who held the recent series of meetings here, is now conducting successful meetings in Richford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Slayton, former residents, have spent several days in town. Will has a chronic attack of Cripple Creek fever.

Mrs. A. B. Rand scores a number of points above all competitors to date, having a Chinese sacred lily with thirty-two buds and blossoms.

Monday morning brought out a merry jingle of sleigh bells, the snow on Sunday afternoon and evening giving quite comfortable sleighing.

The shoe counter works, owned and operated by the National Fibre Board Co., of Boston, with H. M.
Gordon, Superintendent, is now lighted by its own electric plant with about forty lights attached.

New members are almost daily being added to the list of the local telegraph company. The boys held their first annual banquet Saturday night, pop corn and peanuts being the most prominently mentioned on the bill of fare.

Wm. G. McClintock, superintendent of Forest Park Farm at Brandon, writes us that H. R. C. Watson has had his entire herd of Ayrshires subjected to the tuberculin test, and that they are pronounced by George A. Miller, D. V. S., to be in a fine and healthy condition.

The Universalist Circle will meet in the vestry to-morrow, Thursday, afternoon, Jan. 16.

Miss Bernice Tewksbury is occupying her old position at Boynton's cafe during the temporary absence of Miss Nora Chase.

The United Workers meet at the Congregational vestry Friday afternoon. Different branches of work at usual hours, and supper at 5:30.

The setting up of the type and the printing of the Morrisville Advertiser is now done in Hardwick at the office of the Hardwick Gazette.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary held in connection with the State Dairymen's meeting, Mrs.
C. F. Smith was elected vice-president.

A. A. Niles has been appointed by Department Commander Cannon on the committee on Adjutant General's report at the coming State Encampment at Rutland.

H. E. Prior is advertising his meat business for sale. The market is centrally located on Portland street, and is good property for some one.
Herb wants to change his base.

O. A. Leach of Argusville, North Dakota, came from the west last week, arriving here last Thursday evening. He was met here by Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Slayton, Mrs. Slayton being a sister of Mr. Leach.

After a good deal of struggle and an all day's job at it, enough snow came down last Thursday to freeze the smoothly worn roadway sufficiently so that several cutters were out on the village streets Friday.

H. P. Munson says "a little money will go a great ways" at the cloak, fur and shawl sale at his store Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. There is lots of cold weather ahead, so take advantage of this sale.

Dr. C. C. Rublee was in Montpelier last Wednesday to attend the burial services of his uncle, the late eminent divine, the Rev. Doctor Nathaniel G.
Clark, whose remains were taken to Montpelier from Roxbury, Mass., for burial.

According to rumor Morrisville is to have a "biled shirt," two of them.
It is understood that in addition to Leavitt's laundry there is to be opened a genuine Chinese wash-house in the basement of the Durling building.

Morrisville's dairymen seem to have let go their "grip" just a little, as we fail to note the appearance of any familiar names among the winners of premiums at the State meeting last week, a report of which can be found on page 2.

The examination of the stock at G.
H. and N. W. Terrill's farm failed to indicate the presence of tuberculosis.
George who was in Rutland at the time of the test, had his heart glad-dened by a telegram from Dr. Rich announcing the result.

There has been some inquiry of late as to Morrisville's fire wardens, touching their duties, who they are, etc. The village charter provides that the three engineers shall be fire wardens by virtue of their office and these engineers are E. W. Wester, A. J. Smith and J. A. Bundy.

About 18 months ago a shoot started from the root of a begonia owned by Mrs. Hendee. Last week she cut it off at the surface of the earth and it measured 10 feet in length, and was three inches in diameter at the lower end. Last year she cut 2 1/2 feet from the top, so that the entire growth was 12 1/2 feet, and in constant blossom.

The newly elected officers of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Cong'l church for the next six months are:—President, Miss Cora Brackett; vice-president, A. H. Slayton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. C.
Lang; recording secretary, Miss Mar-ga Thomas; treasurer and collector, Leon Brackett; organist, Miss Lena Irish; junior superintendent, Miss Fannie Hickock.

Many timid hearts went "kerplunk" on Friday evening last, when the first formal recognition of leap year fellows was found in the social held by the Academy students. Everybody had an enjoyable time and the attendance was large. The bachelor's sale and distribution of pies created a lively interest and considerable merriment. Over $20.00 was added to the piano fund.

About fifty Grangers were present at last Thursday's session of Lamoille Grange. Three candidates were initiated and the degrees worked on others. The third anniversary of the organization of the Grange will be celebrated on Thursday of next week Jan. 23. At that time Lamoille Grange will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Will Daniels. A full session with a picnic dinner is the program.

It is expected that steps will be taken toward the complete organization of a Republican campaign club this Wednesday evening. Let everybody that is interested in helping Morrisville start the campaigning for the campaign of '96, turn out.
The hour is at 8 o'clock to accommodate those engaged by business, and as a convenient point, Gleed & Fleetwood's office is suggested as the place.

What's the matter with the NEWS AND CITIZEN this week as a "home" paper?

J. A. Reed will hold religious services in the new school house at the Corners Sunday, Jan. 19, 2 p. m.

Mr. Reed is a Lamoille County boy, who has lived in New Hampshire for a number of years. He is a member of the Advent Christian Conference of the Granite State, but has returned to the Green Mountain State to live.
Give him a good gathering. There will be a meeting in the evening at W. B. Patch's.

For the past ten or twelve years the amusement loving public has been entertained by that entertaining Vermont family the Shepards.
As a musical aggregation they have held their position among the companies on the road in a remarkable manner, a testimony of their popularity. They appear again in Morrisville to-morrow (Thursday) evening in town hall. Popular prices—35 and 25 cts., and children 15 cts.

Fred Lawrence was seen driving into the village late Saturday afternoon with a face radiant in its joy, yet perplexed in the background as he hastily hitched his horse, (this time by a halter) and ran wildly from store to store in search of infant's clothing. You see there were two boys down at his house and the extra one was without clothing. The mother, twin boys, the happy father, and Dr. Douglass are doing finely.

Daniel C. Spaulding, the soon to be post-master, filed his bonds, upon which appear the signatures of four good Republicans, with the department on Tuesday of last week, and his commission as post-master of Morrisville is likely to arrive in any mail. Mr. Spaulding has engaged the service of Miss Lizzie Webster, who has had experience in post-office work, is very clever with the pen, and will undoubtedly make an efficient clerk. Miss Webster went into the office yesterday to make a start toward familiarizing herself with the work, location of boxes, etc.

T. C. Cheney went to Middletown, Conn., the last of last week, where his marriage to Miss Mary Terrill occurs this Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cheney and daughter, Miss Winifred Cheney, and L. J.
Thompson, went on Monday to be present on the happy occasion. The marriage will be solemnized in the presence of family friends at the residence of Hon. Weld Terrill, by the Rev. David G. Downey of Stamford, Conn. Mrs. Downey being a sister of the bride. Miss Winifred Cheney will be maid of honor and Leon J.
Thompson best man. The newly married couple will make no extended trip at this time, but will arrive in Morrisville early next week, where they will be welcomed by a host of friends.

atee.

HYDE PARK.

Capt. S. B. Waite has been in Boston for several days past.

F. H. McFarland spent Monday and Tuesday in Franklin county.

The Shepard Family Friday evening, January 17. Bear in mind the date.

H. A. Taylor of Boston was a recent guest of his brother, Rev. F. C.
Taylor.

Dame Rumor once more has it that marriage bells will soon tinkle merrily again.

Silas Eaton of Holyoke, Mass., spent Sunday in town with his brother, M. B. Eaton.

The genial Dan'l Perkins of Newport is in town on one of his semi-occasional visits.

A. N. Williams of Hartford, Conn., was in town the first of the week on insurance business.

Ice harvesting has commenced.
Good clear ice sixteen inches thick is being taken from Roddy's pond.

Dr. W. T. Slayton, who has been studying in England the past three months, reached New York last Friday and arrived in town to-day.

Walter Strong is having quite a seige with "Job's comforters" just now, and in consequence thereof moves about with considerable dignity.

F. H. Tenney, sup't of the wool pulling department at the hidehouse, has been in New Hampshire for a few days; business and pleasure combined.

The steam mill is busily engaged these days on a large order. They are getting out an order of 70,000 feet of hardwood flooring for the new asylum at Waterbury.

F. N. Keeler is spending a few days in New York City, seeing the animals from the elephant down. During his absence Nelson B. is assisting in the care of the hotel guests.

The "Valley Skating Rink" is a decided success and each evening sees the ice covered with a gracefully moving mass of skaters. Try it yourself; you are sure to enjoy the sport.

An extremely stylish looking turnout is that which Brown, the liveryman, sat behind Monday afternoon—a pair of clean limbed horses, new harnesses and a brand new cutter.
Quite swell, George.

The library trustees held a meeting last Saturday evening, at which important business was transacted.— Work on the library apartments is progressing, and when completed the town will have a very neat and cosy library.

Dr. E. E. Vaughan of Chicago has been in town for a few days, returning home Tuesday evening. He was called east to visit a patient in Woodbury who was recently in the Chicago hospital with which he is connected, for treatment.

The Lamoille County Savings Bank and Trust Company elected the following directors last Tuesday:— C. S. Page, H. M. McFarland, P. K.
Gleed, S. A. Fife, O. F. Gates, H. P.
Stowe. The officers are C. S. Page, president; H. M. McFarland, vice-president; C. A. Knight, treasurer.

Dr. H. D. Bacon of Eden was lodged in jail last week at the instigation of O. V. Moseley, on a body execution—the outcome of the late suit against him. The doctor is poor and Mr.
Moseley has been cited to appear here next week and show why the doctor should not take the poor debtor's oath.

Our townsman Albert Spicer, who will leave next week for Connecticut where he will spend some time with his daughter, in paying for his paper last week, remarked that he had taken the local paper from its start, upwards of thirty-five years. It was then the Newsdealer and its first editor was S. Howard.

A meeting of the King's Daughters was held with Mrs. V. L. Blodgett last Wednesday evening, when the following officers were elected: Mrs.
V. L. Blodgett, president; Mrs. F. C.
Taylor, vice-president; Miss Rosalie Becher, secretary; Miss Cleora Crowell, treasurer. Letters from Mrs.
Stratton of Burlington and Miss Barber of Townshend, absent members, were read.

State's Attorney Hulbard went to Cambridge last week and presented the liquor case of the town of Fletcher for unlawfully selling liquor—a quart of alcohol and a quart of whisky—gloriously drunk on the same. The agent claimed that the man said he wanted it for a sore finger. Fined five dollars and costs, amounting in all to about $27.00. Appeal taken.

The stockholders of the Lamoille County National Bank at its annual meeting Tuesday elected the old board of directors, to wit:—Geo. Wilkins of Stowe, C. S. Page, H. M. Mc-Farland of Hyde Park, P. K. Gleed of Morrisville, I. L. Pearl of Johnson, H. F. Brigham of Bakersfield, C. W.
Bryant of Westfield. The board organized by electing C. S. Page, president; H. M. McFarland, vice-president; E. L. Noyes, cashier.

The next semi-monthly sociable at the vestry will be held Wednesday of next week, January 22. The change is made to Wednesday to better accommodate all, and therefore during the remainder of the season these interesting events will occur every other Wednesday. A pleasing feature of the next sociable will be Widow Sniggles and seven daughters, who will appear in fall dress. March, song and drill by 12 little girls will also be given. Supper from 5 to 8.

Thursday, early in the evening, there was a slight break in the electric lights, caused by the burning out of the transformer in front of the postoffice. Electrician Walden quickly had another transformer in place, however, and the lights were turned on again. Another break occurred in a few minutes, this time something at the power house going astray.

This also was put right in a short time and then all went well. Each day adds new converts to the modern system of illumination and the electricians have work ahead on inside wiring to keep them busy for some time.

The students of the Academy at their lyceum last week Friday evening debated the question, "Resolved —That the United States should interfere to prevent the atrocities in Armenia." Next week Friday evening they hold their next session and will discuss this question, "Resolved —That the position of President Cleveland in regard to the Monroe doctrine is a correct one." Three staunch Democrats are in line for the affirmative and will endeavor to convince all present that the question admits of but one answer, that Grover is right. The public is invited to all these lyceums.

At last the long-looked for snow has come, and great is the rejoicing on all sides. That a few inches of snow could make such a visible difference in business and traffic as must have been discernable to the most unobserving even during the early hours of Monday morning, would seem improbable. But so it was.
Teams loaded with lumber, tan bark, wood, etc., before noon began to arrive in and pass through the village, cutters were flying about and on all sides there were signs of alertness, activity and hustle. For the lumbermen the season is just beginning, and realizing a good thing they will "push it along."

Rt. Rev. Bishop A. C. A. Hall of Burlington presented a powerful discourse Sunday morning, taking for his text Luke 2: 52. The speaker presented Christ's life as the exalted, ideal example of duty to family, duty to friends, duty in public work, of prayer and of suffering, dwelling earnestly on His ability to sympathize as man with man in all that comes to vex and annoy in any of these different phases of life. Especially did he linger on the sacredness and sanctity of the home, the family—the fountain head of all society, municipal, state and national.
The sermon throughout was strong, practical, eloquent, Rev. Dr. Wm. J.
Harris of Rutland assisted the Bishop in the services.

The well-known and popular Shepard Family will appear at town hall Friday evening of this week. The Shepards have been here too frequently to need introduction or recommendation to our people. They give an entertainment clean, bright and thoroughly up-to-date. Several new features have been added to their programme since they were here last. Popular prices. Tickets now on sale at Foss' drug store. A part of the proceeds are to be used to pay for the sidewalk in front of the church.
A good cause. Turn out and give them a full house. The Eastport,
