

WHAT COMES

after a successful cut price sale? Odds and ends of broken lines as naturally as ducks take to water, therefore we have picked out all such goods, which comprise Boots, Shoes, Oxfords and Slippers for men, women and children, and marked them down at prices regardless of cost, such as 79c, 99c, $1.19, $1.39, $1.49, $1.69, $1.99, $2.39, $2.49 and $2.69, which is sure to clean out the whole lot. While you can get excellent bargains here you can also get all the latest styles of Footwear.

J. T. KEEFE,

WE REPAIR SHOES. Bellows Falls, Vt.

Fishing Tackle !!

Before buying we have a fine line we would be pleased to show you

SPLIT BAMBO POLES $1.00. STEEL RODS, $4.50.

Baskets, Reels, Lines, Hooks, Bait Boxes, Sinkers.

Shakespeare Revolution and Phantom Baits, Drinking Cups. Buy a Fish Scale and tell a good story.

Howard Hardware Co.

THEY'RE GOING At a Pretty Fast Clip

I refer to the different styles of Carriages and Harness I have, and will only be too glad to have you come in and look them over.

Stylish, well made, durable and the lowest possible price. My line of Surreys is complete.

W. G. PARKER.

SUCCESSOR TO KIMBALL CARRIAGE CO., BRANCH. CANAL ST.

Nothing Better Than the Best !!

BARRE GRANITE IS THE STANDARD.

The claim often is made for other Granites that they are as good as Barre, but never that they are better. You are told it is dearer. That is not so. It may cost at times a little more, but the final result makes it the cheapest. Barre Granite not only is the BEST but also the CHEAPEST.

C. D. SWASEY & CO.

Office and Works Opposite Vt. Station, Barre, Vt. Mfg., Barre Granite and General Line of Cemetery Work

Refrigerators !!

A NEW LINE,

Prices range from $12 to $15.

OIL STOVES, most complete line ever carried in Saxtons River. Prices range from 65c to $15.

We wish to call your attention to the complete line of Lisk's Tin and four-coated Enamel Ware.

WASH BOILERS, $1.75 to $3.50. Our line was never so complete as now.

OUR GROCERY DEPARTMENT.

The public well knows that our grades of Groceries, Fruit and confectionery are the best. We shall endeavor in the future to give our patrons prompt attention in this line. We shall appreciate your continued patronage.

FAY S. FULLER,

SUCCESSOR TO SIMONDS & FULLER, SAXTONS RIVER, VT.

Bellovs Falls Times

THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1923.

WINDHAM COUNTY COURT.

Term Closed Friday—List of Divorces Granted.

In addition to the cases already reported the following court business was transacted during the term.

Austin H. Lackey vs. M. W. Newton, Apt.; judgment for plaintiff on report of O. E. Butterfield, referee, for $59.40 and costs. Burt Chellis vs. Charles A. and Walter Castle; judgment for plaintiff, Nellie Finney vs. John F. Alexander, Jr.; judgment for plaintiff on report of O. E. Butterfield, referee, for $61 and costs. L. H. Stellman, Apt., vs. Burt Chellis; judgment for plaintiff on report of Referee O. E. Butterfield for $15; exceptions by both parties. C. G. Staples, Admr., vs. Manley Bros., Apts., referred to P. A. Bolles. William M. Martin vs. Henry E. Adams and trustee; judgment for plaintiff by stipulation for $100 without costs. Charles S. White vs. Bellovs Falls Lumber company, Apt.; judgment for plaintiff for $200 and costs with interest. S. J. Cray, Apt., vs. Bellovs Falls Lumber company; judgment for plaintiff for $200, interest and costs. John Galvin vs. Edward R. Lynch; judgment for plaintiff as per stipulation. Arthur C. Spencer vs. T. E. Stockwell; judgment for plaintiff on agreed statement of facts; exceptions by defendant. Clarence S. Stockwell vs. Frank J. Bailey, Apt. and trustee; judgment for plaintiff for $121 and costs; continued as to trustee.

Lewis A. Day vs. Luella F. Noyes and trustee; judgment for plaintiff; James C. Day vs. Luella F. Noyes and trustee; judgment for plaintiff; Harriet R. Wilbur vs. Ezra L. and Julia L. Fisher; judgment for plaintiff. Margaret Fortier vs. George E. Page and trustee; judgment that the trustees are not chargeable, that the claimant is entitled to the fund, and that the trustees and claimant recover their costs; exceptions by plaintiff. O. H. Carpenter vs. Luella F. Noyes and trustee; judgment for plaintiff against defendant and trustee. Executors of Mary E. Goodhue vs. Charles H. Thompson; judgment to account as per stipulation; J. G. Sargent, auditor. Francis A. Sylvester vs. Lorenzo H. Gore; judgment for plaintiff; damages assessed at $465.27. The White-Warner company vs. John J. O'Neil; judgment for plaintiff. T. M. Lewis vs. George M. Cory; judgment for plaintiff by default.

Charles C. Bartlett vs. Daniel P. Prescott and trustee. This case was the subject of much controversy during the term over the report of J. A. Merrill, referee, who found a balance of some $3300 due the plaintiff about double the sum for which the writ was brought to recover. The case was finally re-committed to the referee for further argument by counsel. In the case of Guildford vs. O'Brien & Shelan and trustee, growing out of the construction of the Rutland Canadian R. R., C. H. Williams was appointed commissioner. Elroy Kent pleaded guilty to the larceny of $8 in money from a relative in Brattleboro and was sentenced to the state prison for a maximum term of 2 1/2 yrs., minimum term of 2 years. Emil Bowman, the Swede who committed an assault on a fellow workman at West Dummerston last spring, was released on his own recognizance in the sum of $300, his Brattleboro friends agreeing to look after him. Morton Williams of Jamaica was fined $15 and costs for larceny.

The following divorces were granted during the term: Fred W. Morse from Bertha L. Morse, for willful desertion; May Provost from George Provost, intolerable severity; Alice M. Dean from Robert H. Dean, intolerable severity; Judson H. Cole from Nellie May Cole, desertion; Estella Felton from Edward O. Felton, intolerable severity; Margaret Taylor from Henry Leroy Taylor, willful refusal to support; Henry S. Whidden from Lottie R. Whidden, adultery; Pattie D. Scott from Richard M. Scott, desertion; Elsie E. Goodell from Ernest H. Goodell, intolerable severity and refusal to support; Anna L. Greenleaf from Melvin C. Greenleaf, desertion; Mabel E. Farnsworth from Sidney D. Farnsworth, willful refusal to support; Amanda L. Rand from Frank T. Rand, desertion; Millie T. Jones from Myron A. Jones, intolerable severity; Elsie C. Paige from Frederick W. Paige, refusal to support; Joshua H. Blakely from Mary S. Blakely, intolerable severity.

Decrees of foreclosure were granted as follows: George G. Smith vs. Charles B. Alexander; Bellovs Falls Savings Institution vs. Charles A. Dickinson, et al.; George E. Evans vs. C. A. Dickinson, et al.; Edgar H. Davenport vs. Herbert N. Gunn, et al.; Joseph F. Boyce vs. Mary J. McVeigh; Charles E. Tyler vs. Irwin J. Carey and wife; Brattleboro Savings bank vs. Moses D. Fisher, et al.; Brattleboro Savings bank vs. Charles H. Davenport, et al.; Wilmington Savings bank vs. George E. Albertson; John F. Alexander, Jr., vs. Ursula B. Stevens, et al.; Herman Holt vs. Sarah L. Nichols; Herman Holt vs. Elmira L. and L. W. Tuttle; Burt Chellis vs. Edwin W. Tuttle; Herbert G. Barber vs. Arthur G. Belden, et al.; George T. Lovell vs. Edwin C. Barrett; Alma E. Griffin vs. F. E. and Laura Batty.

Chancellor Munson filed a decretal order in Chilson C. Fairbanks and wife vs. Town of Rockingham. The town is to pay Jessie M. Parker $1205.60 and Chilson C. Fairbank, E. C. Fairbank, administrator, and Lily A. Fairbank $2794.80, and $200 additional in event the street shall be worked the full surveyed width. In case Alonzo P. Clough vs. Moses and Willie F. Johnson the chancellor's decision was in favor of the plaintiff. Final adjournment was had Saturday morning, May 2.

MARRIED.

In Weston, May 1, by Rev. F. A. Woodworth, Isaac F. Smith of Weston and Mrs. Jennie Brown of Newport, N. H.

ALSTEAD.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sherwin are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter Sunday, May 3. Mrs. Blythe, who has been stopping for some time at Mr. Sherwin's at Bellovs Falls, is with the family as nurse.

C. H. Dunton passed Sunday with Mrs. Dunton, who is caring for her aged parents in the village, returning to Worcester Tuesday.

Rev. J. P. Richardson is away for the week with friends in Dracut, Mass., his native town.

Miss S. A. Porter is away at this date, a guest of Mrs. C. P. Smith at Acworth.

Following the adjournment of school Monday next the "Happy Helpers" will hold a meeting at the vestry to which the public is cordially invited. Music and other exercises will be of interest to all who desire to know what this band of mercy is engaged in doing.

Miss Fiske declining to serve upon the committee to make arrangements for Children's day, Mrs. E. M. Smith has been chosen in her stead.

Miss Blanche Chapin expects to complete her vacation and return to St. Mary's convent, Manchester, this week.

Mrs. B. E. Foster, who assisted Miss Black in the millinery department while in this village last week, accompanied her to South Acworth Monday, remaining three days.

Improvements have been in progress for the past days at the Samuel Chandler home, painting, papering, etc.

The ball held at the town hall Friday evening drew together a pleasant company, 82 tickets having been sold. The K. of P. band furnished the music, giving an enjoyable concert during the evening. A portion of the evening, the affair, which was under the auspices of the grange people of Warren Pond grange, netted the society a little above $40.

The Misses Turner, Stone and Cooke attended services at the Episcopal church at Drewsville, Sunday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Shrimpton of Athol, Mass., served as rector.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Anderson and Marceline were with Mrs. Anderson's parents at Lemper over Sunday.

W. B. Webster was in town from Greenfield, Mass., to attend the dance Friday evening.

Dame Runnor has it that C. H. Blythe returns to this place for a permanent stay shortly.

Miss Bessie Farr of Holyoke, Mass., who has but recently returned from a tour abroad, is expected here as the guest of Miss Luella Turner, in the near future.

Galen Howard as knight of the robes, with Mesdames Lewis, Wallace and Griffin, was at Acworth early in the week.

Miss Beatrice M. Porter, a student at the Rutland Business college, was home from Friday till Monday and though entering the school but a short time since her average for the past month was 91.30, stenography and typewriting being entirely new studies. Her department was perfect, marking 10.

As E. G. Buswell and G. C. Dismore driving down Church hill Sunday afternoon at a lively pace, reined the animal to the home yard, the buggy was overturned throwing the occupants to the ground. Mr. Buswell received the greater shock but was soon on his feet moving around as though perfectly unincumbered. The buggy was somewhat demolished and taken all in all it was a narrow escape.

Mrs. G. F. Lewis and Mrs. R. H. Bridget drove to Marlow Wednesday week and passed the day at C. L. Lewis'.

The Al Martz entertainment on Tuesday evening was well patronized as it deserved.

As E. G. Buswell and G. C. Dismore driving down Church hill Sunday afternoon at a lively pace, reined the animal to the home yard, the buggy was overturned throwing the occupants to the ground. Mr. Buswell received the greater shock but was soon on his feet moving around as though perfectly unincumbered. The buggy was somewhat demolished and taken all in all it was a narrow escape.

Mrs. G. F. Lewis and Mrs. R. H. Bridget drove to Marlow Wednesday week and passed the day at C. L. Lewis'.

The Al Martz entertainment on Tuesday evening was well patronized as it deserved.

Warren J. Sherwin, whose home at Grafton has been saddened by the passing on of his wife, is to make this village his home with his son, F. W. Sherwin.

The arrangements so far perfected for the observance of Memorial day are that the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will attend divine service in a body on Sunday afternoon, May 24, at Alstead Center. Rev. H. S. Ives is the pastor. Walpole band furnishes the music and George Parsons of West Concord will deliver the oration.

Warren J. Sherwin, whose home at Grafton has been saddened by the passing on of his wife, is to make this village his home with his son, F. W. Sherwin.

The arrangements so far perfected for the observance of Memorial day are that the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will attend divine service in a body on Sunday afternoon, May 24, at Alstead Center. Rev. H. S. Ives is the pastor. Walpole band furnishes the music and George Parsons of West Concord will deliver the oration.

Warren J. Sherwin, whose home at Grafton has been saddened by the passing on of his wife, is to make this village his home with his son, F. W. Sherwin.

The arrangements so far perfected for the observance of Memorial day are that the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will attend divine service in a body on Sunday afternoon, May 24, at Alstead Center. Rev. H. S. Ives is the pastor. Walpole band furnishes the music and George Parsons of West Concord will deliver the oration.

While we noticed very little activity in this section on Arbor day, much shrubbery has been purchased by our people this spring, and many fruit and shade trees have been set along the way and about the orchards and lawns.

WALPOLE.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Velnor Long have a daughter born April 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Cameron have a daughter born April 23.

Charles E. Sargent of Ware, Mass., has erected a granite stone in the village cemetery in memory of his wife.

Gen. T. Nelson Hastings went to Boston Monday.

Horace A. Perry appeared Monday with his depot carriage newly painted.

Mrs. H. W. Bellows and her daughter, Miss Ellen D. Bellows of Boston, sailed Saturday on the Commonwealth for a stay abroad.

Mrs. Harrison P. Bridge spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Mary Tobey. Mrs. Bridge and her son Gardiner together with the Misses Lockwood sailed for Europe Tuesday, May 5, leaving Boston on the Cunard S. S. Saxonia.

Patrick Drishane has replaced the piazza on his house, which was demolished by a snow slide last winter.

Nathaniel W. Holland has been repairing the piazza on his house during the last week.

Mrs. C. W. Shaw returned Thursday, April 30, from a short visit in Boston.

Much interest has been aroused during the last week over the forthcoming benefit given by the Walpole brass band. Ever since the band was organized it has been a popular institution in town and the concert and ball Wednesday evening was well patronized. One object the band has in giving the benefit is to enable them to buy uniforms. Several of the local tradesmen generously donated various articles from their stock to be voted upon and to be awarded by clever guessing. Among those who were a doll given by Knowlton & Buffum voted for the most popular girl in town; a barrel of flour given by Perry & Porter, as the result of guessing the number of seeds in a squash; five pounds of candy given by John A. Walpole; a pair of shoes given by E. A. Spaulding; a game stove given by Charles W. Morse and a box of cigars given by Frank Sibley.

Mrs. H. H. Sawyer returned from her visit in Boston and Somerville, Mass., early last week.

Mrs. W. C. Baining returned Wednesday, April 29, from a visit of several weeks in Boston and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick I. Nichols visited with Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hayward last week, leaving for Greenfield, Mass., Saturday.

Episcopal services were held Sunday, May 3, in the parish room by Rev. Mr. Shrimpton of Athol, Mass. Rev. Mr. Shrimpton will also conduct services in town next Sunday, May 10.

Judge Henry Howland and Miss Frances Howland visited Mon. and Mrs. J. G. Bellows last week. Dr. John Howland also spent Sunday in town.

The Ladies' Sewing society of the Unitarian church will hold a meeting Thursday, May 7, at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. F. A. Lebourveau.

Mrs. Helen M. Bates arrived in town Friday, May 1, and has opened her summer residence.

The Misses Sablin have sold their farm at the top of High street to Edward W. Morse of Brookline, Mass. Mr. Morse spent Sunday in town visiting Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hayward. He expects to move his furniture this week and follow with his family soon after to spend the summer months.

The Women's Alliance held its regular monthly meeting with Miss Mary H. Bellows Friday afternoon, May 1. After the usual business was transacted Alfred Howland, the artist, entertained the ladies and guests present with a descriptive talk concerning his travels in France, Germany and Holland. He told of each place visited as it appeared to the artist and also added enough of personal reminiscence to lend especial interest to his description. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Howland at the close and all present felt they had had an unusually interesting meeting.

Miss Fannie P. Mason arrived on Saturday, May 2, and will spend a few months at the Boggy Meadow residence.

Mrs. Dickey observed her 51st birthday Tuesday, May 5.

W. W. Porter went to Boston Tuesday for a business trip.

The members of Congregational Home club will meet at the Congregational church parlors Wednesday afternoon, May 13, at half past two o'clock.

THE FEDERATION MEETING. The Federation of the Young People's Religious Unions of the Upper Connecticut Valley will meet in the Unitarian church, Walpole, Saturday afternoon, May 9. Delegates are expected from Brattleboro and Windsor, Vt., Lebanon, Charlestown, Keese, Dublin and Peterboro, N. H., and Windenolton, Mass. The delegates will be entertained by the local union in the parish house and lunch will be served at 12:30 o'clock. The public meeting at the church will be open for all and will commence at 2:15 o'clock p. m. There will be addresses and reports from unions. Rev. J. D. Reid of Greenfield, Mass., will give an address upon "The Supremacy of the Lord." Rev. Charles B. Elder of Keese, N. H., will speak upon the "Value of Federation Meetings." There will also be singing and other exercises. The local union which is small in numbers expresses the hope that the people of the church and others will turn out well to the public meeting.

HOUGHTONVILLE. On Wednesday, May 20, the real estate of the late John Blood will be sold at public auction as advertised in another column.

The services and Sunday school opened last Sunday with good attendance. We hope all who can will come. The more there are the more interesting for all.

A. C. Nourse has been to Peru and returned. Mrs. Nourse went on to Manchester and Dorset visiting friends.

Mrs. Marie Bushee has gone to Spafford, N. H.

Mrs. Corey and Mr. and Mrs. Cole and child visited with Mrs. Hill's recently.

BLUE FLAME OIL AND GASOLINE STOVES

will be used more this year than ever before. I have a few of each leftover from last season that will be sold at cost and less.

I also have a very few second hand stoves in first-class condition that are bargains.

Geo. B. Albee. BELLOVS FALLS, VT.

HAVE YOU TRIED

SMITHS' BUCHU AND LITHIA KIDNEY PILLS?

Well! They are all Right.

WE SELL THEM.

AT

Fuller's Pharmacy

TELEPHONE, 10--12.

E. L. WALKER, President. C. E. HOWARD, Vice-President. A. H. CHANDLER, Treasurer.

Bellovs Falls Trust Co.

CAPITAL, $100,000.

Transacts a General Banking Business. SAVINGS BANK DEPARTMENT.

Safe Deposit Boxes in a fire and burglar proof vault to rent at reasonable rates.

Accounts of Individuals, Firms and Corporations Respectfully Solicited.

PLANTS

I wish to state to the public that Mr. C. Rice, the well-known gardener of this city, has entire charge of my Greenhouses and Herbets this season and has now in stock and in first-class condition ready for sale Geraniums, Heliotrope, Coleus, Asters, and a variety of Bedding plants. He is growing 10,000 Tomato plants and has the earliest Tomato in cultivation to this date, besides several of the best known standard tomatoes. Do not fail to try his new early variety of Tomato, as it is a winner.

Cabbage plants by the dozen or thousand now ready to set; they are frost-proof. Celery plants in their season by the thousands.

Chas. W. Butterfield. SCHOOL ST., - - - BELLOVS FALLS.

TWO GREAT HOSIERY BARGAINS !!

Ladies' fine gauge Black Hose, regular 25c quality and sold by all other stores at that price. Our price on this lot of 100 dozen Just 15c per pair.

Children's fine ribbed Black Hose, regular 15c quality but slightly imperfect, sizes 5 to 10 only 10c per pair.

3 pairs for 25c.

AT

Pollard's Specialty Store. UNION BLOCK, BELLOVS FALLS, VT

THE AMERICAN FIDELITY CO. MONTEPELIER, VT. SURETY BONDS ACCIDENT INSURANCE. E. L. Walker, Bellovs Falls. Lawrence & Wheeler, Springfield. A. H. Humphrey, Ludlow. J. C. Eyrigh, Windsor. AGENTS.

VIOLIN RECITAL! MISS H. W. GOVE and PUPILS assisted by MISS EVA BURGE, Accompanist, and MR. H. W. HEATH, Reader, at FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, ---ON--- Monday, May 11, 1923, 8.00 P. M. ADMISSION = = 25c. Tickets on sale at Mason's Music Store and Fuller's Drug Store.