A GREAT SUCCESS

Was the Military Ball at Jackson Street Casino Last Night.

The society event of the K. of P.'s big convention was the military ball at the Jackson street Casino last night which was an entirely successful entertainment from every point of view. There was a large throng of guests present including the dancers and others who were on lookers. About sixty couples were on the floor and the entertainment held until a late hour. At eleven-thirty o'clock the Grand March was formed and was led by Col. Pack, of Mountsville, and Mrs. Mamie Hardwick, of this city. Grand Chief of the Rathbone Sisters. Omen's full orchestra furnished a fine programme for the occasion. Throughout the evening delicious fruit punch was served and during the intermission a luncheon was served. The occasion was an altogether enjoyable

Preventives are toothsome candy tablets. Preventives dissipate all colds quickly, and taken early, when you first feel that a cold is coming, they check and prevent them. Preventives are thoroughly safe for children, and as effective for adults. Sold and recommended in 5 cents and 25 cent boxes by E. A. Billingslea & Co.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

The Board of Education of Grant district will receive bids for the construction of a new school building on Kuhn's Run, also for the erection of an addition of one room to the Everson school house, from now until October the 17th. Plans and specifications may be seen at the residence of the secretary or at the Monongah school house between 9 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. The material for the construction of said house will be Number 2 grade, except the doors, windows, black boards, and the roof. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Moving to Louisiana.

Mrs. M. E. Bennett, who has been spending some time in Pacific Grove, Cal., left that place on the 5th of October for Baton Rouge, Louisiana, where she will spend the winter with her son, Prof. C. J. C. Bennett, who is a teacher in the University of Louisiana. Mrs. Bennett writes to friends here that California is rapidly recovering from the earthquake and the people are busily rebuilding their homes and the business enterprises have taken renewed energy.

"Baby Show" To-morrow.

The "baby show" will open to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock and a prompt attendance by mother and baby is requested. The room reserved for this most auspicious event will be prettily decorated and conveniently arranged for the comfort of all. Everybody is cordially invited to come and see this rosebud garden of babies and you are certain to be made happier by viewing so much beauty and innocence. The admission fee is only ten cents and as the proceeds are to be expended in charity, it is to be hoped that no one will feel that he or she can afford to miss crossing the "charmed threshold." Don't forget the location. Next door to the Manley Hotel, nor he date—to-morrow afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Honors for Fairmont Students.

A number of Fairmont young people who are attending the West Virginia University this year have been honored by their school mates who have given them important offices.
