FOR BETTER BABIES

Heavy Construction Work on New Building Complete, Madison, Wis., July 16:—The heavy construction work on the new building, completed, the west main street dray will be the planting touch to the building around the building.
The foundation for this work, as engineers had hoped for years, is now complete.

Within a few days the electric for the building will be completed, and the fire alarm device will be installed on the top of the building, and ready for the theatre.

The plans for the building are now being enlarged, and the theatre will be ready for operation in a few weeks.
