LAFF WIGGLES, BUT HE'LL HAVE TO FACE THE MUSIC

LAFF HAMILTON may succeed through in-junctions in delaying the day of his political doom. But it will be only delay.

Sometime this week the recall election will be held. If the court allows the case started yesterday to come to a hearing on its merits Friday, the injunction will be brushed aside.

Crafty politicians of the "handpicked" stripe, like Reeves Aylmore and Fred Seiss and the other anti-recallers, are only aiming to pile up extra, unnecessary expense to the taxpayers by these dilatory tactics.

They cannot hope to prevent the election in the end. And they won't try.

HAMPTON WILL HAVE TO DANCE TO RECALL MUSIC. LET'S NOT FORGET THAT.

If the recall election is held on September 8, primary day, the taxpayers of King county will be saved extra expense.

If Aylmore and his gang delay till after that date, then the taxpayers will have one more item to charge up to the maladministration and extravagant mismanagement of the Hamiltonians.

IT'S OVER, April 21. March was waiting for me on the hotel landing. There was good news on the sheet. "All well on white gloves. And let's not forget the "a"." The memo was from the hotel porter who had put on the morning news.
