Union Service Feb. 15

At the Union Service next Sunday evening at the Cong'l church Rev. Chas. M. Sheldon of Topeka, Kan., will be the speaker.

Mr. Sheldon is known the world over as the author of "In His Steps." This book has been published in 17 different languages, and in America has had a circulation of several million copies and 15,000,000 in Great Britain. The book, which is not copyrighted, has been published by fifteen different houses in this country and fifty houses in other countries. This work gives him a greater acquaintance with more people than any other author. He began his ministry in Waterbury, this state, some thirty years ago and was called to Topeka, Kan., where he built up a church of 1000 members, of which he is now "pastor-at-large."

Mr. Sheldon is on a speaking tour through the United States, speaking at the larger places, and comes to Morrisville because of former associations. He is a son-in-law of E. B. Merriam, well known to many of the older people of Morrisville.

The Sheriff Has Returned

Lamoille county's Sheriff, Geo. Town, has returned from his visit to Washington and has resumed his official duties.

The Sheriff is telling some very interesting tales about his visit to Washington. The climate astonished him, it being 78 in the shade one day, and the green grass grew all around. He passed a wheat field one day and again a few days later, he observed the grain had grown several inches. He visited the capitol and had the pleasure of inspecting, among other places of note, the President's room in that building and sat in the President's chair, being told by a Senator that that chair was "none too good for the Sheriff of Lamoille county." Altogether George had a fine time, but he isn't saying much about his refusing to take a sleeper because he wanted "to be up and dressed if the cars should run off the track."

Bible Reading in the Schools

Editor News and Citizen:—

Believing that a wrong impression was given at the union service Sunday evening in regard to Bible reading in the schools of the town, I wish to make a statement of the actual facts. In the First Primary room Bible stories are told, and a child's prayer is repeated by the children at the morning exercises. In the Second Primary room Bible stories are told, the Lord's Prayer and the Twenty Third Psalm repeated by the pupils. The First and Second Intermediate rooms meet together for morning exercises, where selection from the scriptures, especially adapted for public schools, are read and Lord's Prayer repeated. In the B. Grammar room the Bible is read and the Lord's Prayer repeated. In the A. Grammar room the Lord's Prayer is repeated. At the Academy the Bible is read and the Lord's Prayer repeated, with the assistance of the local pastors regularly each week. Standard religious hymns are sung in the upper grades and High School. Out of the twelve rural schools in session during the winter term, the Bible was read and the Lord's prayer repeated in eleven of them at the morning exercises. Therefore, it is seen that Bible reading is the practice, and not the exception, in the schools of the town.
