VETO BILL PASSED

LORDS APPROVE MEASURE WITH 19 MAJORITY. House of Commons Considers Matter of Voting Themselves a Salary.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The House of Lords tonight passed the Veto bill, by a vote of 121 to 111.

By this vote the House of Lords decided to accept what the Liberals contend is the will of the people, and adopted Viscount Morley's motion not to insist upon the Lords' amendments to the parliamentary bill, which practically limits the power of the House of Lords to a two years' suspensory veto and vastly increases the prerogatives of the House of Commons.

The great constitutional struggle which began when the House of Lords nearly two years ago rejected the budget of David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, is ended for a time at least, and with the greatest chance of Great Britain's working constitution since the passage of the reform bill.

Battle of Ballots. The process of voting consumed nearly an hour, and the result trembled in the balance until the last moment. The "die hard" ministered strength to the government.

As soon as the result was known several members of the house of commons rushed from the galleries and into their own chamber and whispered the news to the members. A great cheer followed the announcement of the government's victory.

The question of the hour is what effect tonight's decision will have upon the future fortunes of the conservative party.

Viscount Morley's definite announcement that enough peers would be created permanently to swamp the upper house if the government did not prevail apparently swayed a few wavering and decided the issue.

A resolution providing for the payment of members at the rate of $2,000 annually was moved by Chancellor David Lloyd George in the House of Commons today. The chancellor said that Great Britain was the only country in the world that did not pay members for their work in Parliament.

The Unionists opposed the payment plan. Arthur Hamilton Lee, Unionist, who moved the official Unionist amendment against salaries, argued that the effect of the chancellor's bill would be to keep out the best types and fill parliament with professional politicians.

James Ramsay MacDonald, labor leader, denied that the measure would cause corruption, and said that it would tend to help the tide of purity, which is following over American politics.

The resolution was carried 256 to 150.

Mrs. Laura Hall. GRAPTON, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Mrs. Laura Hall, widow of Luther Hall, last evening dropped dead as she was preparing to retire for the night. The funeral occurs Thursday.

J. Q. A. Levels. FAIRMONT, W. Va., Aug. 10.—At 12 o'clock, at his home in the First ward, occurred the death of J. Q. A. Levels, after an illness of a few hours of acute heart trouble. The deceased was 74 years of age. He is survived by one son, Clyde, of this city, and two daughters, Mrs. Charles Knight and Mrs. Mamie Walters, both of Indiana.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The K. K. Juniors of Mountsville will try conclusions with the W. C. Burkleys on the Benwood ball park on Saturday afternoon, and as both teams are evenly matched a close game is expected to result. The Juniors are requested to be on the grounds sharply at 2 o'clock.

The Myers Provision company will journey to Elm Grove on Saturday afternoon, where they will stack up against the fast aggregation that represents that place. The city combination will be accompanied by a large delegation of rosters and will line up as follows: Ib, Larnie, 20; Loring, 1b; T. Miller, or Heaman; s.s., Keenan; l. f., Diskie; c. f., Hoyt; r. f., L. Wagner. The game will be called at 4:30 o'clock sharp, and a big crowd is expected to be present.

The Rayland team and the Island Athletic club will clash in battle royal on the Rayland grounds on Sunday afternoon, and a fast game is expected. Pond and Glenrist will form the battery for the Ohio side club.

The Mannington semi-professional team will clash with the Zanesville semi-pro club on the Mannington grounds tomorrow and Sunday afternoon, and two of the fastest games of the season are expected to result. The Ohio side club will be accompanied by a big delegation of rosters. Weithe and Heller, two local pitchers, will most likely twirl the games, while Mont Weeks will be on the receiving end.

Arrangements were completed yesterday afternoon by the manager of the Benwood team for a game with the fast Lawrenceville, Pa., semi-professional team to be played on the Benwood ball park next Sunday afternoon.

Five of six new players will be seen in Benwood's lineup, and it is likely that Lefty Sutherland, one of Wheeling's reserve pitchers, will be seen on the mound, while Linderman of Pittsburg, another steady, may be in the game.

The Cries & Minks accept the challenge of the Titonsville team for a game on the Tumbel street grounds on Sunday afternoon, August 29. If accepted, the sporting editor of the Intelligencer or call Manager Klein of the Cries & Minks.

Manager Brown of the Y. and O. team last evening completed arrangements for a game for Saturday afternoon with the strong Mount City aggregation on the latter's grounds. This is the strongest team the Ohio side club have stacked up against this season, and they will be prepared to put up a stiff argument, with Mooney on the hilltop.

The third and deciding game of a three game series between the Y. and O. team and the Lorains will be played on the Main grounds in Martins Ferry on Sunday afternoon. The game is for the championship of the Ohio side, and the outcome is awaited with considerable interest. Each team has a win to its credit, the Lorains having beaten the Y. and O. nine by the score of 3 to 2 and lost the second game by the count of 10 to 1.

The Patterson Athletic club will have as their opponents on Sunday afternoon the Healdsons of this city, which is one of the strongest teams the Pattersons have met this season. Killa or Bachman will be twirling for the city nine, while Brad Smith will work for the suburbanites.

The Freshwaterers of Martins Ferry had on every time of it last evening defeating the Lorains by the score of 6 to 2. Thompson pitched a fine game for the winners, holding his opponents hitless as well as runless. Thompson and Jones formed the battery for the Martins Ferry team and Matthews and Fowler for Lansing.

The Lansing team would like to have a game with Patterson on the latter's grounds on Sunday, August 20. Answer through this paper.

The Brookside will play the Novelties of Bellaire tomorrow afternoon, and a close game is promised.

BUTCHERS PICNIC WAS A BIG SUCCESS

ABOUT EIGHT THOUSAND PERSONS PRESENT DURING DAY.

Lady Boykin Wins Running Race—James Brosman of Pittsburg Wins Beef Killing Contest.

The annual picnic and outing held yesterday on the state fair grounds by the Butchers' union proved one of the most successful events ever held by the organization, as fully 8,000 people were present during the day. The afternoon was featured by a number of contests, including beef, mutton and calf killing matches. James Brosman, of Pittsburg, won the beef killing contest in 3 minutes and 15 seconds; Earl Vennum, of Fairmont, was second, finishing in 7 minutes and 40 seconds, while Jacob Kern, of Washington, Pa., was third.

George Newhardt, of Elm Grove, won the lamb killing contest in six minutes and 25 seconds, and Charles Albert, of Fulton, was second. The calf killing match was won by Edward Rehl, of Fulton, in something over eight minutes, while second honors fell to Fred Delman, of Bridgeport. Gus Vennum won the ground pig contest in an easy manner. The running race between Lady Boykin, owned by William McGannon, and another horse owned by William Phillips, of Caldwell's run, resulted in the former taking two out of three heats. Owing to a false start in the third heat, a fourth heat was made necessary, and all the bets were declared off. George Lower, riding the Phillips horse, was thrown when a stirrup in his saddle became unadjusted and he received a bad shaking up. Louis Schneider's horse won the trotting race, while William Hammer's speeder was second, while Edward Fisher's horse brought up the rear.

Banding formed the main diversion last evening and music was furnished by Meister's orchestra, while Hanson's band rendered concert music during the day.

CRIME WAVE

Sweeps Over Scranton and Vicinity. Two Murders and a Mystery.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 10.—Two murders and a mystery, which may develop into a murder, is the record of Lackawanna county for the past twenty-four hours. At 1 o'clock this morning, William Russavage was shot by Rossey Filio, following a quarrel over a woman in a Minooka hotel. Russavage died at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Filio is still at large. Three hours later, the body of Stanley Fortuna, of Olyphant, was found lying in a field near Jackson street, that borough. Two Italians are under arrest, charged with the killing, which was due directly to jealousy. The third case was the finding of a body, supposed to be that of George Yost, who has been missing for three weeks. The body was found in a field.
