

Cool Nights

Now is the time to get your Blankets and Comfortables for the cold winter nights. We have the largest and best assortment in this section of the state.

Comfortables

We have a specially good full size Comfortable for

$2.00

Others up to $10.00.

Blankets

You can secure the best California Wool Blankets in the market here. Insist on having the California as they are the best. Prices to $10.00.

$3.98

Cotton Blankets, 69c, 98c, 1.50, 2.25, 2.50

P. E. Pope Co.

TOWN CORRESPONDENCE

News of the Day as Presented by the Journal's Corps of Special Correspondents, Being Mostly Items of Interest.

BROOKFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. Halley of Berlin were recent guests of Miss Edna Sargent. Bids on books at the library meeting Wednesday amounted to $10.50. The name of Harry Jones was drawn to first return books next quarter.

SOUTH WOODBURY.

Mrs. Nellie Patch is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Morton McKinstry. Several persons from this place attended the funeral of William Kelley, which took place at Calais last Sunday afternoon.

SHADY RILL.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rowell have purchased the Thomas Colby farm and will move there in the spring. Wilbur Parker has sold his farm to Charles Duprey of Waterbury.

PLAY WARD POLITICS

(Continued from page 1.)

membership widely scattered and only seven of the 12 members present. Three other members were detained by brief but pre-emptory engagements.

WATERBURY CENTER.

Mr. and Mrs. James Atkins and son of Jonesville were the recent guests of Frank Town.

MARSHFIELD.

Rev. Mr. Stewart of Montpelier preached at the Congregational church Sunday.

MORETOWN.

Mrs. G. S. Knapp and her sister, Miss Alice Foster were guests of their brother, G. R. Foster and wife of Montpelier Sunday.

WATERBURY.

Miss Harriet Maxwell passed Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Clayton Kew, in Watsfield.

71 LICENSES ISSUED.

City Clerk Merrill has issued a total of 74 resident hunting licenses and 20 non-resident.

FOR BRUTAL ASSAULT.

Four Sailors Arrested Charged With Cutting Off Right Ear of a Non-Union Seaman.

BRADSTREET'S VT. TRADE REPORT

Reports to Bradstreet's for the week note that general retail trade continues about even, although county fairs have disturbed buying to some extent.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Rhode Island Democrats will hold their State and Congressional conventions Sept. 29.

NEW YORK LETTER.

Stray Topics From Little Old New York Gathered From Near and Far For the Delectation of the Reader.

wife of a well-to-do physician in this city, informed the editor that she intended to commit suicide and that her husband was in no way to blame for her act.

Recovered Gems.

The carelessness of wealthy persons with their jewelry is sometimes beyond belief and it is not surprising that so many of them lose their gems, especially when traveling.

Ensnared Curfew.

The common council of Yonkers, by a vote of 8 to 1, adopted an ordinance the other day, which establishes the curfew in Yonkers and compels all children under the age of sixteen years to leave the streets by ten o'clock every night.

A Cruel Hoax.

Two little boys and a little girl, whose parents are neighbors in Brownsville, a part of Brooklyn, wandered to the outskirts of that sparsely settled district to pick flowers.

A Doubtful Joke.

The other day the first morning mail brought a letter to one of the daily newspapers, in which the writer, who

MRS. PHELPS

Expired Suddenly Saturday Morning After Short Attack of the Grip.

Mrs. Henry A. Phelps died very suddenly Saturday morning at her home on Academy street after a short illness with the grip.

Crippen's Defence.

London, Sept. 15.—According to a published interview the line of defence to be followed by Arthur Newton, counsel for Dr. Crippen, will be that the remains are not Belle Elmore's and that the strip of flesh showing an alleged operation scar cannot belong to the abdomen because of the absence of the umbilicus.

Cholera Epidemic Checked.

Rome, Sept. 14.—The cholera epidemic has now been practically stamped out in Apulia.

LOW SHOES for Ladies

Tell your neighbors and see them yourself

B. M. Shepard Co. State St., Montpelier

CAPITAL SAVINGS BANK AND TRUST COMPANY

MONTPELIER, VERMONT. Capital, $100,000. Total Assets, $1,800,000. Deposits made on or before the 15th day of July will draw interest from the FIRST DAY of that month at FOUR PER CENT PER ANNUM, payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July.