ARRESTED ON SERIOUS CHARGE

YOUNG MAN ACCUSED OF SERIOUS CRIME—PROSECUTOR SWEARS OUT WARRANT FOR HIM.

WHEELING, Aug. 24.—Edward Hayden, a well known young man is facing a serious charge as the result of being found in the company of a young girl by the name of Leola Doyle, about one o'clock Friday morning.

Friday morning about one o'clock as Officer Walker was rounding the corner near the Second ward market house he found Hayden and another young man in company with the Doyle girl who says she is less than fourteen years of age and Ella Owens, who is past sixteen years.

The young men had ordered a hack to take the girls home and they were standing awaiting its arrival. The officer did not hint that he would place them under arrest but after the cab had arrived and the two couples got in, he climbed on the seat with the driver and instructed him to drive to police headquarters.

The girls said that the young men had attempted to have intimate relations with them against their wishes and the four were held until this morning for an investigation. The Doyle girl stated she would not be fourteen years old until next June and on account of her being under the age of consent Humane Officer Creighton was called into the case.

Both girls said that they had met the young men on the South Side and who invited them to take a street car ride. They had never seen the boys before but accepted the invitation and boarded a car for Mozart park.

The statement of the Doyle girl was to the effect that Hayden attempted to have relations with her although he did not succeed in accomplishing his purpose.

The cars had stopped running by this time and the two couples walked down the street to the market house where the hack was ordered to haul them to the homes of the girls on Twenty-fifth street.

The young men did not deny that they had attempted to have intimate relations with the girls but claim that it was with their consent.

On account of the Owens girl being over the age of consent the young man who was in company with her was released.

The investigation was pushed by the prosecutor on account of the tender age of the Doyle girl and a physician was called to make an examination but found that she had not been ravished.

Both girls reside on Twenty-fifth street and it is said that Miss Owens is the cause of enticing the younger girl. Her mother, who came to the building with the mother of the younger girl said that she had been in an industrial school on different occasions.

The serious feature of the accusation is the fact that the girl seems to be under the age of consent. If proven the charge placed against him means from one to five years in the penitentiary.

He is a young man who has enjoyed a good reputation and his friends insist that the charge is groundless.

WIRE IS SENT FOR THE BODY

BUT IT WILL NOT BE SHIPPED UNTIL GUARANTEE FOR EXPENSE IS MADE.

CHARLESTON, Aug. 24.—The body of the man who committed suicide by hanging himself to a tree below the hill at the foot of East Main street and whose decomposing body was found by boys a week later, is now believed to be that of G. W. Pierson, of Summerville, Nicholas county, as indicated by the key ring tag found at the scene of the suicide by Deputy Sheriff John M. Knox.

The sheriff of Nicholas county, to whom telegraphic message was sent, has located the relatives of G. W. Pierson, of Summerville, at Cranberry, who have requested that the body be sent there.

In reply to a message sent to the sheriff of Nicholas county, Sheriff John M. Flanigan received the following telegraphic message Friday morning:

"Cranberry, W. Va., Aug. 23. 'I have Pierson's body embalmed and shipped to Cranberry immediately. People poor. Answer quick. 'JOHN D. ALDERSON.' To Alderson's message Sheriff Flanigan replied by wire as follows: 'Body badly decomposed. Will require metal casket. Expense $10.00. Will you guarantee payment? Answer.' No reply has been received to the last telegram sent by Sheriff Flanigan yet and no disposition will be made of the body until one is received, but it is probable that the body will be buried here.

WOMEN KISS AND MAKE UP

RECONCILIATION IN MAGISTRATE'S COURT OF ASSAILANT AND VICTIM WHOSE THROAT SHE CUT WITH RAZOR.

CLARKSBURG, Aug. 24.—An unusual but touching reconciliation was effected in Magistrate G. H. Gordon's court Thursday evening between Mrs. Rosa Oliverio and her assailant, Mrs. Sabella Pessi, who cut her throat terribly with a razor in a fit of jealous rage at Dola the last day of July.

Mrs. Pessi, who is a prisoner in the county jail awaiting the action of the next grand jury on the charge of murderously assaulting Mrs. Oliverio, swore out a warrant against her victim and Frank Zaani, Mrs. Pessi's husband, charging them with living together in unlawful cohabitation. This, it is alleged, is what actuated the assault on the Oliverio woman.

As preparations were being made in the magistrate's court to hear the case, the two women got to talking to each other in their own language and after a big pow-wow, marked with considerable gesticulation and deep emotional expression, they decided to become friends.

Mrs. Pessi appeared to be real sorry for having preferred the charges against Mrs. Oliverio and the former's spouse and requested that the warrant be withdrawn. This deeply affected the other woman's heart and they both rushed into each other's arms, embraced and kissed each other in a very affectionate and tender manner.

After arrangements were made among the parties interested for a settlement of the costs of the case, the warrant was dismissed by the magistrate.

We don't expect them to last long. 30c Weathered Oak Jardanier Stands, Fairmont Furniture Co.
