Joint resolution offered by Mr. Wheeler requesting the Governor, if not inconsistent with the army regulations, to require that the Chaplains of the regiments from this State shall report steadily of the condition of the volunteers, and that they shall under suitable restriction, receive from the soldiers and forward home such monies as may be entrusted to them for that purpose.

Mr. White moved to amend by providing that these regulations shall be sent forward only when necessary to make up the quota of this State, and by striking out the word three before regiments, and substitute ones carried—yeas 23, nays 5.

On motion of Mr. Woolbridge, a section was added to the bill providing that the Governor may, whenever called upon by the President, under an act of Congress or in a sudden emergency, raise such troops, cavalry, artillery or infantry, as he shall be called on for.

Mr. White moved to add a section providing that all volunteers who may enlist under such call from the Governor, shall be entitled to the same pay and assistance as is furnished volunteers under the act of April 26th.

Mr. Edmunds moved to add a proviso, that families of soldiers not citizens of this State shall receive no assistance from the State—amendment and proviso agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Powers, the bill was ordered to lie, and 350 copies thereof to be printed.

The joint resolution relating to the employment of soldiers in the arrest of fugitive slaves was taken up and supported by Mr. Wheeler, who said that the institution was generally recognized as the cause of the present rebellion, and that the chief promoters thereof openly avowed their desire for an empire with slavery for its corner stone, and he was shocked that there should be any hesitation at disturbing the old land marks.

The proposition for compromise came from the rebels.
