

The Daily Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

GO out into the world and do something well enough to get paid for it, is often difficult. But it is likely to be very interesting and is seldom monotonous.

Here, it seems to me that it is the duty of those who go out of the home into the world each day, to try to bring back as much as they can to enliven the existence of those who stay at home.

Molly, the little stenographer lady, believes this with all her heart. And more than that, she lives it.

Long ago Molly made a little rule for herself about this matter. It was to try never to go home without taking something to the little mother. The result is that the little mother awaits Molly's homecoming, not only with the eagerness of a mother, but also with the anticipation of a child.

Understand me, I do not mean that the "something" is anything very large, or always something that costs money. Molly's slender salary has far too many home demands upon it to permit of that. Sometimes it is just an amusing story of happenings at the office that Molly brings home. Again, it's some interesting piece of news about some mutual acquaintance, which will serve as a topic of conversation all through supper.

When finances are low, and there is nothing else in sight, Molly makes a business of visiting some source from which she can get such news during her lunch "just to look around" and on these hours she watches for some nice little thing that can be bought to advantage, and picks it up on Saturday. In lean weeks it may be only a twelve cent handkerchief "marked down twenty-five"; in fatter times it may be a pretty jabot, or even the makings of a shirtwaist.

Twenty-five to fifty cents a week is Molly's financial investment. In spite of her little love and thoughtfulness and a tender sympathy for the monotony of her little mother's life she is her larger capital. What wonder that her profits are beyond calculation.

If this little story makes you think, as it does me, I certainly do not need to add any moral or application.

CASCARETS CLEANSE LIVER AND BOWELS

No Biliousness, Headache, Sick, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Constipation, Tongue or Constipation.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a still barrel.

JUDGE MERIDITH

Hayes, Garfield, Harrison, McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft. Mr. Garfield did not live through his first term of office. Mr. Hayes declared in advance his "inflexible purpose," if elected, not to be a candidate for election to a second term, and he was as good as his word.

RED ATTEMPTS

traveled in an open automobile and showed no signs of having passed through an ordeal. The man who had fired the shots had in the meantime been taken to the police station. The policemen had great difficulty in passing through the crowds of people, who showed intense anger and desired to wrong immediate vengeance.

Mr Roosevelt should not be nominated because:
First: He is not a Republican. Once he was, but he has drifted away. As yet he cannot be classified. He is too radical, too extravagant, too revolutionary, confusing and contradictory in his public utterances of late to be in tune with any known political party.

Second: He has served two terms as President and should not be again a candidate. That no man should serve as President of the United States more than two terms is a law of this country as binding on the conscience of the American people, and should be as binding on their conduct, as if it were written in our statute books.

Third: But why say more. There are too many reasons why Taft should be chosen, especially over Roosevelt. It is a matter of common sense that Taft does seem to be that fair minded citizen, especially a member of the Republican party, can read Mr. Roosevelt's "Charter of Democracy," as written by him at Columbus on February 21st, and then support him for the highest office in the land.

TRIPLE TRAGEDY

LAUREL SPRINGS, N. J., March 14.—Mrs. Madie Wagner, formerly housekeeper for Charles Ford, a restaurant keeper in Camden, was shot and killed at her home here to-day by Ford, who then attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself in the head. While on the road to the woman's house, Ford shot and probably fatally wounded Robert Wilson, an employe of the Laurel Springs Water Company.

No far as the police have been able to learn they never saw Wilson before and was not acquainted with Mrs. Wagner. Ford was followed by a posse of citizens to Mrs. Wagner's house, where he was found lying wounded and the woman was dead, with a bullet in her heart. Wilson and Ford were removed to a hospital in Camden, where it was stated to night that Wilson will probably die. Ford may recover.

ROOSEVELT MAN ELECTED COMMITTEEMAN

GUTHRIE, Okla., March 14.—Geo. C. Perry, a Roosevelt supporter, was elected national committee man for James H. Harris, chairman of the state executive committee and a Taft adherent. The vote was 4114 to 1374.

NERVOUS, DEBILITATED AND RUN DOWN

Either the Rest Cure or Tonzil-Vita Will Build You Up Again.
If you are nervous, debilitated, and run-down in health, there are two things you can do to bring back your strength and vitality. You can go to a sanitarium and take the rest cure, or you can secure the great modern tonic "Tonzil-Vita" and let it build you up and furnish new nourishment for your shattered nerves.

The "Tonzil-Vita" medicine was wonderful in my case. I feel as though I had a new lease on life. My ambition has returned as well as my strength and energy.
