The Intelligencer.

The Lohengrin Affair in Paris. The interesting dispatches concerning the production in Paris of Wagner's "Lohengrin" have failed to portray adequately the frenzied effort of the extremists of the French capital to raise a mighty row over a small matter.

La Patrie, which rushed out a half sheet printed on one side, contains little else but hot denunciations of Germany and the Germans and red-hot appeals to the people to be on hand in the evening to register their protest.

The insult is found in the German emperor's speech at Erfurt, where it pleased the young man to speak of Napoleon I as a Corsican parvenu and to call up memories of the humiliation of France.

La Patrie calls on men of all parties to be Frenchmen before all and unite to defend their great men whose memory and immortal genius are attacked by the German, the savage and cruel hereditary enemy of their dear country.

The same newspaper advised its readers to gather on the outside of the opera house and cry, "hurrah for France," "hurrah for Russia," "down with Wagner,"—who is past doing them any harm.

This remarkable exhibition of childish rage over a work of art in itself offensive might well furnish the basis of a comic opera, the more comic because it is all in dead earnest.

The physicians make two points against the Keeley treatment of the alcohol, morphia and tobacco habits. First, they say it is no cure. They know all about it, the alleged remedy is much older than Keeley, and it is not possible that a treatment which has failed in able hands shall prove effective in Keeley's.

The doctors argue further that if Keeley has found a good thing he has no right as a physician to keep it to himself, to hold it as his own being contrary to the medical code of ethics.

The question that interests the rest of mankind is, whether the Keeley treatment has cured the men who say it has cured them. If some have been cured, others can be.

an important part in war where the roads are good, as they are in Europe.

Gen. Goff in Bellaire. The Republicans of Bellaire will formally open their campaign this evening with a meeting on the beautiful public square there, to be addressed by Gen. Nathan Goff.

Gen. Goff's fellow West Virginians will no doubt be glad to help honor the man they have so highly honored in the past. Bellaire expects to give him a good, big meeting, and it will do Wheeling and Benwood people good to go over and see what a spirited campaign is going on upon their borders.

Innocents Abroad. The INTELLIGENCER tourists had a rough time of it in the crowd on the night of the "Lohengrin" demonstration in Paris—the mob yelling and pushing and the police rushing the mob right and left; but this was not half so tough an experience as having to pay one hundred centimes for a glass of beer and a sandwich.

FITZSIMMONS has written to a Pittsburgh detective, Murphy, promising to kill him on sight, and Mr. Murphy is said to be nervous accordingly. If Mr. Fitzsimmons has it in his heart to murder Mr. Murphy it is very thoughtful of him to put that distinguished gentleman on his guard.

In the case of Col. Compton, of the Fourth cavalry, the President has tempered justice with more mercy than that officer is entitled to. All the circumstances of the lynching by his soldiers at Walla Walla show a looseness of discipline which would reduce an army to a dangerous mob.

This week Major McKinley is giving the freemen of the Scioto Valley the pure milk of the word. Yesterday afternoon he spoke at Chillicothe, last night at Chillicothe. We are at liberty to imagine that he made the tariff question and the highest dollar question as plain as he elsewhere.

AN epidemic of typhoid fever, "due to city water," is playing hob with Danbury, Connecticut. Notwithstanding the cloud of witnesses there are those who will not believe that the water supply has anything to do with typhoid fever.

THE Nihilist agent who goes from Boston to Russia to bring back reliable reports on the situation in that country may find it convenient to communicate from the spirit world. They do things their own way in Russia.

GOV. PATTERSON is understood to be willing to sit in the United States Senate if he cannot warm himself in the White House. Is there any comfortable office Gov. Patterson would not accept?

OVER in Ohio they sing the tender refrain, "sugar and tin are bound to win." A first class article of poetry is not often based on so solid a foundation of indestructible fact.

RECORDS of all sorts are broken this year. Everything and everybody must go faster or be left in the race. Move faster, live faster, die faster. What's the use?

ANY artist who has about his person something in the way of genuine rain-producing fulminant may hear of something to his advantage by coming this way.

MICHAEL DAVITT predicts that after the next elections Parnell will disappear from Irish politics. It won't take much of a hole for him to disappear in.

road apparently at ease, though, of course, his machine was without saddle.

The champion rattlesnake killer in Georgia is said to be D. H. Glover, of Dublin. A few days ago, with only a small stick for a weapon, he killed twenty-one rattlesnakes in less than half an hour.

A titled circus rider, who has won popularity in Italy, Baroness Von Rhaden, is to come on a professional visit to this country, it is announced.

The largest farm in the world is said to be in Louisiana. It is 100 by 25 miles, and embraces 1,600,000 acres. It cost $50,000 to fence it.

How the Rothschilds are housed at Ferrieres, near Paris, may be judged by their five establishments, worth $4,000,000, needing the services of 150 people. The stables contain 100 horses.

Among lecturers now and desirous of being seen on the rostrum are George R. Wendling, David Swing, Thomas Nelson Page, Russell Conwell, Bishop Vincent, L. F. Copeland, Frances E. Willard, George W. Cable, Kato Field and Bob Nourse.

It is an interesting coincidence that Senator Chandler, of New Hampshire, married the daughter of the late Senator Hale and that Senator Hale, of Maine, has for a wife the daughter of the late Senator Chandler, of Michigan.

THE works of Thackeray are said to sell more largely at the booksellers and to be in greater demand at the libraries now than ever before.

SPUDWAY—"Have a good time while you were on your vacation, Jags?" Jags—"Yes. It did me a world of good. While I was away a friend sent me a package of Rybold's specific for drunkenness."

"His friends all advised him to go on the stage," said the unsuccessful tragedian's father. "Yes, I see now it was his friends egged him on and the audience egged him off."

"Why, now I cannot get enough to eat," says one lady who formerly had no appetite, but took Hood's Sarsaparilla.

THE man who drinks to drown his troubles finds them well provided with life preservers.

NO notes go to protest more speedily than those of a bad singer.

Bently, Harvey Thomas, James Cross and Baron Lethrow, members of a desperate gang of white robbers, in jail under a sentence for robbery and train wrecking, overpowered Deputy Sheriff B. H. Melton this morning.

LIBERATED the Moonshiners. ST. STEPHENS, N. B., Sept. 28.—Tom Mohar, proprietor of an illicit liquor establishment, broke jail on Saturday but was recaptured. On the way back to prison three men with blackened faces and long rubber coats rushed out of the bushes, and covering the escort with a brace of revolvers compelled him to liberate the prisoner, whom they took across the border into Maine.
