BENNINGTON NO MATCH FOR B. H. S.

Buried Under 46-0 Score in First Clash of These Teams

BUT ONCE ABLE TO MAKE FIRST DOWN

Carried Ball by Rushing Only 31 Yards in Entire Game—Brattleboro Football Team Made Its First Appearance in Brattleboro Saturday and was Literally Buried by Brattleboro's Pigsaw Chasers, 46 to 0.

The local team never played harder football than in this game. Their offense was powerful and the defense was slashing, the tackling being the best they have shown for some time.

Coach Stolte trotted out nearly the entire squad and even with the substitutes in, the visitors never had a chance. Their offense was slow in starting and lacked the power to drive. Only once during the entire game were they able to make first down, while Brattleboro made first down almost at will.

The weakness of Bennington's offensive or the aggressiveness of the defense is shown by the fact that the visitors throughout the game carried the ball by rushing a total of 31 yards. A good kicker would have helped them somewhat, but the best punting produced by them only carried 32 yards. On the other hand Brattleboro showed a wonderfully strong attack, carrying the ball by rushing 403 yards. Forward passes netted a total of 67 yards. L. Heywood made some pretty runs for Brattleboro, carrying the ball behind perfect interference for a total of 163 yards. Manley did his usual lion's share of the work and showed marked improvement in his handling of the team.

Brittan was used to a very good advantage, making several big gains. His running back of punts also was very good.

Considering the condition of the ball, which was wet and slippery, both teams did very little fumbling, although Brattleboro got away with three wild punts at the start of the game, but after this their handling of the ball was clean cut. The line showed considerable strength over last week, breaking through while the defensive line opened good holes for the back on the offensive.

McGarrigle, up to the time he was disqualified, played the best brand of ball he has ever shown. He was the best player in the third period after dislocating two fingers.

End to end, the line, including the substitutes, showed themselves to be capable of putting up a stiff fight. Foley, apparently Bennington's best player, was in no condition to play, but was unable to stand the strain and retired at the start of the second period, but just before the whistle blew for the close of the first half he made a hard tackle on Brittan, who had almost a clear field, and again injured his strained ankle.

Bennington won the toss and chose to receive the kickoff, which was returned to the 32-yard line. On the second play Brattleboro drew a five-yard offside penalty, giving the visitors the ball on their 40-yard line. A plunge through the line netted five yards, but the advance was then cut short as Brattleboro recovered a fumble.

The locals then put up a poor showing for a brief few minutes. On the first play the ball was snapped over the back of heads, and the runner coming along to their 27-yard line before it was recovered, and to make bad matters worse the play was repeated except that the loss this time was only eight yards. This put Brattleboro in a bad way for they were now within 19 yards of the goal they were defending, with 45 yards to go for first down. Manley ripped off eight yards, but then called for a kick. L. Heywood booted to midfield and the play was stopped after an advance of 10 yards. Wideawake playing gave the locals the advantage on the next play, when an intercepted forward pass gave them possession of the ball on their 35-yard line. Manley went off tackle for eight yards, but again the pass went wrong and Brattleboro lost four yards. This cleared up the coveys, and from then on the boys played the ball cleanly.

L. Heywood skirted the end for 28 yards. Manley in two plays gathered 11 yards, and L. Heywood again got away for a great run, this time for 18 yards. Brattleboro got the breaks on the next play. Manley was called on and the pass was high, striking L. Heywood on the head, three yards directly into the arms of Manley, who plowed through the line for a touchdown.

The locals crossed the visitors in approaching the point from touchdown, but they evidently threw a kick and did not get to Manley, who went over with a fine plunge.

Brattleboro kicked off and Bennington brought it back 10 yards and kicked without trying a single play. Manley recovered and brought it back 17 yards before being downed.

Manley and L. Heywood in five plays carried the ball to the visitors' nine-yard line before the period ended.

On the first play in the second period Manley went over for the second touchdown. Manley threw a pass to Ulmer for the point after touchdown.

Brattleboro again kicked off and here the visitors showed for the only time in the game. Starting on their 32-yard line they made two gains of six yards each for their only first down of the game. The next play was spilled and then they managed to rip off three yards more, but here they were stopped. McGarrigle broke through and nailed the next play for a nine-yard loss, forcing Bennington to kick. Roberts recovering and advancing 11 yards before being brought to earth. Brittan slipped around the end for 29 yards. L. Heywood got 21 yards more for the touchdown, and Manley threw a pass to Stewart for the point.

Brattleboro kicked and Bennington, after returning the ball 12 yards, kicked on the first play. Brittan recovered and brought the ball back 22 yards. Manley made 25 yards on two plays and the locals drew a five-yard penalty for offside. L. Heywood took a pass from Manley and went over for the touchdown, and Manley again plunged over the line for the point.

GIANTS WORLD CHAMPIONS AGAIN

Defeat the Yankees Four Straight Games in World Series

WIN LAST GAME BY SCORE OF 5 TO 3

Third Time Series Is Taken By Straight Games — Winners Will Get About $4,470 Each and Yankees $3,225 — Total Receipts of Series $605,475.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The Giants again were crowned world champions by virtue of their fourth straight victory over the uninspired Yankees yesterday, the score being 5 to 3. One can afford to omit talk of the 3 to 10-inning tie between the teams Thursday afternoon. Every game that went to a decision was necessary for the National leaguers. Only twice before, when the Boston Braves beat up the Athletics in 1914 in four straight, and in 1907 when the Cubs beat the Tigers and then beat up the Juggernauts in the next four, has the losing club failed to pin at least one game as consolation.

SEASON'S TREAT NEXT SATURDAY

Vermont Academy and Brattleboro High to Play Here—Teams Appear Very Evenly Matched.

The Brattleboro high school football team is now showing real class, and with good weather there should be a record crowd out for next Saturday's game, when the locals meet the strong Vermont academy team. The fans will remember that last year these teams played a close game, the locals winning, 14 to 12. Both have better teams than last year, and a close, hard fought game should result.

Brattleboro defeated Bellows Falls 18 to 7, while Vermont academy turned the same trick last Saturday 19 to 7. Comparative scores would tend to show these teams very evenly matched, and this should be the season's treat.

eligible—one or two generally getting a small cut—it is impossible to tell accurately what the average slice will be. The prospect, however, is about $4,470, which is far from being a record-breaker. Though the shortness of the series makes it pretty high for five days' work. The losing Yankees get the balance of $74,193, which, figured on a basis of conjecture similar to that used in estimating the individual Giants' share, would be about $3,225.

Football Notes.

Tufts suffered hard luck in its first game of the season when Van French, one of the best backs at Medford, was injured.

Indications point to another prosperous season and a close struggle for the football championship of the western conference.

Manager Glover of the Geneva college eleven declares that the "tramp athlete" or "floater" evil is becoming more of a menace each year.

From the way Centre is piling up points, "Uncle Charley" Moran must have developed another squad of dazzling football artists.

So many college teams relying on the drop kick to give them their additional point after touchdown will create a demand for proficient booters of the pug-stick.
