

RATES OF ADVERTISING. One column, one year, $10. Half " " " 5. One square, one year, 6. One square, six months, 4. One square, one month, 1.25. Twelve lines or less make a square.

Indian War in Oregon and Washington.

We have received a late number of the Alta California, which contains news from Oregon and Washington territories of the most exciting character. It represents the Indians of those territories as having banded together to exterminate the whites. Several persons have been murdered and a large amount of property destroyed.

MURDER.—We learn that a man named Andrew Holthrum, living in Compton, C. E., on New Year's night...

IRASBURGH LYCEUM.—On Wednesday evening last, a few of the citizens of this place assembled together for the purpose of forming a lyceum.

COVERDALE'S COURTSHIP.—This is a reprint by Messrs. H. Long & Brother, of a novel by the popular author of "Frank Fairleigh" and other novels.

"AURORA OF THE VALLEY."—We have received numbers 364 and 365 of a newspaper bearing this title, printed at Newbury, Vermont, by L. J. McIndoe.

COLLISION.—The express train from Albany to New York was run into by the train from Poughkeepsie, bound in the same direction, on the 9th inst.

Receipts for the Standard For the week ending January 17th.

A. S. Whipple, Samuel Howard, Samuel Stanford, E. P. Colton, George Bryant, Nathaniel Daggett, A. M. Hawley, Irasburgh, $1.25 each; John Whittle, Irasburgh, 50 cents. Loren Frost, Coventry, $1.25. Orrin Frensh, Glover, $1.25. Wilbur F. Chamberlin, Albany, $1.25. A. C. Joslyn, Thos. J. Barnes, Brownston, $1.25 each. Alexander Jameson, Irasburgh, $1.25. Thomas O. May, Barton, $1.25. Medad Hitchcock, Westfield, $1.25. Sylvester Howard, Irasburgh, $1.25. Sylvester Howard Jr., Maquoketa, Iowa, $1.00.

OUR RAILROAD.—The Passumpsic Extension has been put under contract and the grading of the track will be commenced soon.

For the Standard.

Money! Money!! Money!!! It may be that the reader has already been feeling for his purse to ascertain whether it is secure, or in danger of being rifled by some villain. It is not of such danger I am about to apprise you, if indeed there be any danger at all.

Correspondence.

That every tax-payer has an interest in our common school system, and every other person should have, is unquestionably true; and from the fact that many seem to have no interest further than their pockets, we have supposed that nothing would be so likely to stir them to duty as the cry of money.

A SUPERINTENDENT.

For the Standard. Lyceums. MR. EDITOR.—As your paper appears to be designed to favor all movements which tend to improve and benefit the people of this county, I would like to say a few words in favor of lyceums, or debating societies, and advance a few arguments to prove that they should be more universally supported.

THE U. S. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Washington, Jan. 10. The National Agricultural Society met at the Smithsonian Institute. There was a respectable attendance. President Wilder delivered the annual address. The treasurer's report shows a balance of upwards of four thousand dollars on hand.

Latest from Congress.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Jan. 14. HOUSE.—Mr. Trafton corrected a statement made by Mr. Campbell on Saturday, that there was no Bible in the congressional library.

VERMONT BIBLE SOCIETY.

The report of the Directors was very favorable. The receipts for the year 1855 amount to $5,889.72 which is more than has been raised in any preceding year.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT.

Mr. George Hubbard, of Lyndon Center, came to his death in a sudden manner on Tuesday, the 1st inst. He was drawing a load of hay from Wheelock, and going down the hill he attempted to get upon the load, but for some unexplained reason was drawn under the tongue and roller of the sled.

INTERESTING FROM BERMUDA.

An arrival from Bermuda brings papers to the 26th ult., from which we learn that the United States sloop-of-war Cyane had been to Antigua to inquire into the taking of a colored seaman from an American vessel, under the pretense that he was a slave.

THE POOR AND DESTITUTE OF BOSTON.

By the annual report of Chief of Police Taylor, it appears that during the last year 7860 persons were provided with lodgings in the several station houses they being poor and destitute of a place wherein to lay themselves down to rest.

Col. McCrea, whose escape from a Kansas jail has been a subject of recent congratulation among all the friends of freedom, is in Detroit, where he has been telling the story of his wrongs by invitation of a number of the prominent citizens of that city.

On the 9th inst. quite a number of filibusters were arrested by the U. S. District Attorney, on board the steamer Star of the West, bound for San Juan.

Bingham, the American candidate, was elected Mayor of Pittsburgh on the 9th inst.

Mrs. P. A. Morgan, Boston, died from the effects of chloroform administered by a dentist while having a tooth extracted.

For the Standard.

Money! Money!! Money!!! It may be that the reader has already been feeling for his purse to ascertain whether it is secure, or in danger of being rifled by some villain. It is not of such danger I am about to apprise you, if indeed there be any danger at all.

That every tax-payer has an interest in our common school system, and every other person should have, is unquestionably true; and from the fact that many seem to have no interest further than their pockets, we have supposed that nothing would be so likely to stir them to duty as the cry of money.

A SUPERINTENDENT.

For the Standard. Lyceums. MR. EDITOR.—As your paper appears to be designed to favor all movements which tend to improve and benefit the people of this county, I would like to say a few words in favor of lyceums, or debating societies, and advance a few arguments to prove that they should be more universally supported.

THE U. S. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Washington, Jan. 10. The National Agricultural Society met at the Smithsonian Institute. There was a respectable attendance. President Wilder delivered the annual address. The treasurer's report shows a balance of upwards of four thousand dollars on hand.

Latest from Congress.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Jan. 14. HOUSE.—Mr. Trafton corrected a statement made by Mr. Campbell on Saturday, that there was no Bible in the congressional library.

VERMONT BIBLE SOCIETY.

The report of the Directors was very favorable. The receipts for the year 1855 amount to $5,889.72 which is more than has been raised in any preceding year.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT.

Mr. George Hubbard, of Lyndon Center, came to his death in a sudden manner on Tuesday, the 1st inst. He was drawing a load of hay from Wheelock, and going down the hill he attempted to get upon the load, but for some unexplained reason was drawn under the tongue and roller of the sled.

INTERESTING FROM BERMUDA.

An arrival from Bermuda brings papers to the 26th ult., from which we learn that the United States sloop-of-war Cyane had been to Antigua to inquire into the taking of a colored seaman from an American vessel, under the pretense that he was a slave.

THE POOR AND DESTITUTE OF BOSTON.

By the annual report of Chief of Police Taylor, it appears that during the last year 7860 persons were provided with lodgings in the several station houses they being poor and destitute of a place wherein to lay themselves down to rest.

Col. McCrea, whose escape from a Kansas jail has been a subject of recent congratulation among all the friends of freedom, is in Detroit, where he has been telling the story of his wrongs by invitation of a number of the prominent citizens of that city.

On the 9th inst. quite a number of filibusters were arrested by the U. S. District Attorney, on board the steamer Star of the West, bound for San Juan.

Bingham, the American candidate, was elected Mayor of Pittsburgh on the 9th inst.

Mrs. P. A. Morgan, Boston, died from the effects of chloroform administered by a dentist while having a tooth extracted.

For the Standard.

Money! Money!! Money!!! It may be that the reader has already been feeling for his purse to ascertain whether it is secure, or in danger of being rifled by some villain. It is not of such danger I am about to apprise you, if indeed there be any danger at all.

That every tax-payer has an interest in our common school system, and every other person should have, is unquestionably true; and from the fact that many seem to have no interest further than their pockets, we have supposed that nothing would be so likely to stir them to duty as the cry of money.

A SUPERINTENDENT.

For the Standard. Lyceums. MR. EDITOR.—As your paper appears to be designed to favor all movements which tend to improve and benefit the people of this county, I would like to say a few words in favor of lyceums, or debating societies, and advance a few arguments to prove that they should be more universally supported.

THE U. S. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Washington, Jan. 10. The National Agricultural Society met at the Smithsonian Institute. There was a respectable attendance. President Wilder delivered the annual address. The treasurer's report shows a balance of upwards of four thousand dollars on hand.

Latest from Congress.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Jan. 14. HOUSE.—Mr. Trafton corrected a statement made by Mr. Campbell on Saturday, that there was no Bible in the congressional library.

VERMONT BIBLE SOCIETY.

The report of the Directors was very favorable. The receipts for the year 1855 amount to $5,889.72 which is more than has been raised in any preceding year.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT.

Mr. George Hubbard, of Lyndon Center, came to his death in a sudden manner on Tuesday, the 1st inst. He was drawing a load of hay from Wheelock, and going down the hill he attempted to get upon the load, but for some unexplained reason was drawn under the tongue and roller of the sled.

INTERESTING FROM BERMUDA.

An arrival from Bermuda brings papers to the 26th ult., from which we learn that the United States sloop-of-war Cyane had been to Antigua to inquire into the taking of a colored seaman from an American vessel, under the pretense that he was a slave.

THE POOR AND DESTITUTE OF BOSTON.

By the annual report of Chief of Police Taylor, it appears that during the last year 7860 persons were provided with lodgings in the several station houses they being poor and destitute of a place wherein to lay themselves down to rest.

Col. McCrea, whose escape from a Kansas jail has been a subject of recent congratulation among all the friends of freedom, is in Detroit, where he has been telling the story of his wrongs by invitation of a number of the prominent citizens of that city.

On the 9th inst. quite a number of filibusters were arrested by the U. S. District Attorney, on board the steamer Star of the West, bound for San Juan.

Bingham, the American candidate, was elected Mayor of Pittsburgh on the 9th inst.

Mrs. P. A. Morgan, Boston, died from the effects of chloroform administered by a dentist while having a tooth extracted.

For the Standard.

Money! Money!! Money!!! It may be that the reader has already been feeling for his purse to ascertain whether it is secure, or in danger of being rifled by some villain. It is not of such danger I am about to apprise you, if indeed there be any danger at all.

That every tax-payer has an interest in our common school system, and every other person should have, is unquestionably true; and from the fact that many seem to have no interest further than their pockets, we have supposed that nothing would be so likely to stir them to duty as the cry of money.

A SUPERINTENDENT.

For the Standard. Lyceums. MR. EDITOR.—As your paper appears to be designed to favor all movements which tend to improve and benefit the people of this county, I would like to say a few words in favor of lyceums, or debating societies, and advance a few arguments to prove that they should be more universally supported.

THE U. S. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Washington, Jan. 10. The National Agricultural Society met at the Smithsonian Institute. There was a respectable attendance. President Wilder delivered the annual address. The treasurer's report shows a balance of upwards of four thousand dollars on hand.

Latest from Congress.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Jan. 14. HOUSE.—Mr. Trafton corrected a statement made by Mr. Campbell on Saturday, that there was no Bible in the congressional library.

VERMONT BIBLE SOCIETY.

The report of the Directors was very favorable. The receipts for the year 1855 amount to $5,889.72 which is more than has been raised in any preceding year.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT.

Mr. George Hubbard, of Lyndon Center, came to his death in a sudden manner on Tuesday, the 1st inst. He was drawing a load of hay from Wheelock, and going down the hill he attempted to get upon the load, but for some unexplained reason was drawn under the tongue and roller of the sled.

INTERESTING FROM BERMUDA.

An arrival from Bermuda brings papers to the 26th ult., from which we learn that the United States sloop-of-war Cyane had been to Antigua to inquire into the taking of a colored seaman from an American vessel, under the pretense that he was a slave.

THE POOR AND DESTITUTE OF BOSTON.

By the annual report of Chief of Police Taylor, it appears that during the last year 7860 persons were provided with lodgings in the several station houses they being poor and destitute of a place wherein to lay themselves down to rest.

Col. McCrea, whose escape from a Kansas jail has been a subject of recent congratulation among all the friends of freedom, is in Detroit, where he has been telling the story of his wrongs by invitation of a number of the prominent citizens of that city.

On the 9th inst. quite a number of filibusters were arrested by the U. S. District Attorney, on board the steamer Star of the West, bound for San Juan.

Bingham, the American candidate, was elected Mayor of Pittsburgh on the 9th inst.

Mrs. P. A. Morgan, Boston, died from the effects of chloroform administered by a dentist while having a tooth extracted.

For the Standard.

Money! Money!! Money!!! It may be that the reader has already been feeling for his purse to ascertain whether it is secure, or in danger of being rifled by some villain. It is not of such danger I am about to apprise you, if indeed there be any danger at all.

That every tax-payer has an interest in our common school system, and every other person should have, is unquestionably true; and from the fact that many seem to have no interest further than their pockets, we have supposed that nothing would be so likely to stir them to duty as the cry of money.

A SUPERINTENDENT.

For the Standard. Lyceums. MR. EDITOR.—As your paper appears to be designed to favor all movements which tend to improve and benefit the people of this county, I would like to say a few words in favor of lyceums, or debating societies, and advance a few arguments to prove that they should be more universally supported.

THE U. S. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Washington, Jan. 10. The National Agricultural Society met at the Smithsonian Institute. There was a respectable attendance. President Wilder delivered the annual address. The treasurer's report shows a balance of upwards of four thousand dollars on hand.

Latest from Congress.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Jan. 14. HOUSE.—Mr. Trafton corrected a statement made by Mr. Campbell on Saturday, that there was no Bible in the congressional library.

VERMONT BIBLE SOCIETY.

The report of the Directors was very favorable. The receipts for the year 1855 amount to $5,889.72 which is more than has been raised in any preceding year.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT.

Mr. George Hubbard, of Lyndon Center, came to his death in a sudden manner on Tuesday, the 1st inst. He was drawing a load of hay from Wheelock, and going down the hill he attempted to get upon the load, but for some unexplained reason was drawn under the tongue and roller of the sled.

INTERESTING FROM BERMUDA.

An arrival from Bermuda brings papers to the 26th ult., from which we learn that the United States sloop-of-war Cyane had been to Antigua to inquire into the taking of a colored seaman from an American vessel, under the pretense that he was a slave.

THE POOR AND DESTITUTE OF BOSTON.

By the annual report of Chief of Police Taylor, it appears that during the last year 7860 persons were provided with lodgings in the several station houses they being poor and destitute of a place wherein to lay themselves down to rest.

Col. McCrea, whose escape from a Kansas jail has been a subject of recent congratulation among all the friends of freedom, is in Detroit, where he has been telling the story of his wrongs by invitation of a number of the prominent citizens of that city.

On the 9th inst. quite a number of filibusters were arrested by the U. S. District Attorney, on board the steamer Star of the West, bound for San Juan.

Bingham, the American candidate, was elected Mayor of Pittsburgh on the 9th inst.

Mrs. P. A. Morgan, Boston, died from the effects of chloroform administered by a dentist while having a tooth extracted.

For the Standard.

Money! Money!! Money!!! It may be that the reader has already been feeling for his purse to ascertain whether it is secure, or in danger of being rifled by some villain. It is not of such danger I am about to apprise you, if indeed there be any danger at all.

That every tax-payer has an interest in our common school system, and every other person should have, is unquestionably true; and from the fact that many seem to have no interest further than their pockets, we have supposed that nothing would be so likely to stir them to duty as the cry of money.

A SUPERINTENDENT.

For the Standard. Lyceums. MR. EDITOR.—As your paper appears to be designed to favor all movements which tend to improve and benefit the people of this county, I would like to say a few words in favor of lyceums, or debating societies, and advance a few arguments to prove that they should be more universally supported.

THE U. S. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Washington, Jan. 10. The National Agricultural Society met at the Smithsonian Institute. There was a respectable attendance. President Wilder delivered the annual address. The treasurer's report shows a balance of upwards of four thousand dollars on hand.

Latest from Congress.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Jan. 14. HOUSE.—Mr. Trafton corrected a statement made by Mr. Campbell on Saturday, that there was no Bible in the congressional library.

VERMONT BIBLE SOCIETY.

The report of the Directors was very favorable. The receipts for the year 1855 amount to $5,889.72 which is more than has been raised in any preceding year.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT.

Mr. George Hubbard, of Lyndon Center, came to his death in a sudden manner on Tuesday, the 1st inst. He was drawing a load of hay from Wheelock, and going down the hill he attempted to get upon the load, but for some unexplained reason was drawn under the tongue and roller of the sled.

INTERESTING FROM BERMUDA.

An arrival from Bermuda brings papers to the 26th ult., from which we learn that the United States sloop-of-war Cyane had been to Antigua to inquire into the taking of a colored seaman from an American vessel, under the pretense that he was a slave.

THE POOR AND DESTITUTE OF BOSTON.

By the annual report of Chief of Police Taylor, it appears that during the last year 7860 persons were provided with lodgings in the several station houses they being poor and destitute of a place wherein to lay themselves down to rest.

Col. McCrea, whose escape from a Kansas jail has been a subject of recent congratulation among all the friends of freedom, is in Detroit, where he has been telling the story of his wrongs by invitation of a number of the prominent citizens of that city.

On the 9th inst. quite a number of filibusters were arrested by the U. S. District Attorney, on board the steamer Star of the West, bound for San Juan.

Bingham, the American candidate, was elected Mayor of Pittsburgh on the 9th inst.

Mrs. P. A. Morgan, Boston, died from the effects of chloroform administered by a dentist while having a tooth extracted.

For the Standard.

Money! Money!! Money!!! It may be that the reader has already been feeling for his purse to ascertain whether it is secure, or in danger of being rifled by some villain. It is not of such danger I am about to apprise you, if indeed there be any danger at all.

That every tax-payer has an interest in our common school system, and every other person should have, is unquestionably true; and from the fact that many seem to have no interest further than their pockets, we have supposed that nothing would be so likely to stir them to duty as the cry of money.

A SUPERINTENDENT.

For the Standard. Lyceums. MR. EDITOR.—As your paper appears to be designed to favor all movements which tend to improve and benefit the people of this county, I would like to say a few words in favor of lyceums, or debating societies, and advance a few arguments to prove that they should be more universally supported.

THE U. S. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Washington, Jan. 10. The National Agricultural Society met at the Smithsonian Institute. There was a respectable attendance. President Wilder delivered the annual address. The treasurer's report shows a balance of upwards of four thousand dollars on hand.

Latest from Congress.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Jan. 14. HOUSE.—Mr. Trafton corrected a statement made by Mr. Campbell on Saturday, that there was no Bible in the congressional library.

VERMONT BIBLE SOCIETY.

The report of the Directors was very favorable. The receipts for the year 1855 amount to $5,889.72 which is more than has been raised in any preceding year.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT.

Mr. George Hubbard, of Lyndon Center, came to his death in a sudden manner on Tuesday, the 1st inst. He was drawing a load of hay from Wheelock, and going down the hill he attempted to get upon the load, but for some unexplained reason was drawn under the tongue and roller of the sled.

INTERESTING FROM BERMUDA.

An arrival from Bermuda brings papers to the 26th ult., from which we learn that the United States sloop-of-war Cyane had been to Antigua to inquire into the taking of a colored seaman from an American vessel, under the pretense that he was a slave.

THE POOR AND DESTITUTE OF BOSTON.

By the annual report of Chief of Police Taylor, it appears that during the last year 7860 persons were provided with lodgings in the several station houses they being poor and destitute of a place wherein to lay themselves down to rest.

Col. McCrea, whose escape from a Kansas jail has been a subject of recent congratulation among all the friends of freedom, is in Detroit, where he has been telling the story of his wrongs by invitation of a number of the prominent citizens of that city.

On the 9th inst. quite a number of filibusters were arrested by the U. S. District Attorney, on board the steamer Star of the West, bound for San Juan.

Bingham, the American candidate, was elected Mayor of Pittsburgh on the 9th inst.

Mrs. P. A. Morgan, Boston, died from the effects of chloroform administered by a dentist while having a tooth extracted.