Cougars Expected to Continue Hot Pace of '41

Coach Babe Hollenberg Has Talent Galore for New Year

Cougars will have more than enough to keep the jogoing in 1941, according to reports from Tucson, Arizona, where the Cougars are currently preparing for the new season.

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman—Coach George A. Blake has announced that the Cougars will have more than enough to keep the job going in 1941, according to reports from Tucson, Arizona, where the Cougars are currently preparing for the new season.

Blake said that the Cougars' roster is loaded with talent, and that he expects to have a strong team this year. He also said that the Cougars will be playing a strong schedule, which will test their skills and abilities.

The Cougars will open their season on February 2 against the University of Washington, and will play a total of 20 games during the regular season. They will also participate in several tournaments and regional championships.

Blake said that the Cougars will be led by returning All-Americans Jack Smith and Tom Brown, as well as several other talented players.

Tickets for the Cougars' home games will go on sale soon, and will be available at the university's Ticket Office.
