

The Intelligencer.

Office 25 & 27 Fourth Street. F. W. & CAMPBELL, PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

NATURDAY, SEPT. 8, 1877.

The railroads of the great northwest are already realizing their anticipations of a profitable business. The earnings of the Milwaukee & St. Paul road for the fourth week of August were $265,000, against $187,286 for the corresponding week of last year...

Mr. DAVID WAGNER, who lives over in West Wheeling, and is the Democratic candidate for a seat in the Ohio Senate from Belmont and Harrison counties, is experiencing the usual tribulations of an applicant for public position. He is undergoing an overhauling at the hands of one of the Belleaire newspapers...

LEARN FROM VITAL STATISTICS.—The medical director of an insurance company has recently made a general survey of the subject of longevity, and in this he has collected the biographies and experiences of 183 men who had passed the age of 70. Fifty-eight of the number were over 80 years of age, 10 over 90 and one had reached his 96th year.

When the wool is graded it is understood to be ready for sale, in a shape that manufacturers can buy with confidence. The object of grading is to obtain for the wool grower just what his wool is worth.

Bank Taxes in Wheeling and in Belmont County. In the Wheeling morning papers recently was published a statement showing the manner in which bank stock in that city is taxed.

The railroad traffic is apparently on the wane, and the managers can never get free from the long and bad reports that surround every grocery store and popular newspaper. The many and multitudinous railways that run all over the country are evidently overdoing the thing from apparent indications.

Encouragement for Wheeling Newspapers. George Broom three or four years ago began the sale of newspapers on the streets of Cambridge. He tried first one paper, but added to his list until he sold for all the dailies which went papers here. He was gentlemanly, and did all the business in a strictly fair and honest way.

Our Wheeling Correspondent in Switzerland.

Hotel SCHWITZERHOFF, LUZERNE, SWITZERLAND, July 15, 1877. We are now at one of the most beautiful places in Europe, and at one of the best hotels anywhere. We are on Lake Lucerne, and at the risk of having my taste questioned I pronounce it far superior to Como in every respect.

We had a remarkable excursion yesterday. It was to the summit of the mountain Rigi-Kulm. Took steamer here to a beautiful village called Vitznau, on the lake, at which place we ascended to the top of the mountain by rail.

The old churches and ancient bridges here are very curious. Thus far my trip has been a very fine one, and I just hit it in making direct for Italy first.

How Wool is Handled at the Wool House. Steamship Wool Grower's Bulletin. Any one desiring to ship wool to this house, and understanding the aims and objects, writes for sacks, which are sent out by paying freight.

TERMS, MANNER OF HANDLING, SECURITY. The object in charging a commission is to make the house self-supporting. And in doing business for consignors everything is made as safe as any business can be.

For all our work and expense one and a half per cent is charged. If the wool is kept separate after grading, a half-cent more is charged. We aim to give satisfaction as far as it is possible to do so. In fact, when we are not able to do so the business will be stopped.

REMEMBER.—That to make room for our Fall Stock, we will sell from now and until the 1st of October the best white Wall Paper at 7c per roll; Flat, 12 1/2c; Oil, 15c, and Oiled at 20c.
