Strike Leader Tells of Grays Harbor Tie-Up

A WAVORIUM in his office, E. F. S. Smith, president of the United Textile Workers Union Local 836, and national vice-president, told the readers of the Tacoma Daily Times yesterday afternoon what plans the union has to carry on the long fight for a righteous settlement of the Grays Harbor tie-up.

A wireless message was received by Mr. Smith late last night from布局, Washington, where the president of the Pacific Coast Textile Workers Union had his headquarters. It was learned that the Grays Harbor tie-up is being carried on with the same determination that was shown last fall and winter. The strike leaders are determined to continue the fight till the wrongs are made right.

Gave Up Life To Save His Son

A MAN WHOSE life was saved by his courageous act of love and devotion has had the sorrow of losing his son. He has been taken to the hospital in critical condition from the shock of the death of his son.

The man is a leading business man in the city and is well known for his philanthropy. He has given generously to the charities and is a leader in the community. His son was a fine young man, active in the Boy Scouts and a leader in the school. His death is a great loss to the community.

ESCAPES DEATH UNDER WHEELS

Two young men were killed in an auto accident last night. One of them was a celebrated athlete, well known for his skill in sports.

The accident occurred on the outskirts of the city. The car was going at a high speed and collided with a tree, killing both occupants. The driver was a well-known sportsman, and the passenger was a young man who was about to be married.

Father of the House Dies; 23 Years in Job

A DISTINGUISHED member of Congress died yesterday. He was a prominent figure in national politics for many years, and his death is a great loss to the country.

Mr. Smith, the speaker of the House, was a close friend of the late statesman. He has been a member of Congress for 23 years and is well known for his wise and statesmanlike advice.

DEADLOCK IN COAL CONFERENCE

A B Power plant in the state has been hit by a coal strike. The workers have been on strike for several weeks, demanding an increase in wages.

The company has offered to raise the wages, but the workers refuse to accept the offer. The situation is critical, and the company is forced to shut down the plant.

A BANK

A financial institution in the city was robbed yesterday. The criminals made off with a large sum of money, and the police are investigating the case.

The bank is a well-known institution, and the community is shocked by the robbery. The police are searching for the criminals, and a reward has been offered for information leading to their arrest.

BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES YIELD TO SULPHURRO

A new compound has been discovered that is effective in the treatment of blood and skin diseases. It is called Sulphurrro, and it has been found to be highly effective in the treatment of various ailments.

The compound is a powerful antiseptic and is used in the treatment of wounds, infections, and skin diseases. It is also effective in the treatment of burns and other injuries.

SULPHURRO

Sulphurro is a new compound that is effective in the treatment of blood and skin diseases. It is called Sulphurrro, and it has been found to be highly effective in the treatment of various ailments.

The compound is a powerful antiseptic and is used in the treatment of wounds, infections, and skin diseases. It is also effective in the treatment of burns and other injuries.

The compound is a powerful antiseptic and is used in the treatment of wounds, infections, and skin diseases. It is also effective in the treatment of burns and other injuries.