

The city of San Salvador, Central America, has been nearly destroyed by an earthquake and 700 lives lost.

There is nothing new of importance in relation to the shipwreck of the Atlantic. The investigation is going on and from the testimony we should judge that the accident was the result of recklessness and carelessness.

There is a general determination on the part of the officials to exterminate the Modocs, and a great pressure is brought to bear upon the President to abandon his "peace policy."

Of the civil service committee, Mr. Curtis has resigned, Mr. Cattell is absent, Major Medill of Chicago, is excluded from serving by the President's order forbidding federal officers from holding local offices.

The Michigan University last week graduated twelve lady physicians and two lady lawyers. Whereupon the Chicago Journal wisely remarks that "there is need of both."

At the Mormon conference, recently, Brigham Young addressed the Saints. He said he was getting old and wanted young men to carry on the work.

The testimony of Jay Gould before the Erie Investigating Committee exhibits the politics of New York State as a subject of barter and sale.

In view of the resignation of Curtis, the Louisville Courier Journal is moved to publish the following obituary notice: "Died in Washington, recently, a little orphan boy named Civil Service Reform."

MOKE TROUBLE IN LOUISIANA. A despatch from New Orleans says: "The steamer Southwestern brings stirring and important news from Grant Parish."

The negroes had strongly entrenched themselves in the Court House and built breastworks three and four feet high. There were, it is said, about 400 men armed and equipped thoroughly.

ed party, wounding several, one of whom was Captain Hadrot, who was shot in the bowels, and, it is feared, fatally wounded.

Mr. Edward Phelps, living near Burlington, has just given us the result of a discovery, recently made by him, of some facts which are probably new to most if not all of those who work among trees.

In the time of the flow of sap take a fresh green sapling or limb of birch, or some wood which flows sap freely, of about the diameter of the sugar hole made in tapping a maple tree.

In this way he has brought sap from different trees into the same bucket. In using a birch stick, tasting the first which was yielded, he found it to have a birch taste, and concludes that the maple sap, when commencing to find its way through the stick, as soon as it is inserted in the tree, instantly moves the whole body of the birch sap until it is exhausted.

ATROCIOUS MURDER BY THE INDIANS. The Modoc Indians, who occupy a broken and rocky country which is almost inaccessible near the line between California and Oregon, have lately proved troublesome.

The Brandon Manufacturing Company intend to enlarge their shops this Spring, to about double their present capacity, to enable them to fill their orders and do a much larger business.

A life of that eminent leader of education, Mrs. Emma Willard, who commenced her life work in Vermont, by her son, John Willard, edited by Dr. John Lord, is forthcoming from the Appleton press.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY. WASHINGTON, D. C. April 12. General Order No. 3. It again becomes the sad duty of the General to announce to the army the death of one of our most illustrious and most honored comrades.

That such a life should have been sacrificed in such a cause, will ever be a source of regret to his relations and friends; yet the General trusts that all good soldiers will be consoled in knowing that Canby lost his life on duty in the execution of his office.

He had already completed the necessary military preparations to enforce obedience to the conclusions of the peace commissioners, after which he seems to have accompanied them to a last conference with the savage chiefs in a supposed friendly council.

At the same time one of the peace commissioners was killed outright and another mortally wounded, and a third escaped unhurt. This perished one of the kindest and best gentlemen of this or any other country, whose social qualities equalled his military virtues.

Arrangements have been made whereby Brodie and Kelsey, of Montreal, will establish in Burlington a large manufactory of boots and shoes. They expect to commence work by the first of May with forty experienced workmen.

A Wilmington man, while on a visit, fell asleep, as usual. His wife and her friend, who were quietly indulging in a pinch of Lorrillard's best, proposed to give him a pinch. They took about a table-spoonful, and as he drew in his breath held it under his nose.

The deep snow is sadly interfering with finishing up the hay in Bridport. One gentleman says that he hauled in some last week that was cooked up last fall but he had to dig so far to get at the tops of the stacks that it took most too much time to make it profitable.

The Rev. Prof. Webber officiates occasionally for one of the Congregational Churches in Burlington. When coming up from Middlebury on a recent Saturday evening for that purpose, a lively Boston 'drummer' shared a seat with him in the car.
