

Your Business Suit

The average man wears a Sack Suit three-fourths of the year. The average Sack Suit costs about $15.00. At this price we sell Sack Suits which will never be the "average" kind. They are better than others, because no better material, style or workmanship can be put into them. Suits for which you would willingly pay more.

YOUR PURSE

Can reach a better Suit in this store, at any price you wish to pay, than in any other clothing store we know of. We have splendid suits as low as $10, $12 or $15, and Suit elegance as high as $20, $22 or $25, but we would like to show you what we can do for you in an average Suit. BETTES WILL SUE

Malissa Holt's Bondsmen For Damages To the Extent of Ten Thousand Dollars.

Suit for damages to the extent of $10,000, for alleged libel, is to be filed in the Circuit Court of Wood county by Attorney L. R. Via, on behalf of Rev. Sam Bettes, against Attorneys James A. Watson and J. D. Cutlip, bondsmen for Malissa Holt Parker.

The attorneys went on the Parker woman's bond at the time when she caused an attachment to be issued against the "Cowboy Preacher's" Gospel Yacht. They arranged bond for her in the penalty of $10,000. Since then she has signed a statement, alleging that she was drawn into a conspiracy, and that the charge of seduction she brought against Bettes was without foundation and was brought to swindle him, and to gain possession of his boat.

Bettes declares that he would have brought no suit for defamation of character if the yacht has been surrendered to him after the woman made the confession, but instead he says it has been held arbitrarily.

"Now I am going to have suit brought for the full amount of the bond and I am going to prosecute it to a finish," he declares.

MR. BUDD A SLEUTH.

A. C. Budd has been along the West Virginia & Pittsburg railroad as far as Pickens on a diligent hunt for a fine Lancaster black and tan dog owned by T. A. Henaghan, which strayed from his kennel a few days ago. Mr. Budd displayed Sherlock Holmes qualities to a very large degree but did not succeed in recovering the dog, but he did get enough trace of him at Pickens to know that he is still in Clarksburg. Mr. Budd hopes yet to get the dog and return him to the owner.

VAN DYKE & EATON CO.

VanDyke & Eaton Company, an attraction that has won favor among local play goers, begin a week's engagement at the Grand opera house Monday, Feb. 13. Their repertoire this season is comprised of plays that have enjoyed metropolitan success and includes many pleasing bills, chief among which are Robert Louis Stevenson's study in psychology, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," Goethe's legendary fantasy, "Faust," with its weird Bracken scene and the awe-inspiring apotheosis of Marguerite. Shakespeare's immortal love story, "Romeo and Juliet," is given an elaborate production, and Dumas' masterpiece of passion, "Carmille" holds high place in the week's offering. For the opening bill a play true to life and teeming with human interest, entitled "In the Hands of the Czar," will be given. It is a melodrama of the ultra-sensational sort, but for a play of this class it is unique in possessing an entirely possible plot, and rational scenes and situations. The scenes are laid in Russia and it deals with the great question of master and man that is at present rending the empire of the Russias. A rattling good comedy called "Miss Hursey from Jersey" will be given at the Wednesday matinee, and the ever popular "East Lynne" will be given by special request on Friday evening. The company will close its engagement on Saturday with a play, while not a literary classic, possessing unusual interest for Americans, inasmuch as it deals with the characters peculiar to America. It is called "The James Boys in Missouri," and is reminiscent of the days when the gun and knife reigned supreme and the law of might not right ruled in the west. A number of pleasing vaudeville numbers are introduced in conjunction with the regular performances. On Monday evening ladies will be admitted free when accompanied by persons holding one paid ticket purchased before seven o'clock Monday evening. Prices throughout the engagement will be 10, 20 and 30 cents.

ARRESTED AS SUSPECT

Was Former Janitor At Catholic Church—Believed He Burglarized the Church.

Terrence Gilyerry was arrested at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night at the Imperial saloon by Policeman Fox and jailed. He is suspected of being the burglar who entered the Catholic church a week or so ago and stole a valuable church vessel that was presented to the church years ago by the late Rev. Daniel O'Connor. The man formerly worked at the church as a sort of janitor, but has been out of the city ever since the burglary occurred. It is stated that he remained at Ocean mines until Thursday, when he returned to the city and was nabbed by the police. He refuses to say any thing about himself and it is doubtful whether there is sufficient evidence to convict him. Unless something develops in the case, it is probable he will be turned loose without a trial. He is the same fellow who was arrested several weeks ago for swiping shoes from Merriman's store.

CATARRH

IS INTERNAL SCROFULA.

This Theory Advanced Several Years Ago Has Been Found True.

"It does not appear to me said C. D. Sturm, of Sturm & Wilson, successors to C. D. Sturm & Co., to a Telegram reporter, that one-tenth of the people realize what a terrible thing Catarrh is. Every one knows how unsightly a disease eczema or scrofula is. Even the name, scrofula, is enough to make one shudder at the thought of it. Well, catarrh is just an internal scrofula. The trouble is people don't see it and are inclined to let it go from bad to worse before doing anything. Catarrh, or internal scrofula, is really an eczema of the mucous membrane or lining of the nasal passages, bronchial tubes, the stomach, the lungs, liver or kidneys, in fact it does not confine its ravages to any particular part of the system, but attacks the weaker parts first.

"Plenty of remedies may be had that afford temporary relief, but Mr. Sturm says-Rexall Mucuo-Tone is the only one they know of that really cures. Mucuo-Tone works exactly opposite to all the cures that have been offered before. Mucuo-Tone does not numb the inflamed surfaces as snuffs, powders, vaporizers and inhalations do, and then when the numbness works off leaves you worse than ever.

Mucuo-Tone, as its very name implies, cures by foning the Mucous Tissues and restoring the membrane to its natural healthy state. Mr. Sturm believes a medicine such as Mucuo-Tone, which is carefully and scientifically prepared for one particular purpose, is to be depended on against a great many others that claim to cure a host of diseases. Then besides all this, he says their customers day after day tell them it has cured them and they recommend it to others.

Trial bottles may be had for 50 cents. If you buy now Sturm & Wilson, the druggists, will guarantee a cure or refund the money you pay them.
