

THE FAIRMONT WEST VIRGINIAN ESTABLISHED 1888. Published Daily except Sunday and Semi-Weekly by the Fairmont West Virginia Publishing Company.

CAUSE FOR SHRINKAGE IN WALL STREET VALUES.

Henry Clews gives some advice to the corporation magnates and managers which is interesting and instructive as well as assuring. We give it to our readers and hope they will read it with profit.

JUDGE MUST INVESTIGATE.

Several of the State papers are very much exercised over the task Judge Mason has before him in a momentous question that is coming up for his decision.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The funeral of Mrs. George P. Monagan will be held to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock from the residence of her father, Mr. E. W. Shurtless, State street, First ward.

tered by the decline to a lower and safer level. There is more or less uneasiness in London, Paris and Berlin, where much the same difficulties are being faced, though less intense.

THROUGH THE STATE.

Thomas E. Engle was found dead at Sistersville and it is thought he committed suicide. The Berkeley county apple crop is estimated at about 60,000 barrels, which is about a third of a crop.
