

SLAVIN IN TRAINING.

The Pugilist Prepared for His Match With Jake Kilrain.

THE CONEY ISLAND QUARTERS.

The Routine of Daily Exercise—An Interview With the Australian—Bascall and Races Yesterday—The Great English Derby.

New York, May 27.—Frank P. Slavin, who a few weeks ago made his first bow to an American audience at Madison Square Garden, has for week been sojourning at Coney Island.

There he is quietly quartered at the modestly presided over by the widow of Billy O'Brien. Handsome Charley Mitchell and father-in-law, "Play" Moore, are with him, and while George Washington, as Mr. Moore declares his name to be, enjoys the attractions and pleasures of the great resort his two pugilistic charges daily put themselves through a course of athletic sports, practice no end of self denials, and hours before the old gentleman has broken the shadows of the veranda, the evening cigar and the saline brocees they are tucked snugly beneath blankets above stairs.

TRAINING QUARTERS.

The young Australian likes the place for training. Mitchell and Moore are not strangers to the ocean, and their acknowledgment of its advantages as a training place are voiced by the dark young fellow who is there for the purpose of putting himself in proper condition to meet Jake Kilrain. Modesty is not one of Slavin's cardinal virtues, and although he does not think Sullivan a better man than himself, and has declared his willingness to test the value of his opinion, when indiscreet admirers address him as "champion" he quietly remarks:

"Don't do. Wait till I fight for it, you know."

In manner and dress he is as decided as in English as his friend and trainer, Mitchell. He is without reserved in speech and exceptionally quiet in disposition, and thoroughly dislikes the hero-worship accorded celebrities of his class by a following only too numerous. To avoid it he often takes a jaunt of a few miles, in addition to his routine of daily tramps. But he nevertheless finds it difficult in those little excursions, when he leaves the others behind at home, to avoid the attention he is running away from. His tall and well-knit frame, clothed in a jaunty black-striped tennis suit, and wondrous stride would stamp him the athlete anywhere.

The little hotel where the trio are stopping has already become the Mecca of the better class of moneyed sporting men, and even the frail propellers of the harbor stop at the little cottage and gaze in awe at the giant physique of the antipodean.

"Take good care of me, and my little wife at home will pray for you," was Slavin's admonition to the landlady, when they were installed as guests, and the prayers will be hers if their words of praise be true.

"The woman's a boxer trainer," said Mitchell yesterday, in his peculiar tone. "We don't ave to give no sports or instructions, don't ye know. She knows just what to set in front of 'em. And do we eat well? Ask Poney."

The trio had just returned from their morning spin from the Ocean to Prospect Park and back, and after a rub down, change of attire, and an hour's rest would be ready for dinner. Mitchell's cheeks showed a healthy flush, which in Slavin's face was hidden by the bronze which health and sun had related there.

"We like it here immensely," said Slavin. "Can't imagine a better place. See location and nice people."

SULLIVAN'S SUCCESSOR.

He talks little of his forthcoming match with Kilrain, and then only when the friends are alone. He acknowledges that he is to meet a good man, but is confident that he himself will be the better of the two. Sullivan he honestly believes has permanently retired from the ring, as he says he has "his word for it," and he thinks himself qualified to hold the niche made vacant in that event. He has won many new friends and admirers at the beach during his short stay there, and when, on June 16, he meets the Baltimorean in Jersey, many of the horsemen now residing at Coney Island will have their little pots on his side of the ring.

A few of them have seen the Australian don the mits with Mitchell and punch the leather in the little gymnasium, which has been fitted up for their use in the barn belonging to the cottage, and declare that his science and reach are to their liking. Mitchell, too, is in excellent trim considering his weight, and this he is reducing by precisely the same treatment he gives his principal and pupil.

It is usually the first up in the morning, though soon followed by Slavin. The hour set for rising is 6:30. Then the pair set out for a constitutional before breakfast, which consists of soft-boiled eggs, toast, beef tea or weak tea, weak or chops, hominy or oatmeal and fruit. After breakfast comes the cooling of the day, the distance covered being from ten to fifteen miles, and on the return a vigorous rub-down and hot water douche. A brief rest is then taken, and the dinner is preparing. For this meal they have a roast of mutton, as fancy dictates, vegetables, custard, home-made jelly or rice, and a bottle of "Dog's Head" each, which Slavin invariably sips from the bottle.

"Poney" Moore usually accompanies the boys upon the afternoon walk of about five miles, sometimes less, from which they return with an appetite for supper set to clock. Cold meat, plenty of bread and butter, fried sweet or boiled chicken and hot boiled potatoes or fruit, is eaten before them. At 10 o'clock Slavin retires to his comfortable room.

They will remain in their present quarters until the night when the gladiators are to meet, and ten days later the table party will sail for Europe.

THE ENGLISH DERBY.

The Great Crowds—Sir F. Johnston's Common Wins.

London, May 27.—The great classical event of the English turf was run to-day at Epsom. As usual, the course was crowded with people of all classes.

tempt they got away splendidly. The Decemster went to the front and set the pace for a quarter of a mile. Then Dorcas took the lead, but was soon overhauled and passed by Gouverneur, who led at the mile post. Dorcas, who had been joined by Common, was close up, however. Coming down the Tattenham hill Common improved his stride, and forged ahead as they entered the straight. When the distance post was reached he drew ahead, the others. Coming on the favorite came in the commonest kind of a winner. Cuttlestone ran fourth. Simiona, though well ridden, was last horse throughout the race.

Common won by two lengths. Marten-hurat was a bad third. Time, 2:56 4/5.

WEDNESDAY'S BASE BALL.

The League and Association Games Played Yesterday.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 27.—Boston won to-day's game by fortunate bunting hits, while Pittsburg could do but little with Clarkson. Score:

GREAT ROWING CONTEST.

Hanlon and O'Connor and Gaudaur and McKay for the Double Championship.

TORONTO, ONT., May 27.—Hanlon and O'Connor yesterday afternoon met Richard Diesette, representing Gaudaur and McKay and drew up articles for a race for the double championship of the world. The contest is for $1,000 a side, and it is to be held about the middle of July, at a place to be agreed on later.

Cincinnati Races.

CINCINNATI, May 27.—Over 5,000 people enjoyed some exciting races to-day. First race, three year olds, one mile and one-sixteenth, won by Eugenie. Time, 1:51. Second, purse $500, three year olds, one mile and twenty yards, won by Marplot. Time, 1:45. Third, handicap, three year olds, one mile and one-eighth, won by Eli. Time, 1:51. Fourth, the triple stakes, three year olds, won by High Tariff. Time, 1:44. Fifth, maiden colts, two year olds, half mile, won by London. Time, 48.

Gravesend Races.

Third race, 1-16 miles; Laura Davidson won; time 1:52. Fourth race, three-quarter miles; Enterprise won; time 1:17. Fifth race; Fred Tard won; time 1:18.

Pittsburg Races.

PITTSBURGH, PA., May 27.—A good crowd witnessed the races at Homewood driving park to-day. Summary: 2:20 pace, purse $500, G. R. S. won in three straight heats. Best time, 2:19. 2:32 trot, Dandy won, Annie Wilkies second. Best time, 2:25.

A Big Night Arranged.

St. Louis, Mo., May 27.—A dispatch from San Antonio, Texas, says: Prof. Herman Bernan, champion heavy weight of Texas, now a resident of San Antonio, has accepted a challenge from Felix Vanquelin, the New Orleans heavy weight, to fight before any club for a purse. The further conditions for the next meeting will be arranged later.

Edward L. Rose & Co. have received within the last few days the Victor Safety Model C, which is a beauty in every line, and a new hickory, known as the "Common Sense," which sells at $75, and is adapted to either ladies' or gentlemen's use. They also have a fine assortment of second hand Bicycles.

L. S. Good sells dry goods the cheapest.

Rheumatism.

For this disease there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The prompt relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost, which is but fifty cents per bottle. Many very bad cases have been permanently cured by it. For sale by druggists.

If your name is not on the INTELLIGENCER'S subscription books make haste to get it on the list. Notwithstanding increased cost and general improvement there is no increase in price. Still better things are to come.

DON'T.

Don't attempt to reform the world; it's a large hemisphere and life is short.

Don't talk politics to ladies or dry goods to gentlemen! Good taste will endorse neither.

Don't think because you have been successful in one thing you can succeed in all! Few people succeed even in one thing.

Don't think yourself physically omnipotent! The weakest persons and the shortest lived are frequently those who feel the best.

Don't delay when you feel weak, languid, run-down or debilitated! Take something to stimulate your energies at once.

Don't think that any stimulant will do! Doctors, scientists and the best authorities agree that pure whiskey is the only reliable stimulant.

Don't be deceived into using an inferior whiskey! Remember that the most popular, the most pure, the most powerful and the most valuable whiskey is Duffy's Pure Malt and that it has been so admitted for years.

Don't let your dealer deceive you or impose upon you by saying he has "something just as good," something he can recommend. He has an interested motive in such assertions and they should be distrusted.

SOME LEADERS TAKEN BACK.

The Work of Resumption in the Coke Region.

SCOTTDALE, PA., May 27.—The work of resumption is going rapidly along. The Frick Coke Company now claim to have 60 per cent of their ovens in blast, and the McClure Company about 20 per cent.

Complaints continue to be heard on all sides of men being refused work, although a number refused last week have succeeded in getting the bosses to relent and letting them go to work.

The labor leaders are rallying from their defeat, and are planning for reorganization. Master Workman Wise held a large meeting at Morwood last night, and says the men are but little discouraged, and give him every assurance of remaining together and keeping the organization in the ascendancy. Secretary Parker held meetings at Leith and about Uniontown on Monday evening, and says he is confident the organization will remain firm.

James McBride and L. R. Davis left last night for Columbus, Ohio, to canvass the mining districts in that neighborhood for money to liquidate the district's indebtedness. Nearly $5,000 will have to be raised to pay all the debts, besides what will be needed to defend about one hundred leaders, who are under bail in various prosecutions.

BELLAIRE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

The steel plant will no doubt resume to-day. It chilled yesterday morning.

Mrs. W. C. Leasure, of Fargo, South Dakota, passed through here yesterday for Cadiz.

By the end of next week the Barnard brick works and drying sheds will be under roof.

A crowd of Bellaire Junior Mechanics went to Woodfield last night to help institute a new lodge there.

Mr. Jacob Carnes, of Wellsville, father of M. T. Carnes, is here on a visit, for the first time in several years.

Glasgow in pretty good lots here yesterday for Sidney, Australia; Sacramento, Cal., and Galveston, Tex.

The Chautauque circle will picnic at Wallace's Dam next Saturday, also looking up the geology of that vicinity.

Robert McVay has again received another big lot of certain stretchers and quilting frames, which go like hot cakes.

Samuel McDonald is check clerk on the R. & O. platforms during the absence of W. J. Ault at a grand lodge meeting in Cincinnati.

Several pretty well dressed tramps insulted ladies yesterday in the Fourth ward by their profanity. If repeated, some of them will be annihilated.

Three hundred dollars in wages was lost by the men at Rodefer Bros.' the Bottle Co.'s and the Lantern Globe Company by the boys' going to the circus.

People who left here for Hammond, Ind., are dissatisfied, and are coming back. Several have already arrived. Irregular time made is the cause ascribed.

A C. & P. yard engine jumped the track yesterday and started at right angles across the yards. A rail turning was the cause. She was soon righted, with very little damage.

About a year ago a crowd of young men left here between two days, there being a girl in the case. The same thing is about to occur again, and sea shore and far away fishing trips are contemplated by several young men.

A slight fire in the roof of the old Belmont glass works cutting department yesterday brought out the department, but their services were not needed, as a few bucketsful of water soon extinguished the flames and no damage was done.

Another special train came down the river yesterday, having on board Chief Clerk John McKim, of the superintendent's office at Wellsville, Roadmaster Scriven, Bridge Boss Martin, Building Boss Apple and several other officials on a tour of inspection.

"I Could Move the World"

If I had something to rest my lever on," said Archimedes. Large bodies move or are moved slowly. But it is no impossible or even difficult task to render those small bodies, the kidneys, active when they are not so. Don't try to do this with unmedicated alcoholic stimulants. The experiment is unsafe. The safe means is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which affords just the right amount of stimulus without overdoing the matter. Continued inactivity of either the kidneys or bladder, it should never be lost sight of, are attended with great peril. Bright's disease, diabetes, and other ailments which affect the renal organs, have their origin in inaction of the kidneys. To overcome this is an easy matter at the outset. Not so later. Now is the appointed time in a case of this sort. Irregularity of the bowels, stomach and liver, rheumatism and malaria are remedied by the Bitters.

Scrofula is a form of blood poison, descending from parent to child. Mercury and potash dry up scrofulous sores and bottle up the poison in the system. S. S. S. drives the poison out through the pores of the skin!

Her Boy.

Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) cured my little boy of hereditary scrofula, which broke out all over his face. For a year he had entered, and I had given up all hopes of his recovery, when at length I was induced to use S. S. S. After using a few bottles he was entirely cured. Not a symptom nor remains of the disease. This was three years ago.
