Norwich University and visit other relatives in that town.

The building committee on the new village hall comprising A. D. Mathews, C. H. Jones and E. C. Skinner have called for bids for the building the same said bids to be opened June 25.

A. D. Beede, past master of Valley Lodge, F. and A. M., has been appointed grand pursuivant of the Grand Lodge, F. and A. M. of Vermont.

The two new houses being built near the Methodist church by H. W. Buchanan are fast gaining shape and will make a fine addition to that street.

The return game of base ball between the Newport and Barton Landing was played on Saturday here, resulting in a victory for the latter; 15 to 14.

The post-office was moved into its new quarters last Saturday and will be a great improvement over its old quarters, with a room expressly for its own use nicely sheathed with spruce finished in the natural wood and a good hard wood floor.

Dr. Parlin returned last Friday from a two weeks' vacation camping out. The doctor has been in need of this rest and comes back greatly improved for his busy work.

Children's Sunday was observed at the Methodist church last Sunday when a full house greeted the little ones who made a decided success in their endeavors. The motto "Cooling Stream" was over the opening in the rear of the platform where a real fountain was playing surrounded by evergreens nicely representing the shaded wood. The speaking and singing was nicely rendered and was augmented by the vocal songsters hanging in each of the windows. A short address by the pastor comparing the running water to the "water of life" was very appropriate. It was a beautiful day and a beautiful service.

REV. MR. TAPPER OF CRAFTSBURY

preached in the Congregational church last Sunday on exchange with Rev. Mr. Lyman.

Colby Stoddard and bride returned last Friday from a short wedding trip.

Wallace Sawyer, a former member of the band, now of Milburn, Mass., is visiting with his wife at her parents', Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Brennan's. Mrs. Sawyer has been here several weeks.

The Republican voters of the town will hold their caucus at Seaver's hall, Barton, Friday, June 24, at 8 o'clock p. m., to elect five delegates to attend the district convention at Montpelier, June 29; to elect five delegates to attend the State convention June 30 also to elect nine delegates to attend the county convention at Barton on Saturday, July 2.

Wallace Gilpin is stopping in town a few days; he will make his home in Montpelier for the present.

HARDWICK

Married, Wednesday, June 15, 1904, at the home of the bride's parents in South Strafford, Miss Rose M. Gilkey and Frank T. Taylor of Hardwick.

Rev. Mr. Forsythe of Middlebury performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will take a trip to New York and Washington, returning here July 1. They will be at home after July 6. Miss Gilkey has taught in the academy here for several years.

The annual school picnic will be held Saturday, June 25, in Albee's grove, East Hardwick.

The fire company was called out on Monday about noon to extinguish a fire in the woods directly back of the Woodbury Granite Co.'s sheds.

Friday evening, June 24, Miss Gertrude Lawson will give a recital in the opera house, assisted by Miss Charlotte Nason, pianist.

Miss Alice Kimball and Miss Kate Mack are at home from the State normal school at Johnson. Miss Mack has secured a position as teacher in the graded school at Saxton's River.

Quite a large number of people from this place attended the Main streets at St. Johnsbury, last week Wednesday.

Mrs. Carrie Angell died on Sunday, June 19, after an illness of several months.

LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

Ballston, N. Y., June 21.—Frank Meronrio this morning pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree for killing William Wycks and was sentenced to Dannemora prison for life.

MARSHFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank White were in Barnet Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Abijah Bemis were guests of friends in Williamstown over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Severance spent a part of the past week with their daughter, Mrs. Warren Fifield.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newton were called to Woodstock last week by the death of a relative.

Frank Brown Jr. was in St. Johnsbury a part of the past week to attend commencement exercises at St. Johnsbury Academy.

The local base ball team has arranged for a game with the East Hardwick team at East Hardwick, Saturday, June 25.

Master Frederick Shepard of Montpelier is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Shepard.

O. L. Preston and son, with R. R. Ide, is building a barn for A. P. Davis.

W. D. Smith and family of Springfield, Mass., are enjoying their annual vacation with friends here and in Cabot.

S. Swerdfefer is building an addition to his storage barn near the station.

Workmen have commenced upon a dam for P. T. Kellogg on the land which he purchased of F. White and O. W. Freeman. When completed it will be about fifteen feet high and flow about six acres with water. C. I. Preston and son have the contract to build the wood work for this dam.

This is the first of a series of dams to be built along the Molly brook for the corporation which Mr. Kellogg represents.

At the Republican caucus Saturday evening last week A. T. Davis was chosen chairman and G. L. Dwinell secretary. J. Berton Pike, S. Swerdfefer and Harry Martin were elected delegates to the district convention, and G. L. Dwinell, E. W. Pitkin and E. P. Whitcomb delegates to the State convention, delegates in both cases empowered to name their own alternates, and unopposed as to candidates they should support. A ballot taken to see what the preference for the several candidates for Governor might be among those present showed two for Bell, six for DeBoer and seven for Stanton. The town committee elected for two years next ensuing is as follows: G. L. Dwinell, A. T. Davis, J. B. Pike, Lee Lane, E. W. Pitkin.

Asa Spencer is reported as failing rapidly and requires almost constant attention and care; on this account E. V. Spencer has engaged Liverlyman G. F. Bliss to carry the mail for him for a while.

Herbert Ellis is again in charge of the mail on the route from Danville to this place.

"I don't care how much a man talks if he only sez it in a few words."—Josh Billings. We believe that in a few words we can make plain to you the superior merits of the New York Life Insurance Co. Let us talk that matter over with you before you place your business. A. T. Davis, special agent.

VERSHIRE.

Miss Bertha Cross came home last Saturday.

The W. C. T. U., meets next Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Henry Spear.

Miss Ella Waterman, formerly a teacher here, spent last Sunday with friends in town. She is now teaching in Post Mills.

Mrs. Daniel Thayer is visiting at Mr. Martin's.

Dr. Chase of Orford was in town last week as counsel in the case of Mrs. Barstow, who is attended by Dr. Jewell of West Fairlee.

Mr. Ford had the misfortune to lose a valuable cow the first of the week.

Children's Day was observed at the Congregational church, June 12.

Mrs. Little returned on Monday from a visit of several weeks with her parents.

Miss Lois Goodwin has returned from Newbury where she has been attending school.

P. H. Martin and family have moved back from the mill house to their former residence, accompanied by his father, Mr. S. H. Martin. They have begun repairs on their buildings.

Agnes Brown of Washington has been a recent guest of Mrs. Warren Fuller.

Mr. Mason read a fine sermon at the church last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barstow of Bradford were at his home this last Sunday.

The Advent Christian conference which met with the church here closed Sunday evening, June 13, with an address by Rev. Mr. Kelley of Biddeford, Me.

CALAIS.

J. O. Livingston and M. A. Kent of Montpelier were in town one day last week.

Mrs. Iran Vail visited at N. L. Bancroft's last week.

New England telephones were installed in the homes of E. E. Brown, M. S. Hathaway and the cottage of Prof. O. C. Gallagher last week, and others will be installed soon.

Dr. Wheeler of North Montpelier was in town Monday in his new automobile.

We noted the marriage of Miss Rose H. Gilkey to Frank T. Taylor of Hardwick, as at one time we almost considered her a Calais girl. Her work as teacher in our schools was very satisfactory as she brought the work of the school to a high standard. We were very sorry when she decided to leave for other fields and her friends here tender them congratulations and best wishes.

MORETOWN COMMON.

Rena Fay of Richmond is visiting at F. W. Somers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarty of Lakewood, N. J., and Mrs. George Wheeler of Montpelier were the guests of Mrs. Bridget Honan, Thursday.

W. R. Chase returned from Essex on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Foster visited at E. A. Foster's on Sunday.

Henry Bates of Richmond was in town the past week Mrs. Albert Douglas is ill.

SOUTH RYEGATE.

Peach Thomas loaded forty-one hogs and ten calves here last Tuesday morning. He paid 4 1/2c per pound for hogs.

Dr. S. W. Darling went to Lowell, Mass., on Tuesday morning to attend the graduation of his daughter, Thessie.

Ten foreigners went to St. Johnsbury on Tuesday to take out their naturalization papers.

SODOM.

Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Mathers visited in Barre the first of the week.

William Mathers of Connecticut, visited his brother, Isiah Mathers, last week and is to build a mill in East Montpelier on Charles Hamlin's farm and move there.

Mrs. H. E. Templeton of Montpelier spent a part of last week at G. A. Newton's.

Katie Dailey is with her grandmother in North Calais, where she attends school.

Mrs. T. J. Taylor has been working for Mrs. Wallace Hayford in East Montpelier.

Ed. Ennis has moved to Montpelier.

A. A. Lewis started on Saturday for South West City, Missouri, where a late brother lived from whose estate he hopes to come into some property.

Miss Mary Bailey of Cheyenne, Wyoming, made a brief visit to her mother and sister last week; leaving for Boston on the noon train Saturday.

LYNDONVILLE.

Last week the Village Improvement Society had the park by the railroad shops mowed.

Friday, June 17, A. H. Keniston and wife celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary, old friends and neighbors coming down from Burke, their old home.

Mrs. E. D. Libbey has returned from Brightloom hospital, where she had an operation performed. She has given up the telephone, Mrs. C. M. Parker taking her place, assisted by Miss Mabel Lee.

E. D. Libbey leaves on Tuesday for Barton.

G. E. McVicar of Franklin, Pa., is here visiting his mother and sister.

A. H. Walter and wife, T. W. Parker and wife, Mrs. Mc-ion Flanders and G. E. McVicar went to Waterloo, P. Q., on June 6, to help celebrate their sister's, Mrs. Electus Parmelee's, golden wedding.

Rev. J. C. Bodwell, pastor of the Congregational church, has resigned. He has been there seventeen years, and will leave August 1.

Olara Shirley, who has been ill for several months, remains about the same, and will leave soon for Burlington to receive treatment at the hospital.

SOUTH WALDEN.

Mr. Dodge, our butter maker, is moving into the parsonage.

Agnes Bradford is at home from Montpelier Seminary for a vacation.

Rev. Mr. Waldron, pastor of Baptist church of Hardwick, occupied the pulpit in this place Sunday, assisted by Rev. O. E. Newton, our former pastor.

Rev. O. E. Newton and wife are spending a few days in town.

There is to be an ice cream supper at the vestry on Tuesday evening, June 28.

Robert Walbridge and wife visited her father and mother, O. W. Farr and wife, recently.

Mrs. S. Dutton of Hardwick is to spend some time with friends in Walden.

John Wooster Stevens visited friends in Manchester, N. H., last week.

NEWPORT.

Miss Inez Miller is visiting in Burlington.

Dr. Harry Nye of Leominster, Mass., is in town.

Mrs. G. F. Root has returned from Allston, Mass., where she has been visiting her parents.

Fred Richmond of Barton is visiting his parents, Mr and Mrs Kendrick Richmond.

NORTH RANDOLPH.

Miss Nina Vinson came home from her work in Pennsylvania on Thursday.

R. A. Huse and F. O. Fairbanks of Randolph were in town on Thursday.

Miss Mae Chadwick returned to her home in West Brookfield on Tuesday.

W. N. Carner's blacksmith shop is being newly shingled. His brother, Bert Carpenter, is doing the work.

Miss Betsey Poor returned to her home in Stowe, Thursday after quite a long stay with her brother, G. A. Poor.

Miss Hazel Rogers of Randolph was in town on Friday.

Quite a few from here attended the Sunday school picnic at East Bethel, Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Durkee has completed her work at the Experiment Farm in Burlington and returned home on Friday.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Cone, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Taft and three children, Mrs. M. A. Cone, W. C. Cone, Miss May Sargent, Miss May Cone and R. A. Huse enjoyed a trip to Berlin Pond on Saturday, returning on Sunday.

FAIRLEE.

Nathaniel Rogers has gone to Beverly, Mass., to spend some time with his daughter, Mrs. George Patch.

Mrs. Stevens Chandler has gone to board with Mrs. W. H. Child, and Mrs. Belle Mann has returned from Lowell, Mass., to stay with Mrs. Child for the present.

Fred Long of Montpelier has been visiting his uncle, W. H. Long.

Rev. Mr. Warner of Barton, assisted by Prof. Baldwin of Bradford, preached June 12 in the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. J. Kilbourn.

The Ladies' Missionary Society has just completed articles to be sent in the Orange County Christmas box that goes to a mission school in Constantinople.

Children's Day is to be observed at the church, June 26.

All were glad to see Rev. Mr. Webb in the pulpit on Sunday afternoon, after his long absence on his trip to California and St. Louis.

SOUTH DUXBURY.

Mrs. Nelson Beach returned from Orange, Mass., Saturday.

Bessie Bruce is visiting friends in Montpelier.

Deacon William Ward and wife of Waitfield visited his son, Herbert, on Friday.

Mrs. Bell Griggs of Barre and Mrs. Wilber Brown of Montpelier called on friends in Duxbury, Moretown and Fayston last week.

Kenneth Bisbee was with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Turner, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Randolph were the guests of Mrs. A. Butler last week.

Samuel Somerville was in Barre last Wednesday.

Miss Anna Hart and Mrs. Shea of Moretown were in Montpelier Wednesday.

Mrs. Hattie and Miss Lettie Kemp of Hyde Park and Mr. and Mrs. V. Hutchins and two children of Stowe visited Gilbert Nelson and wife last week.

SOUTH RYEGATE.

Peach Thomas loaded forty-one hogs and ten calves here last Tuesday morning. He paid 4 1/2c per pound for hogs.

Dr. G. W. Darling went to Lowell, Mass., Tuesday morning to attend the graduation of his daughter, Thessie.

Ten foreigners went to St. Johnsbury on Tuesday to take out their naturalization papers.

At the town caucus on Monday delegates as follows were chosen: County convention at St. Johnsbury, George Nelson, W. T. McLam; district convention at Montpelier, C. Wallace, C. McLam; State convention at Montpelier, S. C. Gillilan, M. H. Gibson.

PEACHAM.

Miss Mary Kenerson is at home from school in Johnson.

Mrs. P. N. Granger starts for the west this week to visit relatives.

Miss Jessie Varnum is at home from her school.

George Smart is ill with tonsillitis. Miss Bessie Varnum will move her goods into Owen Somers' house at East Peacham. She intends going to North Danville to live with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Farnum of Lyndon were in town over Sunday; also their niece, Miss Maude Bailey.

Scott Cooley is at home from school at Montpelier.

The ladies' social circle will meet with Mrs. George Darling Wednesday, June 29.

CABOT.

L. C. Fisher goes every week to Montpelier for osteopathic treatment.

Mrs. L. D. Nuro has been caring for her daughter, Miss Lou Miller, who has been sick for a few days at the home of Harlow Haines.

Rev. O. J. Brown, wife and son were in Newport last Wednesday to attend the wedding of Mrs. Brown's brother.

Agnes Warren is home from her school in Northfield, Mass.

Frank Parmenter of Waltham and Mrs. Martha Preston of Bellona, Mass., are visiting at A. L. Preston's.

Miss Lillian Bliss was at home for a day last week.

Mrs. George Webster and Mrs. Abbie Smith were in Montpelier last Thursday.

Miss A. Fanny Smith, who has been teaching in Richmond, is at home for the summer vacation.

S. C. Voodry visited his wife in Montpelier last week.

Miss May Ormsbee, a teacher in the Johnson Normal school, is at home for vacation.

S. L. Guild and wife were in town Monday on their way to their home in Coventry.

Harry Daniels wishes to thank the people of Cabot for their assistance in helping to check the fire in his lumber. He speaks a good word for the engine and says it saved him many thousand dollars.

William H. Kelley and wife of Westfield have been stopping with Rev. C. J. Brown for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, Mr. and Mrs. George Mills and son of Barre and Mrs. Lunston of Scotland passed through here on the way to R. E. Hopkins' in an automobile last Sunday.

Mrs. Will Sarah of Walden has been visiting Orvis Fitts.

Frank Blanchard and wife of Ludlow came here last week and will stop at the Winocoe House for a while.

Miss Jessie Taylor of Newtown, Conn., is visiting Mrs. Nellie English for a time.

Miss Grace Hunting is visiting Miss Grace Morse for a few days.

Theron Meader is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. T. H. Lance.

Cabot ball team will play at Danville Saturday, June 25.

Cabot band is engaged to play at the celebration, East Hardwick, July 4.

The regular meeting of Green Mountain Lodge, F. and A. M. will be Tuesday night, June 28. The third degree will be worked.

Saturday night at 6 o'clock the town was aroused by the burning of the Daniels mills at Lower Cabot. A large number flocked to the scene to assist. The fire engine was taken down from the village and did excellent work in saving the lumber.

PLAINFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Austin, who have been visiting in Marshfield for the past week, returned on Monday.

Joseph Raymond of Marshfield has rented the tenement recently vacated by Fred Bancroft.

S. W. Baulac lost one of his fine pair of horses on Thursday.

Andrew Lawrence of Philadelphia, a brother of Mrs. Amanda Batchelder, will arrive in town July 2. Mr. Lawrence will be glad to see all his old friends again.

The Plainfield creamery paid 20 cents a pound for butter fat for the month of May.

There have been a number of sales of horses in town the past week. H. C. Smith of Burlington purchased the fancy pair of Ira Ricker for $500. Roy Leavitt sold his Gov. Hendee colt for $175. Harry Parks bought a fine pair of chestnuts at Burlington. George Kane bought a pair of H. M. Farnham of East Montpelier.

Several deer have been seen in town in the past week, two young deer being seen near Nat Page's that were very tame.

The delegates elected to the State convention were E. J. Bartlett, H. G. Moore; and to the district convention, Ezekiel Skinner and Henry Waldo.

The regular meeting of the Good Templars will occur Thursday evening. Several candidates will be initiated.

Miss Chase of Morrisville is a guest of Miss Elsie Warren.

Owing to the sudden death of Mrs. A. C. Brown of Montpelier the lecture that was to have been given at the Methodist church will be postponed indefinitely.

A new bridge has been built over Gray brook near the Lupin block.

Mrs. Frank Kelley and family of Montpelier have been visiting at Mr. Kelley's.

Mrs. Flora Guernsey of Montpelier has been visiting at N. C. Gove's.

LEGAL NOTICES.

ESTATE OF LILLA F. DOW. STATE OF VERMONT. DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON, S. S. In Probate Court, held in Montpelier, in and for said District, on the 2nd day of June A. D. 1904.

Charles H. Farnsworth, executor, in the State of Vermont of the last will and testament of LILLA F. DOW, late of Montpelier, in the County of Hillsborough and State of New Hampshire, deceased, presents his administration account for examination and allowance, and makes application for a decree of distribution and partition of the estate of said decedent.

Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court, that said account and application be referred to a session thereof to be held at the Probate Office, in said Montpelier, on the 25th day of July A. D. 1904, for hearing and decision thereon, and that notice of said session be published in the Vermont Watchman and State Journal, a newspaper published in Montpelier, in this State, previous to said time and place, and show cause, if any they may have, why said account should not be allowed, and such decree made.

By the Court, Attest, HIRAM CARLETON, Judge.

ESTATE OF JAMES R. DALE. STATE OF VERMONT. DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON, S. S. In Probate Court, held in Montpelier, in and for said District, on the 2nd day of June A. D. 1904.

An instrument bearing date the 1st day of June, 1904, and purporting to be the last will and testament of JAMES R. DALE, late of Waitfield, in said District, deceased, presents his administration account for examination and allowance, and makes application for a decree of distribution and partition of the estate of said decedent.

Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court, that said account and application be referred to a session thereof to be held at the Probate Office, in said Montpelier, on the 9th day of July A. D. 1904, for hearing and decision thereon; and that notice of said session be published in the Vermont Watchman and State Journal, a newspaper published in Montpelier, in this State, previous to said time and place, and show cause, if any they may have, why said account should not be allowed, and such decree made.

By the Court, Attest, HIRAM CARLETON, Judge.

ESTATE OF LOUIS N. JACOBS. STATE OF VERMONT. DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON, S. S. In Probate Court, held in Montpelier, in and for said District, on the 17th day of June, A. D. 1904.

An instrument bearing date the 1st day of June, 1904, and purporting to be the last will and testament of LOUIS N. JACOBS, late of Calais, in said District, deceased, being presented to the Court for Probate, it is ordered by said Court, that all persons concerned therein be notified to appear at a session of said Court, to be held at the Probate Office in said Montpelier, on the 9th day of July A. D. 1904, and show cause, if any they may have, against the probate of said instrument and sodell, for which purpose it is further ordered that notice of this order be published in the Vermont Watchman and State Journal, a newspaper published in Montpelier, in this State, previous to