

Foreign News.

Arrival of the Canadian. GREAT BRITAIN. Sir Wm. Temple, Minister to Naples, Lord Palmerston's only brother, is dead.

Mr. Speaker Banks. The Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post pays the following well-merited compliment to the Hon. N. P. Banks:

Spain. We continue, without definite intelligence from Spain. The government is occupied in appointing new officers to all the civil departments, and they are mostly appointed from the liberal section.

Portugal. The bread riots are over and quiet is restored. Cholera is on the decline in Lisbon. The Portuguese government announces a loan of 1500 contos, in six per cent. bonds, for public works.

Italy. The principal items of news come in a sheet not strictly reliable, namely, that the King of Naples, by the advice of Austria, demands to submit his differences with the western powers to the arbitration of a European Congress.

Austria. Austria has ordered the sequestration of the Lombard exiles to be sold. Prussia. The Prussian papers publish minute accounts of the recent encounter between the corvette Danzig, and the late pirate.

Denmark. A letter from Hamburg says that in the affairs of the Sound dues, great hopes are entertained that England will speedily accede to the plan of capitalization.

Russia. The following dispatch comes from Constantinople: August 15.—The Russian reply gives hopes of the surrender of Belgrade. Hussein Pacha is to receive Kara from the Russian Colonel Melekov.

On Monday evening of last week a fire broke out in the passenger depot at Brattleboro, and before the flames could be extinguished, the building was greatly damaged.
