

Lamoille Newsdealer:

CHAS. C. MORSE, Editor.

Hyde Park, Vt., Dec. 9, 1874.

Congress met on Monday. The President's message is highly complimented by all parties.

And associated press despatch says: The President's message was not quite completed, owing to a delay in receiving the report of the District of Columbia commissioners.

Considerable space is devoted to affairs in Arkansas, the reasons given why he declined to interfere in the recent difficulties in that state, and he adverts to the facts narrated in his special message to Congress, in February, 1873, relative to Louisiana.

—It was a conscientious and considerate act on the part of Col. Redford Proctor of Rutland, president pro tempore of the Senate, to decline the double pay usually allowed that officer, and the act is all the more praiseworthy because he claims there was no merit in it.

THE EAST-HILL MURDER.—Rumors have been afloat for about a day to the effect that a young man in the employ of a farmer south-west of this village had just remarked that he knew where the missing bundle of Miss Ball's clothing was.

—Col Proctor is not a reformer, evidently. —Wash, for finishing Horse-Shoe nails. —R. Ross, Vergennes.

—The annual report of Secretary Robeson shows the navy to be in a remarkably efficient condition, both as regards the number of vessels, their armament, and sea-going qualities.

—The January number of "Peterson's Magazine" is just received, ahead, as usual, of all others. "As Good as a Mother," the principal steel-plate, is one of rare beauty.

—A boy, sliding down a steep hill at West Randolph, the other day, when a train of cars suddenly came upon the crossing before him; after it was too late to stop his sled, but he fortunately passed under one of the cars and escaped injury.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

The President will make no recommendation on the subject of internal improvements by the general government, but will merely refer to the fact that Congress has already appointed a committee on transportation routes to the seaboard.

Considerable space is devoted to affairs in Arkansas, the reasons given why he declined to interfere in the recent difficulties in that state, and he adverts to the facts narrated in his special message to Congress, in February, 1873, relative to Louisiana.

—It was a conscientious and considerate act on the part of Col. Redford Proctor of Rutland, president pro tempore of the Senate, to decline the double pay usually allowed that officer, and the act is all the more praiseworthy because he claims there was no merit in it.

THE EAST-HILL MURDER.—Rumors have been afloat for about a day to the effect that a young man in the employ of a farmer south-west of this village had just remarked that he knew where the missing bundle of Miss Ball's clothing was.

—Col Proctor is not a reformer, evidently. —Wash, for finishing Horse-Shoe nails. —R. Ross, Vergennes.

—The annual report of Secretary Robeson shows the navy to be in a remarkably efficient condition, both as regards the number of vessels, their armament, and sea-going qualities.

—The January number of "Peterson's Magazine" is just received, ahead, as usual, of all others. "As Good as a Mother," the principal steel-plate, is one of rare beauty.

—A boy, sliding down a steep hill at West Randolph, the other day, when a train of cars suddenly came upon the crossing before him; after it was too late to stop his sled, but he fortunately passed under one of the cars and escaped injury.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

Alaska. The secretary is the interest of our navy and of commerce earnestly recommends that, if the Icelandic committee shall find at any point on our Pacific coast a satisfactory location, whatever assistance the government is competent to extend toward establishing an Icelandic colony there be promptly offered.

Considerable space is devoted to affairs in Arkansas, the reasons given why he declined to interfere in the recent difficulties in that state, and he adverts to the facts narrated in his special message to Congress, in February, 1873, relative to Louisiana.

—It was a conscientious and considerate act on the part of Col. Redford Proctor of Rutland, president pro tempore of the Senate, to decline the double pay usually allowed that officer, and the act is all the more praiseworthy because he claims there was no merit in it.

THE EAST-HILL MURDER.—Rumors have been afloat for about a day to the effect that a young man in the employ of a farmer south-west of this village had just remarked that he knew where the missing bundle of Miss Ball's clothing was.

—Col Proctor is not a reformer, evidently. —Wash, for finishing Horse-Shoe nails. —R. Ross, Vergennes.

—The annual report of Secretary Robeson shows the navy to be in a remarkably efficient condition, both as regards the number of vessels, their armament, and sea-going qualities.

—The January number of "Peterson's Magazine" is just received, ahead, as usual, of all others. "As Good as a Mother," the principal steel-plate, is one of rare beauty.

—A boy, sliding down a steep hill at West Randolph, the other day, when a train of cars suddenly came upon the crossing before him; after it was too late to stop his sled, but he fortunately passed under one of the cars and escaped injury.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

Correspondence.

TO THE TAXPAYERS OF JOHNSON.—A dark day is upon us. Our financial prospects are such as to awaken profound anxiety.

Considerable space is devoted to affairs in Arkansas, the reasons given why he declined to interfere in the recent difficulties in that state, and he adverts to the facts narrated in his special message to Congress, in February, 1873, relative to Louisiana.

—It was a conscientious and considerate act on the part of Col. Redford Proctor of Rutland, president pro tempore of the Senate, to decline the double pay usually allowed that officer, and the act is all the more praiseworthy because he claims there was no merit in it.

THE EAST-HILL MURDER.—Rumors have been afloat for about a day to the effect that a young man in the employ of a farmer south-west of this village had just remarked that he knew where the missing bundle of Miss Ball's clothing was.

—Col Proctor is not a reformer, evidently. —Wash, for finishing Horse-Shoe nails. —R. Ross, Vergennes.

—The annual report of Secretary Robeson shows the navy to be in a remarkably efficient condition, both as regards the number of vessels, their armament, and sea-going qualities.

—The January number of "Peterson's Magazine" is just received, ahead, as usual, of all others. "As Good as a Mother," the principal steel-plate, is one of rare beauty.

—A boy, sliding down a steep hill at West Randolph, the other day, when a train of cars suddenly came upon the crossing before him; after it was too late to stop his sled, but he fortunately passed under one of the cars and escaped injury.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

The Ball Murder.

On the 22nd day of September a young man named Perkins, 20 years old, from Fairfax, went to work for Mr. A. J. Smith on a farm lying between St. Albans and Georgia Bay.

Considerable space is devoted to affairs in Arkansas, the reasons given why he declined to interfere in the recent difficulties in that state, and he adverts to the facts narrated in his special message to Congress, in February, 1873, relative to Louisiana.

—It was a conscientious and considerate act on the part of Col. Redford Proctor of Rutland, president pro tempore of the Senate, to decline the double pay usually allowed that officer, and the act is all the more praiseworthy because he claims there was no merit in it.

THE EAST-HILL MURDER.—Rumors have been afloat for about a day to the effect that a young man in the employ of a farmer south-west of this village had just remarked that he knew where the missing bundle of Miss Ball's clothing was.

—Col Proctor is not a reformer, evidently. —Wash, for finishing Horse-Shoe nails. —R. Ross, Vergennes.

—The annual report of Secretary Robeson shows the navy to be in a remarkably efficient condition, both as regards the number of vessels, their armament, and sea-going qualities.

—The January number of "Peterson's Magazine" is just received, ahead, as usual, of all others. "As Good as a Mother," the principal steel-plate, is one of rare beauty.

—A boy, sliding down a steep hill at West Randolph, the other day, when a train of cars suddenly came upon the crossing before him; after it was too late to stop his sled, but he fortunately passed under one of the cars and escaped injury.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

State News.

TERRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—As the train up over the Boston, Concord and Montreal railroad, leaving Plymouth at 7 A. M., was coming into Wells River, on Wednesday morning, it ran off the switch just below Woodsville, N. H., and the passenger car went down a bank, turning over three times in its descent, the engine and baggage car also leaving the iron.

Considerable space is devoted to affairs in Arkansas, the reasons given why he declined to interfere in the recent difficulties in that state, and he adverts to the facts narrated in his special message to Congress, in February, 1873, relative to Louisiana.

—It was a conscientious and considerate act on the part of Col. Redford Proctor of Rutland, president pro tempore of the Senate, to decline the double pay usually allowed that officer, and the act is all the more praiseworthy because he claims there was no merit in it.

THE EAST-HILL MURDER.—Rumors have been afloat for about a day to the effect that a young man in the employ of a farmer south-west of this village had just remarked that he knew where the missing bundle of Miss Ball's clothing was.

—Col Proctor is not a reformer, evidently. —Wash, for finishing Horse-Shoe nails. —R. Ross, Vergennes.

—The annual report of Secretary Robeson shows the navy to be in a remarkably efficient condition, both as regards the number of vessels, their armament, and sea-going qualities.

—The January number of "Peterson's Magazine" is just received, ahead, as usual, of all others. "As Good as a Mother," the principal steel-plate, is one of rare beauty.

—A boy, sliding down a steep hill at West Randolph, the other day, when a train of cars suddenly came upon the crossing before him; after it was too late to stop his sled, but he fortunately passed under one of the cars and escaped injury.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

Manhood Womanhood & Nervous Diseases.

A Book For Every Man. Published by the Peabody Medical Institute, Boston.

Considerable space is devoted to affairs in Arkansas, the reasons given why he declined to interfere in the recent difficulties in that state, and he adverts to the facts narrated in his special message to Congress, in February, 1873, relative to Louisiana.

—It was a conscientious and considerate act on the part of Col. Redford Proctor of Rutland, president pro tempore of the Senate, to decline the double pay usually allowed that officer, and the act is all the more praiseworthy because he claims there was no merit in it.

THE EAST-HILL MURDER.—Rumors have been afloat for about a day to the effect that a young man in the employ of a farmer south-west of this village had just remarked that he knew where the missing bundle of Miss Ball's clothing was.

—Col Proctor is not a reformer, evidently. —Wash, for finishing Horse-Shoe nails. —R. Ross, Vergennes.

—The annual report of Secretary Robeson shows the navy to be in a remarkably efficient condition, both as regards the number of vessels, their armament, and sea-going qualities.

—The January number of "Peterson's Magazine" is just received, ahead, as usual, of all others. "As Good as a Mother," the principal steel-plate, is one of rare beauty.

—A boy, sliding down a steep hill at West Randolph, the other day, when a train of cars suddenly came upon the crossing before him; after it was too late to stop his sled, but he fortunately passed under one of the cars and escaped injury.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.

—The laws are published in full this week, and contained in a supplement.