

Your Business Suit

The average man wears a Sack Suit three-fourths of the year. The average Sack Suit costs about $15.00. At this price we sell Sack Suits which will never be the "average" kind. They are better than others, because no better material, style or workmanship can be put into them. Suits for which you would willingly pay more.

YOUR PURSE

Can reach a better Suit in this store, at any price you wish to pay, than in any other clothing store we know of. We have splendid suits as low as $10, $12 or $15, and Suit elegance as high as $20, $22 or $25, but we would like to show you what we can do for you in an average Suit. If you are in the dark about your new Suit, come here.

Y. M. C. A. STAR COURSE

Famous Morphet & Stevenson Will Appear At Grand Opera House Tomorrow Night.

The Y. M. C. A. Star Course has the pleasure to announce the coming of Messrs. Morphet & Stevenson, assisted by an able pianist. Their performances are a fine exhibition of the latest wonders in Oriental magic, high class prestidigitation and realistic ventriloquism, in fact, the program comprises so many wonderful, beautiful and startling features that even two hours devoted to its presentation, there is never a moment in which they fail to hold your attention. Instrumental solos and duettes, introducing many new instruments, truly novel, artistic and effective musical act, with just the refined touch of comedy.

Their work is thoroughly artistic and always of high class order. Having appeared so often throughout the country with continued success, these popular entertainers need no further introduction. The recent addition of many effective novelties has strengthened their already fine program, placing it in the very front ranks in this class of entertainments.

Mr. Morphet is known as a prestidigitateur (or slight of hand). His dexterity and originality are seldom, if ever, equaled. He is possessed of gentlemanly humor and a magnetism that never fails to win. His unique entertainments embrace the most wonderful experiment in the art of high class slight of hand. It is at once classical, marvelous, refined and instructive. This year he carries the largest line of musical novelties ever before presented by him. Another amusing feature is ventriloquism, which, like magic, saturates the whole program with drollery as well as mystery.

Herodotus tells us that during the whole time he was in Egypt he heard only one song and that was a sad one. Had Herodotus lived in the present age he would have marvelled at the number of songs and the many musical instruments that are heard from day to day, yet we doubt if even the average person realizes how many there are. Mr. William H. Stevenson introduces us to a few new ones. He is a tripple-tongued cornet soloist and instrumentalist. Plays solos on an aluminum harp, aluminum chimes, marmibophone, musical glasses, saxophone, musical coi, bamboo bells, banjo, various imitations on the violin and other new and novel instruments.

Morphet & Stevenson introduce in their novel musical act cornet duets, mandolin-mandola, flying funnels, xylophone, with mocking bird imitations, automatic hand bells on the right. Wherever these men go they are received with unbounded success and the tickets are selling at Sturm's drug store very rapidly. Special price has been made for children. Tickets sold for them, 25 cents. Single admission for men and women, 50 cents and 75 cents. Reserved seats now on exchange at Sturm's.

Morphet & Stevenson at the opera house Thursday evening 8:00 sharp, February 9.

HEARTS GALORE

And Spirit of St. Valentine In Abundant Evidence At Social Tendered By the Central Presbyterian Church.

The spirit of St. Valentine was given vent at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Tuesday night on the occasion of the informal social tendered by the Central Presbyterian church. A most delightful gathering of people, numbering nearly two hundred, began to make their appearance shortly after 7:30 o'clock and continued to come and go during the entire evening. The matching of valentines proved to be the real sort of a mixer and was the medium through which many got acquainted. The hunt for hearts proved exciting as well as exceedingly interesting. Hundreds of small candied hearts with valentine verses in letters of red were hidden in all the crevices and out of the way places around the rooms and at the proper signal every one started on a boisterous search for hearts. Needless to say the hunt was a great fun producer. There was the most informal gathering imaginable and this with the excellent refreshments served by Swager, caterer, helped to make the evening a complete success and the committee of arrangements are to be congratulated upon the real good time given the young men and young ladies of last evening.

MISS OLLIE EATON

VANDYKE AND EATON

Repertoire Company Commences a Week's Engagement At the Traders Grand Opera House Next Monday Night.

On next Monday evening, Feb. 13, the Van Dyke and Eaton Company will inaugurate a week's engagement at the Traders Grand opera house. The company has been seen here many times and has attained a markable degree of popularity among local theatre patrons.

Miss Ollie Eaton, possessing a charming personality and much histrionic ability, is still entrusted with the leading roles, and the company appearing in her support is a large and capable one. All new plays are being presented this season, a list of which will be found in another column of this issue of the Telegram. The variety features are new and varied, and will be changed nightly. Ladies will be admitted free, under the usual conditions, Monday night.

PRESENTED WITH SOCKS.

County Superintendent L. Wayman Ogden had his socks stolen from him a few weeks ago at a West Milford hotel, an account of which appeared in the Telegram at the time. And now he has received an express package from Charleston sent collect on delivery. The package came unwrapped and every one through whose hands it passed saw at once that it was a pair of green socks. The supposition is that some state solon became interested in his welfare by reading the Telegram and kindly saw to it that he should not have frozen feet. The present is very much appreciated and the genial superintendent takes this method of expressing his gratitude to his unknown benefactor.

ONE PLAIN DRUNK.

One plain drunk was up before His Honor Mayor Shields at the regular session of police court Wednesday morning.

The minimum fine of three dollars and costs was assessed. The man paid up and was released from custody.
