Eden. —Rev. H. H. Bennett will preach at the M. E. Church every Sabbath until Conference.

—A singing school has been started at the Mills, taught by Mr. Harrington of St. Johnsbury.

Johnson. —Hon. C. C. Chadwick, Ex-Judge of Probate, died at his residence on Monday morning last.

Mr. Editor: I understand that some suppose me to say in my article, two weeks ago, in the NEWSDEALER that the liabilities of this town are now $112,600.

What I supposed myself to have intimated, was that the semi-annual interest on the bonds, for the twenty years, added to the other sums, would be the amount named.
