ERMS TELEGRAPH.

July 30, 1836.

Vermont

At the State House, Montpelier, the adjournment of the General Assembly was ordered to take place on the 30th instant. The Senate was also ordered to adjourn on the same day.

Debates on the bill to incorporate a bank of agriculture, will be resumed on Tuesday next.

END OF SESSION.

Vermont

THE UNIVERSALIST.

July 30, 1836.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From the Middlebury Free Press.

A letter from Mr. A. H. Evens, of Stowe, in which he speaks of an attempt to start a weekly newspaper at that place, is published in the New York Morning Post, under date of the 23d inst. Mr. Evens says that he is determined to establish a weekly newspaper at St.owe, and that he has already obtained a sufficient number of subscribers to ensure its success. The paper will be published on Saturdays, and will consist of about 16 pages.

We have no information of the success of Mr. Evens' enterprise.