To Test Speed

CHAMPS WILL TRY THEIR HAND WITH P. O. M. LEAGUE TEAM THIS AFTERNOON.

Today the Champs went to Charleston to play the team there. Charleroi is one of the fast teams in the P. O. M. league and local fans are anxious to see what the W. P. league teams can do. Carlisle will pitch today's game. Friday the Champs will play Clarksburg at Southside park and on Sunday Charleroi will be here for a game at Traction park. There will be no game at Amos Saturday as was contemplated.

Went to See the Races.
A large number of Fairmonters went to Clarksburg today to attend the fair and watch the races.

ED. M. HEERMANS AT MORGANTOWN

WELL KNOWN NEWSPAPERMAN SEEING TYPE LICE IN MORGANTOWN OFFICES TODAY

MORGANTOWN, Sept. 5.—Ed M. Heermans, who has edited half of the newspapers in West Virginia at one time or another, and who has edited dailies in a dozen different states, is here on a brief visit, having arrived from Kingwood on the M. & K. train which left that city at 10:12.

Mr. Heermans secured a food story in the southern part of West Virginia a few years ago at the risk of his life; he has written up the moonshiners of Kentucky when their rifles sent bullets whizzing through his whiskers; he has criticised public men when his life was said to hang on a thread in consequence; but he says he has never undergone an experience that required more courage than making the ride on the M. & K.

Heermans was at one time the West Virginia correspondent of the Pittsburg Dispatch, he has edited the Post in this city, the Times at Fairmont, The Advocate at Mannington, he has done special work for leading metropolitan dailies, contributed articles to all the big magazines and recently has been editing the leading daily paper in Springfield, Ohio, a city of 50,000 people, where a negro is occasionally strung up if news happens to get scarce.

MORRISON IS ALL TO THE GOOD

MADE A GREAT HIT LAST NIGHT EVEN AMUSING MEMBERS OF HIS ORCHESTRA.

"On Parole" or "Miss Dixie," was the title of the farce comedy presented by the Morrison Comedy Company at the Grand last night which proved to be another one of the exceptionally strong numbers for the week which the company is spending in Fairmont. The scene of the play put on last night is drawn in Virginia just before the outbreak of the war and the little story of love and heroism is carried on throughout the conflict between the North and the South in a most interesting manner, with sufficient comedy to make the play decidedly interesting. The bombardment at Federal headquarters was the real thing. Mr. Hugh Morrison has not failed to keep up his reputation as an actor of the first rank which he established by his work on the opening night, and last night his ability as a burnt cork artist was abundantly recognized by the large audience that witnessed the performance. Mr. Harry Feldman, all round comedian and expert dancer, made good also in his black face work. The jangling of Feldman and Ball has made a hit with all who like to see dancing done just right with the full quota of variations which they know so well how to inject into their work.

Miss Eva Sargent is another one of the company that is pleasing the theater goers and she will be seen to-night in the leading roll in the "Vagabond's Wife."

Another feature of this company, which is pronounced by all to be the best stock company ever appearing here, is the work of Aileen Morrison who is an adept in any role she assumes, and her versatility is equal to that of any member of the company. Mr. Morrison himself not excepted. Her work shows the evidence of refinement and good training. As a whole the company is well balanced and while some improvements might be made in some particulars still the specialties and vaudeville acts alone are well worth the price of admission.

The Ladies' Colonial Orchestra has brought out good crowds each evening to witness the open air concerts and Miss Mary E. Reber, the director, has a band of musicians that is not surpassed by many of the larger shows on the road, and the Morrison Comedy Company makes no mistake in incurring this additional expense as their music will be a bid for crowded houses should the company make a return engagement.

It was quite noticeable to witness the smiles of the members of the orchestra last evening while Mr. Morrison was doing some of his best comedy work, and it can be said right here that an actor that can amuse his own orchestra is not in the mediocre class.

Local Lawyers

IN CASE TO BE ARGUED BEFORE SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS AT CHARLES TOWN.

Attorney Harry Shaw started to Charles Town today where he will appear before the Supreme Court of Appeals to argue the case of T. A. Deveny et al. vs. the Cook and Hart Coal Company. The case is to be submitted for a rehearing to-morrow. Mr. Shaw and Henry M. Russell, of Wheeling, represent the Appellants, and W. S. Meredith, Charles Powell and G. M. Alexander represent the Appellees.

HORSE BECAME FRIGHTENED

AND PLUNGED OVER BRIDGE, FALLING DISTANCE OF 40 TO 50 FEET.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 5.—Mrs. Henry Shirkey and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bert Shirkey, of near Sissonville, had a miraculous escape from instant death while en route home after attending the big festival at Sissonville. Just after leaving the grounds on which the celebration was held they were compelled to cross the high bridge that spans Poa river and their horses becoming frightened, became unmanageable.

Although a number of people were in the near vicinity, none were able to assist the ladies, and finally the horse plunged over the bridge to the ground below, a distance of between 40 and 50 feet. Mrs. Bert Shirkey fell from the buggy before the horse took the plunge but was precipitated down the embankment. Some bushes broke the force of her fall and she escaped injury except for a few bruises.

Mrs. Henry Shirkey could not escape and fell the full distance. The horse was instantly killed and parts of the demolished rig struck Mrs. Shirkey, bruising her painfully. Fortunately, and in a most miraculous way, she escaped serious injury, although those who witnessed the accident expected to find her dead or fatally mangled.

Drs. O. L. Aulz, of this city, and W. F. Shirkey, of Marmet, were called, and after an examination stated that Mrs. Shirkey will recover in a few days.

FINE RACING.

At West Virginia State Fair, Wheeling, September 9th to 13th.

In addition to the regular Fair and Exposition features, and hundreds of high class attractions, including the big air ships, will be inaugurated one of the finest racing programs ever offered, affording eighteen trotting, pacing and running races. Some of the best horses have been entered and fast and exciting racing will be witnessed.
