FAIRMONT, WEST VIRGINIA, MONDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1906.

NUMBER 151.

THE RICHEST WOMAN IN THE WORLD TO-DAY BECAME BRIDE OF PENNILESS GERMAN NOBLE

BERTHA KRUPP IS WEDDED TO ARMY OFFICER

ESSEN GERMANY, Oct. 15.—In the little chapel erected especially for the occasion on the magnificent grounds of the Krupp Mansion, the religious ceremony was performed to-day which made Bertha Krupp, the richest woman in the world, the bride of Lieutenant Gustave von Bohlen and Halbach, a penniless German noble. The civil ceremony which legally made the couple man and wife was performed Saturday afternoon. Although to-day's ceremony was performed in the presence of Kaiser Wilhelm, the representatives of many noble families and aristocratic personages, general simplicity was the keynote of the whole wedding. Despite the great wealth of the bride there was no display of extravagance either in costume or decorations. Mingling with aristocratic and royal wedding guests also were deputations of working men representing employees of the great Krupp industries. Fifty workmen were in the wedding party. They attended not only the church ceremony, but the wedding banquet. The only extravagance in connection with the wedding was the erection of the special chapel. It was dedicated a few days ago and will remain standing until after the wedding, next spring, of Barbara Krupp, the youngest sister of Bertha, when the chapel will be razed. When the ceremony had been concluded, Kaiser Wilhelm, wearing the uniform of field marshal, saluted the bride, kissing her on both cheeks. He then congratulated the groom, and spoke to Madame Krupp. A simple banquet followed in the Krupp mansion.

Wheeling Mystery Was Cleared by Identification of Dead Man Yesterday—Name Was Harry Mackley

WHEELING, Oct. 15.—Harry Bigler Meckley is the name of the man whose body was found on the city wharf one week ago last Friday morning.

This fact was positively proven Sunday afternoon, when his sister, Mrs. James Davison of No. 3705 Harrison street, Bellaire, identified the body as that of her brother, after it has been exhumed in Mt. Zion cemetery in the presence of Mrs. Davison, her husband, and other relatives and friends. Prosecuting Attorney Chas. J. Schuck, Chief Clerk and Coroner Rogers were also present at the time.

Before going to the cemetery, however, Mrs. Davison identified the body from a picture taken after it had been placed in the casket, and which was shown her at police headquarters. This picture was taken at the instance of the Bishops after the remains had been prepared for burial at their home at No. 3533 Chapline street last Monday.

Mrs. Davison is firm in the belief that her brother committed suicide. She states that he was an inveterate cigarette smoker, despondent and often given to drink when in such a mood. On Saturday, as previously published, Mrs. Davison identified the ring found on the dead man, saying that it was a present from Miss Beatrice Frahr, a lady friend of Meckley, and whose home is in Apollo, Pa. Other belongings of the dead man were also identified by Mrs. Davison at the office of the coroner.

Conclave of Hyphenated Americans

SERIES OF FIESTA DAYS ADVANCED FOR REUNION OF ADOPTED SONS AT JAMESTOWN TER-CENTENNIAL.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 15.—American citizens of foreign birth are to hold a great series of reunions at the Jamestown Exposition, which is to be held near this city in 1907.

The exposition management will designate special fiesta days for the German-Americans, Irish Americans, Swedish-Americans, and all other hyphenated Americans who make their homes within the shadow of the star spangled banner.

On the German-American day the German war-ships will aid in the celebration with a special programme of manoeuvres, reviews, illuminations, etc., while the German land forces and the various German musical organizations will co-operate. The German civic societies will participate in appropriate exercises and it will be a grand gala day for the brave hearts and true who defend the Fatherland and for their children. And so it will be with the other foreign-Americans, thus making each special day a great reunion and festal celebration that will serve not only to strengthen foreign friendship for the United States, but will create an occasion for the renewal of old and dear associations among the foreign elements and enable them to see again their fighting men and ships in panoply of war; to hear again their music and their language and to live again for a day in an atmosphere of their national life.

Mrs. Wagner Here. Mrs. John L. Wagner, of Syracuse, N. Y., is in the city, the guest of Mrs. W. H. Sands, on Fairmont avenue. Mrs. Wagner goes to Morgantown tonight to visit relatives, but will return here on Wednesday to spend a few days.

Notice. The city taxes for the year 1906 are now ready for payment, and all persons paying the same on or before November 15th, will be allowed a discount of 2 1/2 per cent., but no discount allowed after the 15th day of November.

FIRE DESTROYS "OAK HALL"

BEAUTIFUL SUMMER RESIDENCE OF GOVERNOR FLEMING REDUCED TO ASHES.

"Oak Hall," the beautiful summer home of Gov. A. B. Fleming, was destroyed by fire Sunday morning at three o'clock. The house is situated midway between Mt. Lake Park, Mt. and Oakland, and was considered to be one of the most desirable homes in that section. At the time the fire originated Gov. and Mrs. Fleming, Miss Virginia Fleming and two servants were the only occupants of the house and owing to the headway the flames but few household goods from the first floor were rescued. Miss Virginia Fleming first discovered the fire by smelling the fumes and quickly notified her father, who, on investigation, found the reception hall on the first floor to be ablaze and the fire spreading rapidly. "Oak Hall" stands practically alone in its situation with the exception of a few summer homes, all of which had been vacated for the winter and the governor and his man servant were left to fight the fire alone, which was useless, as there are no fire fighting facilities within reach. It was but a short time after the fire was discovered until the entire home and contents were destroyed. It is believed that a defective flue was the cause of the blaze.

They Were Orphans. The body of Meckley was exhumed about 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and at the first glance Mrs. Davison said: "Yes, that is Harry." She then broke down in weeping, and turned away from the scene. After it had been viewed by Mr. Davison, and several other persons, who were personally acquainted with the deceased, it was again lowered into the grave. The procedure was not in the nature of a funeral, but simply an investigation solely for the purpose of identifying the body.

GAME RESERVE

FAIRMONT SPORTSMEN WILL SOON HAVE PLENTY SMALL GAME NEAR TOWN.

The Fairmont Game Association, which has leased a large tract of land from the farmers of Winfield and Union districts, is taking measures whereby it can protect itself and the farmers from ravages of promiscuous hunters.

The association has leased 7,000 acres of land which it intends shall be a game reserve. The reserve has been stocked with quail. Last spring one year ago sixteen dozen quail were turned loose on the reserve and last spring this number was refuted by turning out twenty-six dozen more making in all forty-two dozen quail that has been distributed upon the ground leased. Birds are reported to be plentiful and hunters are eager to get a chance at them. The association promised the farmers to protect them and it is going to make its promise good. Anyone violating the restrictions placed upon hunters will be yanked before the courts and will be vigorously prosecuted.

In order that the farmers and the association may have thorough protection, H. C. West has been appointed game keeper by the association. West will report who does not comply with the rules governing the association. Willful trespassers will have a hard road to follow. John Merrifield has been appointed assistant game keeper.

Small game other than quail is said to be plentiful on the reserve, especially is this true of rabbits. In a few years there will be plenty of good shooting within easy distance of the city.

UNCLE JOE TELLS PRESIDENT ABOUT WEST VIRGINIA

Republicans Are Safe, He Thinks

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Speaker Cannon and Representative Watson, of Indiana, had an hour's talk with the President last night. They went over the political situation thoroughly, going into detail relative to the campaign being waged by their party for the retention of control of the next House. The President's callers gave him the benefit of their observations and of their knowledge of conditions in different States. The speaker and Mr. Watson stopped here on their way from West Virginia to Virginia, where they will make campaign speeches to-day. They will be in Wytheville in the forenoon, where Mr. Watson will speak, and in Bristol in the afternoon, where Mr. Cannon will speak. They will be in White Plains, N. Y., on Tuesday; in Philadelphia Wednesday, and in New York City on Thursday, in which cities they are booked for campaign speeches. Niagara Falls and Batavia, N. Y., also are included in the speaker's itinerary. The speaker said they told the President that the Republicans will have a comfortable majority in the next house, adding, however, that they were taking nothing for granted, but were working for it.

Frightened To Death

STUEBENVILLE WOMAN BITTEN BY CAT, SUFFERS IMAGINARY HYDROPHOBIA.

STUEBENVILLE, O., Oct. 15.—Frightened to death is said to be the real cause of the demise of Mrs. Jennie, wife of Charles Freeland, who was bitten by a cat about seven weeks ago, and who died Saturday. Speaking of the case Dr. Barkhurst said Mrs. Freeland's ailment was imaginary hydrophobia.

Mrs. Freeland was bitten by a cat which she attempted to pet about seven weeks ago. The cat had previously been bitten by a dog. The head of the cat was taken to the Pasteur Institute at Pittsburgh, where it was pronounced a case of rabies. Later Mrs. Freeland went to Pittsburgh and spent three weeks at the institute. Over a week ago she visited her parents near Cadiz and was in better spirits at that time, as her mind was somewhat diverted.

A few days ago she imagined the muscles of her throat were becoming hardened and felt that she was going into the dread disease. She was able to eat and drink for a time, but was again convinced she was all right. On Thursday last she went to her bed and this morning was stricken with a violent vomiting spell, death ensuing from heart affection.

Pawpaw District Held Up Good To the Very Last—Nearly Everybody's Taxes Largely Reduced

The citizens of Pawpaw district have great reason to rejoice over the operation of the new tax laws. Below are found the figures as taken from the sheriff's books showing the taxes of the people named for 1904, the last year under the old law and those of 1906, the first year under the new laws in full force. The reduction shows the actual saving in dollars and cents to the individual tax payers.

No better or stronger tax argument could be made or better reasons given for voting for Hon. Wm. P. Hubbard for Congress, the man who helped to frame the laws and also for the candidates on the Republican ticket for House of Delegates, the men who will stand by the laws and aid in their enforcement.

TWO YEARS IN THE PENITENTIARY

TACKLED THE WRONG MAN. Two Young Fellows Got Worst of It at Hands of Captain Maulsby.

On last Thursday evening Captain T. A. Maulsby had a rather interesting experience with two young men which one of them at least will likely remember for a while. They were both drinking and one of them was leaning against the Captain's house vomiting when the gallant old soldier appeared on the porch and ordered them to leave there. Instead of doing that, however, the young fellow proceeded to climb the steps to fight Captain Maulsby. But the marks on the young man's face indicate that a crutch can do duty when properly handled. This could be made a pretty long story, but Captain Maulsby doesn't want any special notoriety in it, but he does want the people to know how he was treated by the young fellows who afterwards proved to be Arles Miller and Allen Morrison, who were each fined $25 for their rowdiness.

Mr. McGibney has not only talent but genius for his instrument. The Paganini Concert, with its tremendously difficult cadenza, was artistically accomplished. He was recalled again and again—Indianapolis Journal, Monday night at Normal Auditorium. t
